Democrats of Umatilla County.

On the 7th of June, one week from Monday next, you will be called upon to say by your ballots who of the candidates for State, District and County offices shall be elected. An important duty is upon you. John Whiteaker is your standard bearer for re-election as your Representative to Congress. He has proven himself an efficient worker. He has been a member of the State Senate and a Representative in your State Legislature for several terms; and Governor of the State; and has been speaker of the House and president of the Senate, and has always acquitted himself with credit to his constituents. Never has a word of scandal been uttered against him in his whole official career. Against him we have M. C. George, "a youth to fortune and to fame unknown." Mr. George is a good, easy, inoffensive fellow, never does any particular harm and no particular good. If elected he would go to Washington, draw his pay, answer to his name, and at the end of the session come home. He is a man of but little force, and of that class of whom no one can say any good or bad. Just the kind of man to stay at home with his family and write essays for young men's socials, and 4th of July orations, of the spread eagle style. Choose ye whom you will elect.

For the Supreme Court of the State, two sets of candidates are named. Kelly, Prim and Burnett on the Democratic ticket and Lord, Waldo and Watson, Republican candidates. Everybody knows the Democratic candidates. Kelly formerly lived at the Dalles and practised in the courts of this county, served six years in the U. S. Senate and returned to Portland and resumed the practice of his profession. Two years ago he and Judge Prim were appointed Judges of the Supreme Court, Kelly, Chief Justice. Both are men of unsurpassed legal attainments, honorable and incorruptable. John Burnett is an old resident of Benton county, a thorough Democrat, honest and capable, and has no superior in the State as a jurist.

Who are the opposing candidates? Mr. Lord, of Salem, is a jolly good fellow, a fair lawyer, but can scarcely "hear it thunder;" a little inclined to the hoodlum order, and it is said some times gets a little "off." and some Republicans say he has some "youthful indiscretions" to clear up. Mr. Waldo and Mr. Watson are both brieflless attorneys, neither of whom are known to the profession. Waldo, it is said, is a good attorney's clerk, and Watson has so far risen to the position of County Clerk of Jackson county. Do the property owners of Oregon desire to jeopardise their interests by placing such men on the supreme bench of the State? We think not, surely, and believe that they will so express themselves on the 7th of June.

T. B. Merry, of the Inland Empire, is the Democratic candidate for State Printer, and W. H. O'Dell, of the Salem Statesman, the Republican candidate. Merry is known to the people of Eastern Oregon, is an elegant, easy writer, a Merry fellow, a whole souled, high-minded, honorable gentleman, and is just the man for the position, while his opponent is in bad odor in his own party; and almost universally disliked by the press of the State. A vote for Tom Merry is a vote for a worthy, deserving man.

Judge McArthur is too well known to require any word of commendation from us. His name is a household word and respected, revered, loved everywhere. His opponent is one Olmstead, of Grant county. He is said to be a very nice, clever gentleman, and a fair lawyer, but the people are satisfied with little Mc., and will elect him by 2,000 majority.

D. W. Bailey, will, it seems, walk over the track for District Attorney all alone. He is a competent, worthy young man, and will acquit him with credit as attorney for the State.

Then come out Democrats and lets give the whole ticket 500 majority in this county. See that every Democrat in your respective neighborhood is at the polls, and we can give such a majority as only Umatilla county can give. The next President will be a Democrat without doubt, and we want to retain the Democratic majority in Congress. Let not your local issues interfere with your vote for the State ticket. Oregon is Democratic and lets keep it so, in the language of ex-Governor Gibbs, "for all coming time to come."

In the last legislature of Oregon a bill was introduced to reduce an exorbitant fee of twenty dollars allowed district attorneys for mere appearance in divorce cases when no service in fact is performed. This bill was in the interest of the people, but Mr George, republican candidate for Congress, with his usual disregard of the interests of the people voted against the bill while Mr. Whitaker with usual watchfullness after the interests of the people voted for the bill. (See page 227 Senate Journal 1878.)

In 1878 a bill—Senate bill No. 22,—was introduced to create another Judical district and thus create another official for the people to pay out of their hard earnings. As usual Mr. George voted for the bill while Mr. Whitesker voted against it, (See Senate Journal 1876 page 426.) The people want a friend in Congress and hence will elect Mr Whiteaker.

THE Jacksonville Times, speaking of Mr. George's speech at that place, says: "He ended by saying that Eastern Oregon had been too much favored by legislation and he was going to arrange matters otherwise, a remark which he will be more than apt to repeat at The Dalles and other places by asserting Southern instead of Eastern."

Oregon's Representative at his Post.

By private dispatch from Washington under date of the 24th, we are informed that the bill introduced by Representative Whiteaker relieving the settlers from paying for their final certificates on lands has been passed by the House. Gov. Whiteaker also introduced a bill to limit the price of land to settlers within railroad districts to $1 25 per acre. These are both important measures for the farmers, especially in Eastern Oregon, and while Mr. George is making stump speeches, Gov. Whiteaker is attending to the wants of the people—the farmers—of whom he is so worthy a representative.—Standard.

Assessor.

THERE ARE three candidates in the field for the office of assessor, of this county. Mr. Morgan is the Democratic candidate and is said to be quite a clever gentleman. Our acquaintance with him is slight. Mr. B. F. King is the Divison candidate; is a Southern Methodist preacher by profession or as McComas puts it a "sky pilot" and of course has enough to do to attend to the heavenly calling, otherwise Mr. King is a good man. B F. McElroy is the other candidate and is well qualified to fill any position in the county. He has been unfortunate and during the last winter lost a leg. The three candidates are all good men, and there is no doubt about having a good assessor.

By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them.

Republicans are setting up little one horse organs all over the state. Those that have assumed the garb of Independence, will soon throw off the disguise and come out under their true colors. The Pendleton Independent, though professing to be independent, supports only the Republican nominees for state and county offices. The LaGrande Gazette has already run up the name of Republican, another has been started at the Dalles and many others in the valley.

Sidney Dell, who at the time of the battle of Iuka, was in the rear of the Confederate army strapped to a 20lb cannon, receiving 40 stripes across his bare back for desertion, is trying to put on an air of respectability as a Republican ally in this country and is even making his harangues to the people to try to convince them that they should not vote for Prim or Kelly for Supreme Judges, simply because forsooth they did not decide certain cases against law and in Dells favor. Poor fellow, he and old crazy Lawson are both trying to defeat these gentlemen, Dell for the reason above stated and Lanson because they did not decide the Greenwood will case as the spirits indicated it would be decided. Dell, like necessity, knows no law, and Lawson has been considered crazy for years. The two have got a suppliant owl, Walter Moss, of Portland, ostensible editor of the Sunday Mercury, to do such dirty work for them as is even too contemptable for them to do in the way of publishing slanderous articles in that vile sheet, and have now had published an extra, entitled, "The Greenwood Will Case" which contains as many false statements as lines, as all who are conversant with the facts well know. Mrs. Smith, of Heppner, is one of the heirs of the Greenwood estate and can give the facts in the case. This Moss is one of that class of Democrats that never votes the Democratic ticket. Wonder why Dell don't come up to Eastern Oregon to tell his tale?

GRANT AHEAD.—The following is Grant's vote in the Chicago convention: Instructed for Grant, 284; uninstructed, but for Grant, 65. Not yet held convention, but sure for Grant, 76; total, 375. It requires just 379 votes in the national convention to nominate the Republican presidential candidate. Gen. Grant will have 375 votes, and this does not take into account the States of Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Nevada, Colorado, New Hampshire, Vermont, Florida, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio

Since the above Illinois has gone for Grant, making his nomination sure on first ballot.

THAT SPEAKING.—Hon. M. C. George, radical candidate for Congress, made a 2½ hours talk here, on Saturday evening last. It was the weakest effort we ever heard from a candidate for Congress. Mr George made no votes here, but rather increased Whiteaker's majority. We shall certainly ask Gov. Whiteaker to pay one-half of Georges expenses in making this canvass and have no doubt he will cheerfully do so for George has made many votes for him during the campaign.

Look out for Republican "stickers." Read all the names on your ticket. See that there are no stickers used. Eternal vigilence is the price of liberty. Don't be defrauded by wily Republicans, nor divided by their allies, the Divisionists. Have good men at the polls to warn the voters, and have them look out for frauds. Remember how some Republicans were elected four years ago in this county.

WHERE was Dell when Price fought the Federals at Iuka? Was he in the front ranks dealing death and destruction to the enemy? No, he was not there. Was he in the reserve ready to take the place of his fallen comrade? No, he was not there nor thereabout. Where was he then? Thirty paces to the rear, strapped to a 20-pound cannon, receiving 40 stripes on his naked back for desertion. Show you back Dell, show your back!

The ring has complete control of the Republican party organization in Portland. The ring delegates as prepared by Jo. Simon were all elected (?) and Simon, as the foreman of the ring, will name the candidates. Jo. Acton, a worthy member of that party, was a candidate for the nomination for sheriff, but the ring decided that no working man need apply for a paying office in that bailiwick.

WE UNDERSTAND that some of the Division candidates claim that they could have had a nomination on the Democratic ticket. Well they might, but we hardly think any Democrat on that ticket would have refused a nomination on any ticket in order to get an office.

THE North and South Methodists will hold a partnership camp meeting at Dixie, Polk county soon. If they do not fall out over the spoils and kick the fat in the fire and raise Cain generally, they may accomplish some good

TOM MERRY was nominated for State Printer, by the Democratic State Central Committee on the 49th ballot. Rather tiresome Tom, but your fight is over. O'Dell will hardly be known in the race against you.

MR. G. P. FOOR, of Walla Walla, committed suicide at that place, last Monday morning, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. Cause—temporary insanity, brought on by drinking and gambling.

A FEW sore head Democrats, and some Republicans, finding that they could not corrupt Judge Bellinger, of Portland, are throwing mud in order to compass his defeat for Judge.

VOTE the Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

M. C. George claims that Whiteaker has done nothing while in Congress, when the truth is, as Mr. George well knows, that we have one of the most efficient working members in the House. He will soon, without doubt, have through the bill to relieve homestead and pre-emption settlers from the tax imposed on them in publishing a notice of the time and place of proving up on their claims at an expense to the settler of from $7 to $10 in each case. Registers and receivers, at land offices, are receiving double the amount intended by Congress; Whiteaker has introduced a bill to remedy this. He has also introduced a bill in behalf of orphans giving them the right to take a quarter section of land, in case their parents died without availing themselves of the law, and another to compel the completion of the O. C. R. R. from Portland to Sacramento which provides that if the present company does not complete the road by the next session of our State Legislature, that that body may designate some other company which shall receive the franchise. Also bills to improve the entrance to Yakina Bay, appointing a naval committee to select a sight for a navy yard, north of the California line; to equalizing homesteads and pre-emptions on railroad lands; and to restore increased mail, in what is known as the Star Service, and has secured to us in this country a daily mail where it had been intended by the Postoffice Department to cut us down to a weekly mail. All these bills have been introduced by Gov. Whiteaker and have all been reported on favorably by the committees having them in charge and will all no doubt become laws at an early day. Mr. George never did anything in his life of any importance that is known to the world, although he has been a member of the State Senate, unless it was the record he made as G. W. C. T., of Oregon, from which position he has now fallen and it is said can tip the tumbler now as glibly as any other professional drinker. We think however this is a mistake for we don't think George is a man of sufficient calibre to become an expert at drinking. He is of that class of men that came over in the May Flower and landed on Plymouth Rock.

Editorial Correspondence.

Left Pendleton for Heppner last Saturday afternoon in company with Jo. Kerney behind a spanking team. When within four miles of Pilot Rock we ran into one of the heaviest showers of rain, hail and snow that we had been in for years. Water and mud was all the comfort we saw till we rounded up at Mr. Gault's hotel at Pilot Rock. We found here a young man, John Waldman, suffering from just having his collar bone broken; a horse having slipped and fell with him while rounding up a drove of cattle.

After supper it cleared up, and by climbing the high rocks we could see seven bands of cattle, all ready to be driven to Cheyenne. The bands numbered about 2,000 head each. We were informed that two more bands were on the reservation waiting for them to get through the mountains, which numbered six thousand head more. We did not see the assessor around, but understood he was attending a protracted meeting of the Adventists at Milton. We met Tom Quaid, the owner of one of the bands of cattle. He was in good spirits and expected to take the Dalles road next day. He informed us that two bands of cattle were already at Starkey's ranch in the mountains, numbering 5,000 head. We could not help but wonder if all the cattle of this county were really on their way to the States.

Next morning we came over to Vinson's and was pelted in the face with rain, snow and wind all the way. Here we found Mr Lawry sick in bed and not expected to live. Kerney wrote his wife a letter asking her to come out from town to him, and left for Heppner. The weather was very cold and a heavy overcoat and buffalo robe were barely sufficient to keep us warm; and we arrived in this thriving town at supper time and in time to meet the county candidates. Next day each and all told what they knew about their own capabilities, and some were so low down as to attack the character of their opponents; notably, one Sharon. Thinking, no doubt, that if he could cover his opponent with mud that he would stand out pure and fair before the audience; but his Boomerang returned, and he was the cause of making Dr. LaDow at least a dozen votes.

This morning Dr Williamson started for Portland to obtain evidence sufficient to take into court, so that the court will declare him a naturalized American citizen.

This is in keeping with the Division party from its inception. They placed an unnaturalized citizen at the head of their ticket and would have carried out the fraud had the Democracy not have unearthed him, and when found out laid it to his ignorance of the naturalization laws of the country. A pretty specimen to represent Umatilla county in the next legislature.

HEPPNER, May 24th.

ED. "E. O."—Gents: The candidates on the various tickets met in full force to-day, and a good attendance was present during the speaking in the old school house. Democrats and Republicans as usual met their friends on each side, but the Divisionists seemed to be in a "strange land," as there is no sympathy with their cause in this town, although one or two scattering votes may be cast on election day. Dr. Williamson, the leader of the party, was somewhat taken aback when he called to mind the fact that he was a "Johnny Bull," never having been admitted as a full citizen, the consequence being he was not quite so eloquent in his remarks, the principal part of his speech consisting of an attempt to explain to the voters that if they would give him their support he would get his full citizen papers by the first Monday in June, and for this purpose he will start to-morrow morning for Portland to get Judge Deady to admit him to the right of citizenship, but Heppnerites, like all American citizens, say they prefer to have men govern them who would renounce their allegiance to Queen Victoria or any other foreign monarch without doing it solely for the purpose of holding an office in our government.

J. C. Franklin, of Lena, a candidate for Representative on the Division ticket, was present with his square auger, and thinking to build himself up in the estimation of Divisionists, brought with him a fine turkey which was beautifully cooked by friend Bushee, late of your town, and Mr. F searched Heppner over to find a Divisionist to participate with him in the feast, but failing in the attempt the turkey was divided among the Division candidates. But not being daunted at failing to make friends in Heppner by giving a turkey feast, he tried to spread himself in his speech, and besides advocating division and promising the citizens that if they would so divide as to make Weston a county seat he would then try to get a part of Wasco county so that Heppner should be a county seat also. He then at some length dwelt upon the gambling law, and said if men wanted to gamble the law ought to allow them to do so, and he promised the Heppnerites if they would elect him he would try and get the present gambling law repealed and a new act passed authorizing the license of gambling houses. But all this was too thin, as the gentleman is well known in this neighborhood and the general opinion is he will not get a single vote in this precinct, notwithstanding his immense intellect and skill as a mechanic; but his square auger he persistently used had no effect, and his duties in the next legislature will not prevent him giving his time and study on an improvement on his present patents. CITIZEN.

WE VISITED Pilot Rock, on Thursday last, on business, and while there had the pleasure of listening to the candidates for the various county offices "rise and explain." O. F. Thomson and P. J. Kelly, Democrats, W. H. Hales, Republican, and J. C. Franklin, Divisionists, represented their respective parties for the Legislature. They all, except Mr. Franklin, told what was necessary to be done for the county. Mr F. wanted to divide. Then came Dr. LaDow, Democrat, and J. H. Sharon, Republican, candidates for County Judge. T. J. Lucy, Capt. Martin and F. M. Crockett were there to press their claims for Sheriff and Dan Dwight and Mr Gerking for Clerk, and Rev B. F King for Assessor. These were followed by F. P. Tustin, on behalf of the Republicans, and L. B. Cox for the Democrats. These latter gentlemen poured hot shots into Bro. Franklin and Division. The canvass at this place was conducted in a gentlemanly manner. None of the candidates engaged in throwing dirt at this place, although we understand there was a little of that kind of work done at Heppner, but the parties doing it found out that it did not pan out as well as they expected. This is as it should be and we honor those candidates who have refrained from such a course during the canvass and so do the people. The Democratic ticket will receive a handsome majority at Alta, with the exception of one or two. The State ticket will be supported throughout. We predict for Whiteaker a majority of not less than 400 in this county and the balance of the ticket will not be far behind. Tom Merry will get nearly all the votes in the county.

DEMOCRATS, vote for Tom Lucy for Sheriff. He is the proper man for the place. He is competent and honest, and if elected will attend to the business of the office himself. Capt. Martin, his opponent, is a very clever gentleman but the people of this county don't want Bob Sargent as Sheriff anymore. They became satisfied to let him go when he got Sheriff "and don't you forget it." Bob will find that the people understand his manner of electioneering and he will not succeed with his "slip around" way of doing business and his "sticker" arrangement.

MANY Democrats and honest Republicans who voted for J. H. Sharon two years ago are heartily ashamed of it since he has so boldly stuck out his cloven foot during the present campaign, in villifying Dr. LaDow for being an honest poor man. His theory, as he publicly proclaims, is to make a point wherever he can, by telling a false story or otherwise

Estray Notice.

Taken up by F. M. Morris, living on Big Butter Creek, Umatilla County, Oregon, an estray filly, supposed to be 3 years old this Spring. She came to my house last summer; she had no brands; my brand was put on her by John Barney through mistake. She is a dark bay or light brown, star in forehead, both hind feet white up to fetlocks; about 14 hands high; no other marks or brands percelvable.

(Signed:) F. M. MORRIS.

I have appraised the above animal to be worth $35 U. S. gold coin.
