American and Foreign Agency

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE undersigned, Aaron Harper Palmer, of New York, Counsellor and Chancellor of the Supreme Court of the United States, has associated himself with Wortington G. Whitney, late Attorney and Counsellor of the said Court, and late solicitor of the General Land Office of the United States, for the transaction of Law and Agency business at Washington, the seat of the Federal Government.

They are versed in all professional business in the respective Courts of the United States, and especially in cases of California land claims pending up on appeal.

To the recovery of every description of claims in law or equity against the United States, before Congress, or the Executive Departments, and against foreign Governments, before any bureau of government at Washington.

To the settlement of accounts with the State, Treasury, War, Navy, Post Office, and Interior Departments.

To claims for remission of fines, penalties and forfeitures, for alleged violations of the revenue laws, or other laws.

To the settlement of claims to United States land warrants, bounty land warrants, pensions, &c.

To the obtaining of patents for inventions, and the procuring of copies of the Patent Office, or other Bureaus.

To the obtaining of claims, claims, bounties and pensions, either in the United States or in the foreign country.

And to the transaction of any business requiring the intervention of an Attorney or Counsel.

Mr. Palmer was director of the NEW YORK AMERICAN AND FOREIGN AGENCY, which he established in 1836, and which became extensively and advantageously known to all parts of the commercial world. He has retained large interest in the business of said Agency. His second and last wife made the admirable compact of Messrs. N. M. Rothschild and Sons of London, with their special letters to his firm in the all most boundless of that House, and to their principal correspondents in the chief cities of Europe, as intimately connected with the negotiation of American stocks, and he has the advantage, therefore, of being personally known to all the leading foreign bankers and the most eminent gentlemen of the legal profession abroad.

Mr. Whitney has had extensive experience, officially and professionally, in the practice of the Civil Law, the Law Merchant, our Land Laws, and the French, Spanish, and Mexican Laws, affecting land titles in all our acquired territories.

Both the undersigned are practically conversant with the principal European languages.

All business confided to their Agency shall be promptly and faithfully attended to.

JOSEPH W. GREGORY, Proprietor.

Office in the Pacific Express Office, Corner of Montgomery and Merchant st. San Francisco.

To Immigrants and others.

THE undersigned, proprietors of the Town of Milton, being desirous to have business more regular, propose that they will give to every head of children two town lots, and every single man one town lot, who will locate on actual settler of said town within six months, and build a house upon the same; in addition to which we will sell building materials to those that may the proportion, one above that is reasonable for all time to pay for them.

To any one that will build a grist mill, we will extend to double bounds of the [illegible] a mill site, together with land sufficient for the power of a good mill.

The town is handsomely located upon the forks branch of the Willamette river, [illegible] enough above to navigate with the Columbia to render it an excellent harbor, and has the advantage of being near enough to be easily reached by the [illegible] of the country, and yet far enough from the Columbia to be out of the reach of the [illegible] that has a wagon road leading from it to the Willamette valley.

The immediate surrounding country, one of the finest, affording water power sufficient to manufacture 50,000 feet of lumber per day—from one of which there are mills are now undertaken.

Although this town has been laid out but a few months, it has already made much progress in point of improvement and population, and bids fair, ere, to become the most important one in the territory.

To those desirous of taking up land claims, we would state that we are surrounded by an immense and fertile country in Oregon City, bounded, including the Champoeg prairie, Chehalem Island, the rich and extensive Pratenberg settlement, and the Calapooia or Lewis river, and the fertile land in the immediate vicinity of the town.
