LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE

FAREWELL PARTY.—Last Thursday evening week, we were called upon, yes, sent for, and was caused to accept of an invitation to a farewell party of Miss Emma Miller at the residence of Mr. Porter. A nice time was had for a few short hours playing the numerous games known to our boyhood—among them the interesting game of "smut"—as a member stated, he played the game for some time in order to get the chance to smut a very good looking young ladys' fair complexion, and was much deceived upon seeing the cork had been whitened in the undertaking. Ladies present were Misses Anna Reeves, Millie Young, Viela Despain, Susie Despain, Carry Keeney, Mary White, Allis Dougherty, Carry Wells, Lena Allen, Sally Gilcrest, Katie Webb and Maggie Gilcrest. Several married ladies were present. The gathering was a splendid affair and was muchly enjoyed by all. Miss Katie Webb discoursed the music of the evening with a few choice songs. "Come one again."

We notice by the La Grande Gazette that Umatilla County is about 60-thousand dollars in debt. Please deduct about 45-thousand and you would be about right, but if this county has to prosecute all the Indian murderers of the county, it will probably amount to the sum of $60,000. But Mr. Gazette, place this blame if you please to the Republican policy of turning all Indians over to religious societies to manage. Had the military had charge of all reservations on this coast, Umatilla County might have been spared this extra expense and many of its good citizens who are now gone, have been alive and well and could have helped to extinguish this little debt we owe.

Aaron the first was chief spokesman for Moses during his negotiations with old Pharao. That was many years ago. You can find an authentic history of it in Genises or Exodus. Read it all, it won't hurt you. But our Aaron is a different man, a man of few words, but for polishing up glasses and slitting out the most exhilarating drinks, allow us to recommend our Aaron Sparks—give him a call—next door to meat market.

STRAYED—From my ranch near Milton, on or about the 20th of August, 1878, two work ponies, as follows: One black 3 y'r old stallion, stripe in face, branded M on left shoulder and diamond F on right thigh. One black 5-year old, smallest of the two, white spot in forehead, branded 4 on left shoulder. Both roached manes and broke well to the saddle. M. P. BULL.

Anyone giving me at EAST OREGONIAN office any information of the above will be liberally rewarded. G. M. BULL.

Jo. Lennox of Weston paid Pendleton a visit not long since, and says he is doing Weston its deserving rights with his tonsorial art for which he is indebted to Pendleton's artist for present fitness for the position which he now fills. Jo. is a subscriber to the EAST OREGONIAN and will favor its readers with an advertisement. Jo., you are missed among us, and we hope you may prosper always.

We happened into the extensive beer factory of A. Lang, and found him busily engaged b[illegible]ng a fine article of beer. He instructed us fully in the matter, but we can't give the modus operanda, but you call and see for yourself, and if you come away without having made up your mind that he is a bully Dutchman, then blame us for recommending him and his lager.

"STUCK UP."—We neglected last week to note the fact that sign boards were being "stuck up" in our midst and vicinity of Pendleton, advertising the Beatty organ, manufactured by Daniel Beatty, Washington, N. J. Our curiosity being excited as to the "putter up" and painter of these signs, we were able to learn that R. Moreno has the contract for five counties of putting up these boards.

PERSONAL.—Ed Stewart one of the first settlers in the county—after having made one of the best farms on Birch creek—raising one of the finest orchards in the county and in fact made a home fit for a prince—he and his wife are about to leave us on an extended trip to visit their numerous children who are settled in different parts of the states and British Columbia. They intend visiting their old home in Dayton, Ohio. May they have lots of fun and return in peace.

The old Sample Rooms with Steve at the head still stands—Steve is in his glory. Piano music every evening and popular songs by Vawter. The best of wines and liquors, and Steve wants them all sampled—give him a call—he don't propose to treat over half the time—balance cash on delivery—give him a call and if he don't treat you right lay it to Jim Turner.

PERSONAL.—Alexander, commonly called Alex., has at last gone from our gaze, his smiling phiz is seen no more upon the street, his winning ways will cause no blush upon the fair of Pendleton for sometime to come, his black glossy locks, beaming countenance and tastefully arranged dress will next be heard of in San Francisco where he goes to purchase one of the largest stocks of goods ever brought to this market. San Francisco belle "Beware, oh, Take care."

Read "Bill" Switzler's new advertisement. Wm. is selling off at cost and no foolishness.

A. Stang of the Centennial brewery has been rusticating at the Warm Springs for the past two weeks whither he went for his health.

We learn that Mart Taylor of Pacific Coast notoriety is now in Portland making inflamatory speeches to working men. O, what a Mart, wonders never do cease.

St. Joseph's hospital, under charge of Sisters of Charity at Vancouver, was destroyed by fire last week. Total loss, $5,000.

Gen. Howard has had a pow-wow with Moses and his band—all were satisfied—and the general has gone below believing that further trouble with them is "all in your eye."

Prosecuting Attorney L. B.Ison put in an appearance in our town Monday last. His business seems to be to bring the murderous Indians before the civil authorities.

Col. Mizner and his command went down the river last Tuesday. This probably ends the Indian campaign in Eastern Oregon this summer or fall. "Everything quiet on the Potomac."

Old Abe and Bill Ellis are supposed to have the finest liquors and wines and best and only pool table in town. All the boys appreciate them. Call and see for yourselves and be satisfied.

We are sorry to have to state that Abe Jacobson has had a severe attack of cholera morbus—he is now convalescent. "May his shadow never grow less."

G. W. Webb has gone from our gaze to Portland to renew his stock of stoves and tinware. Coley Marshall attends to the business in Webb's absence. Now is the time to get a good bargain. Call and see Coley.

AMERICAN MERINO SHEEP.—A few rams raised from our old stock of sheep imported by Smith & White, also some from some of the best ewes in Vermont that took the first premium at the California State Fair last Fall, for sale by White & Putnam in Walla Walla.

PAY up and save cost. The accounts of Sandford & Co, have been placed in the hands of Turner & Bailey, attorneys, for collection. All those indebted to said firm are required to make immediate payment or forced collection will be made. August 31st [4t] 1878.

Last issue we noticed the fact that Thos. Coons, erroneously printed Cuon, had gone into the mountains in search of his brother who was killed by Indians. The body was found about three miles from Upper Butter Creek. This shows what a good heart and good perseverance can do.

Augustus Kinney is about to make a shipment of 10,000 pounds of fresh beef from Astoria to San Francisco. He has completed his refrigator and has ten ton of ice on hand ready for use. If it proves a success he is going to make a permanent business of it.

We printed in our last issue that the hostages required of the Indians had not been given up. Major Throckmorton informs us that such are not the facts—that the hostages were given up strictly according to the order of Gen. Howard.

ANOTHER GOOD INDIAN.—Last Monday one of the Columbias who was known to the Cayuse and Umatilla Indians as having been engaged in the late unpleasantness, when told that he must deliver himself up to the whites—coolly drew a pistol and blew the top of his own head off. Thus they glide—name, Waugh-te-luie.

From J. H. Turner we have received the news of the sickness of his boy Marvin. The disease is called pneumonia. The boy is with his mother at Bethel, Polk Co. Turner starts to see him on the 8th. Strong hopes were entertained of his recovery. All the little boys in town would be glad to hear he was well, as Marvin was a great favorite with them.

Hon. N. T. Caton received the nomination for delegate to congress by acclamation of the democratic convention assembled at Vancouver. A better choice could not have been made. When he and our Eastern Oregon Senator get to Washington we may expect to see something done toward opening up the Columbia.

We note the arrival of Frank Gray from Walla Walla with his mother and sister. Frank has been one of us for a number of years, having made many warm friends and won the esteem of nearly all by his straight foward and manly course in his business matters, and now has shown himself to be a dutiful son by giving his old mother a good home with himself.

PUBLIC SALE.—There will be a public sale of the following described property on Wednesday, 18th day of September at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at Arthur Crisfield's ranch on Butter Creek, Umatilla County, State of Oregon: 250 or 300 head of stock cattle, three sets of harness, one set blacksmith tools, two plows, one harrow, one mowing machine, also a lot hay and straw.
J. M. SHULL,
Deputy U. S. Marshal.

Thompson & Barnhart inform us that out of their bands of sheep that were on Camas Prairie during the Indian raid that they have lost about 1000 head, the original amount being not far from 1600 head. They also inform us that others have lost in about the same proportion, some less, and other some more, that the average loss will not vary far from the above figures.

The subscriptions already raised in Portland for sufferers by yellow fever on the Mississippi up to Saturday last was as follows, per Standard:

The following reports of contributions received were made by the various committees:

North District, by Jackson	$2,500 00
South District, by Buchanan	856 00
Western District, Capus	457 50
Total	$3,813 50

Arrangements were made for forwarding the contributions to the distressed districts of the South by telegraph. The committee adjourned to meet this evening at council rooms at 7:30 o'clock.

SALEM, Sept. 9, 1878.—Both Houses have effected an organization, it being a very quiet selection of officers and rapid choice. Hon. J. M. Thompson, of Lane, Speaker of the House; W. L. White, of Oregon City, chief clerk; Lafayette Williams, of Salem, assistant clerk; Fred Castleman, sergeant-at-arms; Buck Myers, doorkeeper; James Doherty, of this city, and Delzon Smith, pages.

SENATE.

Hon. John Whiteaker, of Lane County, President; Syl C. Simpson, chief clerk; J. W. Baker, assistant clerk; Martin Angel, of Albany, sergeant-at-arms; Geo. Wren, doorkeeper.

GIRLS OF THE PERIOD.—Sal Ary is the girl that everybody wishes to Secure—Whiteball Times. Ann City is also much admired.—Boston Post. But the worst bread girl is that brazing huzzy Sal Æratus.—Philadelphia Bulletin. Sal Ubrious isn't a bad gal to have around, but Sal Ivate is.—Williamgton evening. But after all, the best girl to put your faith in is Sal Vation.—Norristown Herald. These Sallies are good, but if you want a right smart, spicy girl, take Sal Magundi.—Hackensack Republican. Sal Almander is the girl for a hot climate.—S. F. Chronicle. Let us not turn our noses at Sal Ladd or Sal Sify, either, as girls to fill up our leisure hours in early vegetable season.—Oregon City Enterprise. Sal Oon is considered the girl among the b'hoys.—Portland Bee.

If you want a girl to help you make a raise "go for" Sal Soda.

Gov. Brayman on the Indian Question.

[From the Lewiston Teller.]

From a letter received in this city from Gov. Brayman, we are permitted to copy the following:

"I counsel moderation and caution, I merely mean that our people ought not to injure non-combatants, so as to make neutral Indians unfriendly, and should not provoke a fight with hostiles, until there is a chance of standing up to it. The fire upon Indians, under such disadvantages, as compells us to run away from them, only brings destruction upon exposed settlement and families.

As to the returning Nez Perces of last years massacres, it is quite natural that our people who have suffered from their murders and depredations, should shoot them on sight. For it must be understood that they shall not be permitted to return to the scenes of their crimes unpunished. They made themselves outlaws, and must so remain until atonement is made. It is [illegible] of the civil authorities to now the p[illegible] under indictment, assist and try in the court[illegible]ment, all who can be identified and tak[illegible]. This will be best when practicable. It will stand in place of a moral peace to the savages, by reminding them that killing women and children, and unoffending citizens, is not war, but murder—not heroism, but crime. When they hung sixty of the Minnesota savages at once, they did more to prevent future outrage than was done when Joseph and his murders were taken to Ft. Leavenworth, and elegantly housed, and clothed, and feasted, and made the objects of endless admiring attentions. For, there have been no massacres in Minnesota since that effective lesson; while the Indians of Idaho, doubtless encouraged by the pleasant example and experience of the Nez Perces, have sought fame and feast of fat things through the same means. If the government can seperate the races, very well; but if they must live together, there must be but one law for both. That keen sense of justice which is inherent, among even the roughest of our border populations, demand this. When the law fails its retributions and becomes so evidently one-sided, the law of retaliation and self-preservation comes in—a higher law which cannot be stayed. When the administration of law fails, anarchy and violence begin. When education, the prison and the halter cease to do their office, confusion, the knife and the bullet take their place. That is to say, that if our humanitarians do not want white men to shoot Indians, they must prevent Indians scalping white women and children, and that if our government does not punish Indian murderers by proper p[illegible] as under the law the victims of the wron[illegible] kill, in their own rough way, exact the p[illegible]ty."
