Democratic Platform.

We, the Democracy of Umatilla county, Oregon, in Convention assembled believing, that this is a Democratic Government, founded upon Democratic principles, and that the perpetuity thereof depends upon the success of the Democratic party, do hereby submit the following resolutions to the voters of this county:

1. That we cordially invite all, regardless of past political affiliations, to participate with us in the support of Democratic principles.

2. That we deprecate the move now being made by the enemies of the Democratic party in this county to cause sectional strife upon local issues for the purpose of dividing the party.

3. That all questions of political interest or public utility and importance can better be adjusted in and by a harmonious action of the Democratic party than in any other manner, and that we have full confidence in the wisdom and integrity of the Democracy of this county to legislate upon all questions of public importance appertaining to the general welfare of said county.

4. That wisdom and justice dictate that that line of policy should be pursued which will result in the greatest good to the greatest number, and that we therefore ask that our representatives, if petitioned so to do, at the ensuing session of the legislature, labor for the passage of an act submitting to a vote of the people the question of dividing the county.

REPUBLICANISM.—Last Saturday the stalwarts met in their Primary Convention, that is where enough could be gathered together to form a quorum. Weston precinct did not gather, but the Pendleton Republicans were out in force. For about a half an hour during the afternoon nothing could be seen but the rival candidates, taking their friends to the polls. The mill faction at last walked off with the bone of contention, to-wit: candidates to County Convention who were in favor of Lot Livermore for sheriff, and well they might for it seemed that every other man you met was direct from Byers & Co.'s Mill or had a row with his wife while she was making bread. S. L. Morse, the opposing candidate, declared he had never seen so many millers in all his life; but he is satisfied now as his commission for Deputy U. S. Marshall has arrived. This leaves a vacancy in the list of sheriffs, but we have every reason to believe that another dark horse will appear in the County Convention which meets to-day. Harmony and J. H. Mitchell is the watch-word.

Strange as it may appear to men who traveled over this country years ago and could see no good farming land, that nearly all the bunch grass land that has been tried has been found the very best wheat land in the world. For the last year a great amount of this land has been brought under cultivation between here and the Columbia, and now has a world wide fame as the "Cold Spring country," with an outlet either at Simmons' Landing or at Umatilla. And now the county south and west of Umatilla river is fast settling, the general contour of the country being similar to the Cold Spring country, but water is obtained with less digging. We understand that a large portion of the bunch grass land lying between Umatilla river and Butter creek has been taken. Still Umatilla county has room for one more.

The attempt to prevent the carrying of letters by Wells Fargo & Co.'s Express company is another illustration of the stupidity P. M. G. Key and his total unfitness for that position. Such a movement if put in force would prove a calamity to many new mining section on this coast. Wells, Fargo & Co., are always pioneers when a new mining camp springs into existence, not unfrequently supplying the only mail facilities for many months before the red tape officials of the Department at Washington can be induced to establish a post-office. It is urged that the company is in habit of carrying over weight letters depriving government of the revenue to which it is entitled, an assumption that is wholly unfounded as it has been proven that the company's operations have materially increased the post-office revenue. It has done this by carrying letters wherever there was no post-office facilities, so that, without the aid of the express, no letters could be sent to remote places. It is to be hoped that the Pacific Coast delegation in Congress will make every effort to frustrate a proposition which is as absurd as it is outrageous and if carried out will work injustice to a large number of people scattered all over the frontier country.—Ex.

For a long time the Mountain Sentinel has pursued L. B. Ison our very efficient Prosecuting Attorney, with a vindictiveness rarely equal. Infamous stories in regard to him have appeared in the sheet, but Ison kept on in the even tenor of his way, fairly outliving all that had been printed. At last McComas has become satisfied that the stories are without foundation, and has honorably published the following in the Sentinel:

"Since writing the article referred to, we have become so thoroughly convinced that the information on which it was based was both malignant and unreliable, that we deem it our duty to say to the public that we are satisfied no evidence can be produced that would in any way implicate Mr. Ison in any dishonorable transaction in connection with the matter referred to, or, in fact, in any other transaction connected with his official duties, and we most cheerfully do Mr. Ison the justice to publicly withdraw all accusations or insinuations that we have made against him."

The old-line Republicans were set back in good shape by the Herald's little Republican Club at the primaries last Saturday. The old war-horses were set down upon rather hard, but then that is to be the programme here in the future as far as possible. Mitchell never had many warm friends among the Republicans here, and could not expect any re-nomination from his party in Old Linn unless he secured it by jobbery. The consequence is we have a Mitchell paper here, and his boom has commenced.—Mefarmog.

Transfer of the Real and Personal Property of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company.

TO ITS SUCCESSORS, THE OREGON RAILWAY AND NAVIGATION COMPANY.

[Standard, April 23d.]

The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company have now acquired full title and possession to all the property for which it has been negotiating for some time past. Although it was generally understood that the new corporation would take control on the commencement of the present year, the final transfer was not consummated until yesterday, and when the company came into actual possession of the necessary documents. The transfer including all the property of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, real and personal, has been purchased for the sum of $2,300,000, and not a much smaller amount announced heretofore.

The property thus transferred will include all the railroad lines, locomotives, cars, rolling stock, etc., belonging to the company between the Upper and Lower Cascades on both sides of the Columbia river, known as the "Portage."

All the road between The Dalles and Celilo (including rolling stock, offices, etc.); also all road beds owned by the corporation.

All the telegraphic lines, wires, poles, instruments, etc., between Portland and Walla Walla.

In addition, all the real estate, docks, landings, wharves, etc., belonging to the company, located in Portland, Multnomah county; in Oregon City, Clackamas county; Salem, Marion county; Astoria, Clatsop county; also at the Lower and Upper Cascades in Multnomah and Wasco counties; The Dalles, Wasco county; in Umatilla county, Skamaina county, Washington Territory, and in Lewiston, Idaho Territory.

A bill of sale was yesterday filed in the office of collector of customs, transferring all the floating stock for the consideration of $726,000. The following is the list of steamboats and barges mentioned in the sale:

Steamboats.—Dixie Thompson, Emma Hayward, Bonita, Welcome, Wide West, S. G. Reed, R. R. Thompson, Mountain Queen, Annie Faxon, John Gates, Spokane, Almota McMinville, Northwest, Harvest Queen, D. S. Baker, Idaho, Bonanza, Willamette Chief, Champion, E. N. Cooke, Ockiahama, Orient, Occident, Fannie Patton, S. T. Church, Alice.

Barges.—Autocrat, Columbia, Columbia's Chief, Huntress, Wasco Tenino, Governor Grover, Oneonta, Josie McNear, Wyatchie.

The bill of sale includes all the wharf boats owned by the O. S. N. Co.

An appeal has gone forth to the people of the United States in behalf of 250,000 inhabitants of Brazil, who must literally perish from starvation unless relief is speedily forwarded to them. The Brazilian government has exhausted all its financial resources in battling for three years with an appalling calamity, and is powerless to do anything more. These 250,000 people are naked and homeless, and are confronted by certain death unless the American people succor them, for assistance can be sought nowhere else, with the slightest probability of success. They are all that remain alive of the whole population of Ceres, a province which, three years ago, boasted of an intelligent and prosperous population of nearly a million. They are not savages or vagrants, but are farmers who have been driven to the sea-coast by a drouth of unprecedented length, and by the famine and pestilence that succeeded. Official statistics show the 500,000 of the people of that province have been buried since March, 1878, of which 200,000 died of hunger and 300,000 from disease immediately resulting from starvation. Will the American people permit the remaining 250,000 to starve? The above facts are vouched for by the American department of state. Contributions will be received by Scribner & Co., New York city.

Correspondence.

COTTONWOOD PRECINCT, UMATILLA COUNTY.

ED. "E. O."—Having been chosen by the delegates at the County Convention at Pendleton on March 27th, 1880, the Democratic nominee for representative. The position was unsought by me, and it was with reluctance on my part that I consented to have my name go before that honorable body. Receiving almost the entire vote on the first ballot was a surprise to me. If elected I hope to repay the citizens of Umatilla county by faithfully discharging the trust imposed in me by representing the wishes of the majority of the citizens of this county.

In conclusion I will say, fellow Democrats, we should not allow any local issue to cause a division in our party. A division in our ranks will insure the Republicans a victory, which they have been working hard to accomplish for some time. The wishes of the majority of our citizens can be more amicably adjusted through a harmonious and united action than by this Division cry that will cause a divison in our party. My Democratic friends if you desire our party to be victorious in the coming June election, stand firm and united, and all is well with our good old party.

The acts of our party in years past, and the resolutions passed by the County Convention should be our guide. May truth and right prevail, and may the wishes of the majority of our citizens be respected.

Your humble servant,
P. J. KELLY.

A Merciful Wind.

Mr. J. H. Moore had a very wonderful escape, as narrated thus by the Seattle Post: When within two miles of Goodell's, on the Skagit, Mr. Moore's partner stopped to have a talk with another miner, giving him about 100 yards advance. Just at that time Mr. Moore saw ice and snow moving on the mountain side above him, and almost simultaneous he was caught by a whirlwind that deprived him of consciousness. Strange to say when he came to himself he found he was struggling in the water 600 yards from where he stood with his pack on the trail. This miraculous escape from the coming avalanche was caused by the rush of the wind in advance, which landed him in the river, the current taking him down past the thousand tons of ice that shot across the stream like a ball from the mouth of a cannon. Mr. Moore drifted down the river with his pack lashed to his back, occasionally hitting bottom, until he caught in the lee of a large boulder rock and there hung, the drifting ice rushing past. Ropes were soon procured, and by strenuous efforts, Mr. Moore was rescued.

FROM OGDEN TO PORTLAND.—A correspondent of the Montana New Northwest, writing from Omaha, and who has had good opportunities of learning what is intended, says: "Surveyors will at once be put on the route from Ogden to Portland for a broad guage road, and no doubt a considerable portion of that line will be built this year. I think the route will be through Boise City. It seems to be the purpose to make the Utah and Northern a Montana line, and make a western connection with the broad guage."

A letter from Ainsworth reports that work is going on fast, and the graders are due west from Colfax, on the summit between Providence valley and Lwatzelzoulee.

Queen Victoria Criticised.

[New York Sun.]

The excellence of Queen Victoria's public as well as private career have been so patent that her weak points have receded far into the background; but when the time arrives for her to appear at the judgment seat of history, there will be one very serious blot on her record—her dealings with Ireland. No one could have done so much for that unhappy country, whereas, in point of fact, she has really done absolutely nothing. In the aggregate she has spent probably about ten years of her life in Scotland, and about one month in Ireland, to which she has, in the course of a reign of forty-three years, paid three brief visits. This neglect has been utterly without excuse. The simple truth is that she and her husband—who in this matter was greatly to blame—had nothing in common with the Irish character, did not like it, and took no interest in Ireland or the Irish. It will scarcely be credited that her benefaction to the Irish relief fund is but one day's official income.

At a mass meeting of fishermen held at Astoria on the evening of the 19th inst., a resolution was passed declaring the price of salmon to be sixty cents for the season of 1880, or forty cents per salmon for those who run cannery nets. The resolution is signed by 250 fishermen, and is to be strictly enforced. Commenting on this action, a correspondent says: "The men are now in very needy circumstances, caused by Chinamen being employed building nets all winter, and as our condition cannot be much injured by laying off all spring if we don't get our price, we can stand it."—Vancouver Independent.

Wm. Bybee, of Tule Lake, Lake county, reports that large numbers of cattle that were well fed died from the excessive cold during the winter. The cold was so intense that it produced bleeding at the noses of the stock, and Mr. Bybee was forced to slaughter quite a number of well conditioned stock that had their legs frozen by lying on the ice. In many instances the hoofs of the animals came off readily from the effect of freezing. Mr. Bybee thinks that the loss of cattle and horses in that section will exceed one-third, while that of sheep and hogs is much greater.

The price of paper has advanced heavily all over the country. If the price is maintained the public will be compelled to pay more for their news papers. Many daily and weekly papers have already increased their subscription price. The advance in paper can be stopped if the people will save and sell their old papers and rags. Three months' saving of rags and old paper by the entire population of the United States, and selling them in the markets, would check the advance in paper.—Ex.

The following in regard to the ages of the various presidential candidates will be found interesting: Blaine touching 50 years on last of January. Grant was 57 last April. Sherman was 56 last May. Washburne was 63 in September. Conkling was 50 in October. Garfield is in his 49th year. Bayard was 51 in October. Thurman reached his 66th birthday in November. Hendricks was 60 in September. Tilden was 66 first February, and in the same month General Hancock was 56. Seymour will be 70 in May.

Brick Pomeroy has temporarily abandoned journalism and greenbackism to go into some big mining schemes out in Colorado. What Brick wants to do with gold and silver we can't for the life of us see. Possibly he wants to help exhaust the supply, in order that we shall eventually be compelled to use nothing but paper money.—Ex.

We have the benefits of a "strong" government very encouragingly illustrated by events that have recently transpired in Russia. The supporters of a third term Presidential movement in the United States can study the picture to advantage.—Idaho Avalanche.

Lewiston Teller: The Chinese store of this city was broken into and robbed of $1100 on last Sunday night. The robbery is supposed to have been committed by a Chinaman while the merchantile group were wrapped in the glory of an opium snooze.

An item on the political contest in Great Britain, now in progress, says it is calculated that the expenses of the campaign will amount to $10,000,000. Money has been flowing from the business centers to the provinces in such sums as seriously to affect the market.
