LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE

Splendid Affair.

Professor Harmen gave one of his "side splitting" entertainments at Milarkey's Hall on Tuesday evening last. It was really entertaining and everything done up in the Prof.'s usual elegant style. Notwithstanding, the audience had been up the night previous at the school entertainment till a late hour, they remained patiently until near midnight. Mr. Harmen has added many new features to his entertainment that are so laughable that even a dying saint would be forced to smile. His powers of vantriloquism are unsurpassed. He went from here to Walla Walla, Weston and Centerville and will return in a few days on his way to La Grande, Union and Baker.

NICE CANE.—We are now placed under many obligations to our friend, R. Moreno, for a nice cane, his own make—well made and varnished off to perfection, and in fine style. We feel proud of it and feel like joining the "stiffs." Mr. Moreno has been amongst us a long time and has established himself as a No. 1 painter, better than anyother ever heretofore in Pendleton and as good as Pendleton will ever be able or proud to boast of, for he is always with the tide of time. He has made arrangements with Bentley & Hawn of the planing mill for painting all furniture manufactured by them. Many thanks, Cardo, and may you ever succeed in your business undertakings.

CHANGE OF GRADE.—The Island Empire says: "The grade on the Walla, and Columbia River Railroad is being lowered for a distance of about three miles near the summit, by a gang of about 100 men under the supervision of Ben Hayward, the old and popular conductor on that road. The gaps hitherto covered by trestle-work are being filled in with earth and rock taken from the deep cuts made in the the highest ground, thus materially reducing the gradient and enabling the locomotives to haul much heavier loads in the future. The new work will be completed in about forty days."

BEAUTIFUL.—Dr. J. M. Pruett has had a porch built in front of his dwelling in the west end of town. For beauty of design and elegance of structure it cannot be excelled. We think it the nicest piece of work of the kind we have ever seen in this county. Mr. J. F. Dun, late of California, is the builder, and if this is a specimen of his workmanship he need have no fears of getting all the work he can do. He is a first-class workman as this, his first job, fully demonstrates.

YELLOW BULL.—The Lewiston Teller says the Indian who figured so conspicuously at Washington with Chief Joseph, and was such a lion at the President's mansion under the name of Yellow Bull, is no other than Chotlin Mox Mox the murderer of Mrs. Manuel and child near the mouth of White Bird creek, on Thursday the 12th day of June 1877, the day before the outbreak on Camas Prairie.

NOTICE.—Correspondents will please write on but one side of the paper as we are liable not to pay attention to the other, which is not customary to do. We have gave notice to this effect several times before, and let this be the last. Cut your communications short, and give us something new. The subject of weather is getting monotonous and as the good old saying goes which makes the compositor and all hands feel happy—"Cut it short and boil it down."

PERSONAL.—Tip Parrent of the Warm Springs was in town this week and thrust his smiling phiz athwart our threshold. He informs us that the old Thomas Buckle road over the mountains by the Warm Springs is open and travel has been going over for two weeks. This is a free road and persons going over the mountains would save the heavy expense of toll by traveling this route.

ON THE WING.—Mr. W. L. Black, editor and proprietor of the Weston Leader, has been doing the town this week. He is a whole-souled gentleman, and we are glad to say that he is making the Leader a success. Here's our paw pard; may you live long and prosper, and when you die may you locate in the same country where our lot is cast and where the climate is mild and pleasant.

PERSONAL.—Dave Taylor, ex-Assessor and ex-Deputy Sheriff was in town this week and gave us a call. Dave is a good fellow in the true sense of the word and one of the best officers Umatilla county has ever had. We miss him since his retirement from office and hope he may be returned at an early day.

ARRESTED.—United States Commissioner Bailey issued warrants on Monday last for the apprehension of the men who are accused of shooting at the Indians near Pilot Rock lately. One of them was arrested by deputy U. S. Marshall, Morse on Tuesday. The other two made their escape.

HA, HA!—How nice it is to edit a paper and have some one do it for you—then, not correctly.

Pendleton has two night watches.

COURTING.—Everybody was in town this week courting.

FINEST.—Steve keeps the finest of cigars, wines, liquors, etc., at the Bon Ton Saloon.

NOTICE.—We want eggs and butter. Bring them in, will you?

Bill Henry Ashly Kathan, the ghost from Heppner, gave us a call this week.

The first vegetables of the season brought in this week.

GONE.—Mrs. Hexter has gone to the Metropolis for her spring stock of millinery goods.

POSTPONED.—The sale of the Reeves property, back of Switzler's corner, was postponed till to-day.

We acknowledge a call from our friend J. J. Wheeler of La Grande on Wednesday last. Jim looks as young and jolly as ever.

DITTO.—The Umatilla River is still full and quite a number of boys around town were in the same fix the other night.

NOTICE.—Call on Mr. J. Hexter if you want some nice potatoes. He has some fine early rose and other potatoes for sale.

WANTED.—We are having a new sign painted for the "E. O." office, which, when completed, will excel anything in town. R. Moreno, painter.

TRY AGAIN.—The high school exhibition tries to guess who the Old Philosopher is. Try again Professor you will make it after awhile.

CONSIDERABLE.—A great deal of probate and miscellaneous busines transacted in the county court this week. A full account next week.

AWAY TO IDAHO.—Bud Beagle swooped down like a wolf on the fold, took his girl and left for Idaho where they twain were made one.

LILLEY.—Pendleton is full of people. Some attending court, some emigrants passing through, and some here with a view to locating.

NEAT PORCH.—Cass Matlock has erected a neat porch in front of his Saloon and repaired the sidewalk. Mays & Zeigler were the architects, and the job speaks we'll for them.

HONEY.—If you desire to sweeten yourself at a bit a pound, send to J. B. Wells, Umatilla, and get some pure stirrized honey. See his "ad."

LORDY, LORDY LORDY.—The "local paper" has bought us out and the Independent is coquetting with it, her or him. Oh lordy, lordy, lordy, and the young "hopefer" promises something "mentally" but we doubt if it, she, or him will be in a condition to come to time for several months if the Independent is not begred out. Oh, lordy, lordy, lordy. Perhaps the spring "flowers" will cease to bloom.

THE GROW.—Read "ad." of Ashly Kathan under "New To-day." When you go to Heppner don't fail to call at this house to get your "alps" for here you can rest assured you will get pure liquors and the very best of cigars. The "ghost" knows what good and keeps it. Bank Exchange, don't forget it.

FOR MONTANA.—Berry Brothers have bought about 500 head of Cayuse horses and left this week with them for Montana. This has left in our midst several thousand dollars, and dollars of our dad's are plentiful among the natives about this time. These Indians sell thousands of dollars worth of Cayuses every year.

PROSPECTS GOOD.—Senator Slater writes us that the prospects for opening the reservation is very flattering indeed. He says he has had an interview with the Secretary of the Interior and that he favors the move. We hope Cornoyer will not defeat it.

NOT EXACTLY.—We are not mad at what was said about the EAST OREGONIAN at the exhibition the other night, but some of the boys don't exactly relish what was said about them. We got $5 for what printing we did, and of course we are satisfied.

SCARCE.—Owing to the press of business in the county court this week we have not been able to get around as we usually do, and all the local news picked up this week has been done by our Janitor, Mr. Bull, at odd times when he could leave his case.

STOPPED.—Frank Gray, J. C. Shuinwald and the other members of the P. A. D. Association performed the other evening, we understand, as if they had been brought up to the business.

PERSONAL PICTURES.—Those who ordered pictures through Mr. L. R. Wells will take notice that he is here and will be ready to deliver the pictures in a few days and be ready to pay for them on delivery.

URGENTLY.—Go into Matlock's Saloon and see the sample of red wood bark brought up by Ben Despain, Jr. It is a novelty to those who have never seen anything of the kind. It is off a tree 40 feet in diameter. Don't fail to see it.

OH, LORDY.—One more entertainment and then what! Oh, lordy, lordy, lordy. We guess we will suspend; We hate to do it but—but—Oh, lordy, lordy, lordy! We guess we'll have to, since the Prof. is "arter" us.

MARKET.—Pendleton market report:—Flour per bbl, $5; corn meal per lb, 4c; eggs per doz, 25c; butter per lb, 37½; bacon, sides and shoulders, 12½c; hams, 15c; lard, 12½.

ABANDONED.—The U. I. & O. Stage Co. have abandoned their blacksmith shop in this place and propose to run all their coaches to Boise City for repairs.

VISITING.—Hon. S. M. Pennington of the Pendleton Hotel is visiting his ranch on Butter creek. His associate O. O. Benson is landlord in chief in his absence.

ANOTHER CRIPPLE.—Sheriff Sperry had his wagon tipped over on his return from Couse creek the other day and sprained his ankle. He is going on crutches.

NO. 1.—With spring comes the annual shows. Give us a rest, all except Prof. Harmen. We always like to attend his entertainments.

Some of Each.

Portland is to have another agricultural paper.

Umatilla is a cayuse word, and means sand.

There is a great rush to the Snake river mines.

Farmers in Idaho expect a good fruit season.

Flour is selling in Kittitas valley for $8 per barrell.

Wheat is selling here at 60 cents per bushel.

A large barrel factory will soon be established at Seattle.

Logging camps are all laying in Spring supplies on the Sound.

There is no abatement in the Skagit river placer excitement.

There is a great amount of snow in the mountains east of Lewiston.

We received a fine assortment of job printing from Abbot & Sons, Dayton.

A newspaper man of Coos county, has been robbed of $300.

Frank Robbins, a young printer of Olympia, W. T., died on the 21st inst.

The O. S. N. Co. are preparing for high water on the Upper Columbia.

We have a nice gravel walk now from the street to our printing office door.

Lindsey Roberts has given $200 bonds to his leave for home.

The old Kuykendall & Godkin shop, next Arnold's school house, has been torn down.

BAIL ARRESTED.—Ex-Sheriff Dale, who was found to be a defaulter to Yamhill county in the sum of $17,000, and who has been sojourning in British Columbia for some time, returned home not long since, but being recognized while passing through Portland, a dispatch was sent to Layette, and Mr. Dale apprehended. He was escorted to jail where he will remain, to answer the several indictments against him.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher lately uttered the following:

"Is not a dollar a day enough to buy bread? Water costs nothing; and a man who cannot live on bread is not fit to live. A family may live, laugh, love and be happy that eats bread in the morning with good water, and water and good bread at noon, and water and bread at night."

ONCE MORE.—J. W. Bowman takes possession of his stable on the 25th inst. look out for his "ad."

The School Exhibition.

PENDLETON, April 9th, 1879.

EDITOR "E. O."—

Happening to glance over the columns of the Pendleton Independent this evening, I happened to see an article headed "School Exhibition," I thought I would try to give you an account of it, as I saw it. I shall start at the beginning of the programme, where I see an Essay by Miss Annie Mendenhall, which was no doubt written well, but was delivered in quite a low key, the young lady in question not being an A. No. 1 reader. The next thing I come across is the Local Paper, with Miss Mollie Benson as editress. This is what seems to have struck Fred comically; he gloats over the taste exhibited by the editress (?) in the brevity of her articles, her brickbats and last, but not by any means least, her sarcastic thrusts at the "E. O." and say friend, the "Old Philosopher." If Fred constitutes himself as the audition, the foregoing thrusts, etc. must have been enjoyable, but then, Mr. Editor, we are all, thank Heaven, not as short-sighted as Fred is, for the reason, that all we could make out of that paper was, that somebody was very anxious to know, who the "Old Philosopher" was. The Song, by Mrs. Abbie Mays was rendered in her usually fine style. The recitation of "The Curfew" by Miss Flora McKay would bear a great deal of criticism, but all I shall say about it, is, that as Miss Flora's next appearance before an audience, she should take more care with her gestures, and put a little more feeling and tone into her voice. The Dialogue was well delivered by the Misses Melvina Mendenhall and Lucy Matlock, but the piece itself amounted to very little. Wonder what Fred means, by giving advice to Frank Gray, Coley Marshall and Carlo Moreno. He was no doubt standing back by the stove, and I suppose that is the reason he could not hear what was going on. The Drama of "Down by the Sea" was without doubt the best thing of the evening, both in acting and sentiment and we congratulate all the participants in this play, for the success they achieved with it. I sat at least 25 feet from the stage, and I can assure the above mentioned gentleman that I could hear every word. Right here I wish to make a few remarks, concerning the unusual amount of noise made on the evening of the exhibition, and we would advise whoever may take a notion of giving another entertainment to have somebody in the hall to keep order among the small boys, and let them know if they do not keep quiet, they will be escorted from the room. I quite agree with your contemporary on the rendition of the "Red Frizzette" and would also compliment the young ladies, who acted it on the undoubted success they achieved. I hope no one interested will take exceptions at my corrections, but should they do so, I would be pleased at anytime to answer them through the columns of your paper. The exhibition taken altogether was an undoubted success, and I can assure you the above article was not intended to deteriorate, in any way the success of the exhibition, but merely to correct and slightly criticise some of the participants. Hoping Fred will soon see the "error of his ways," and will try to make out a better case next time, I am ever,

Your faithful, CRITIC.

NOTICE.—Read stray notice of Sturgis Bros. and get the reward by returning the animal.

DISCONTINUED.—Dr. W. P. Grubbe has discontinued teaching at Weston and will resume the practice of his profession. As soon as he determines definitely on his location, it will be announced in our columns. The Dr. gave us a call this week.
