FESTIVAL.

The Ladies Aid Society will give a Festival upon next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. A good attendance is expected. Come one, come all.

☞Sale of goods at cost! Great bargains offered☜

H. Jacobs will will sell his stock of goods out at cost as he is closing out business in Pendleton. Many good bargains are to be had and no one should miss the opportunity. For one week from to-day.

Notice.

All persons interested in the incorporation of this town are requested to meet in the Court House on Monday evening next at 7:30 to consider matters pertinent thereto.

C. C Brooks, the boy held to answer in Heppner precinct some time back for the murder of Martin Thompson the sheep-herder was released from jail last week where he had been for quite a while, the grand jury having returned "not a true bill" in his case. It was too bad that this boy should have been confined on such evidence in the first place, but now that he has been fully acquitted of the charge it is to be hoped an investigation will be commenced in the proper direction for the guilty party or parties.

Last Sunday night a very good attendance was had at Church, thus affording splendid opportunities for young men from abroad to accompany the fair sex home. Arm's length was preferred by him when two chances were offered.

He snored and dreamed of the happy future which was blited so suddenly. He awoke, rubbed his eyes and "was shust as much a wake as ever." It all occurred at Church Sunday night last.

Hathaway has got a few pounds of that nice butter on hand for his customers. Candies, nuts, etc. still at reasonable rates.

Uncle George Webb will undoubtedly accept the nomination for Mayor and in view of this will make larger sales than usual in tinware, stoves, hardware, etc.

A terrible riot occurred in Denver the other day over the Chinesequestion. Garfield's Chinese letter among other things aroused the white citizens of the place, or at least the more lawless portion of them, and they made things exceedingly interesting for John for awhile. Every Chinehouse in town was gutted, one celestial killed, several injured and all found it expedient to "skatawa."

"Tony" Noltner has gone and done it. He localized Mr. and Mrs. Nye's late festival as their golden wedding. Reparation is impossible but an explanation is the next best thing in order. Rise, Antonio, and clear thyself! You have put this worthy couple about 25 years only and there is blood on the face of the moon.

The Edison Electric Light

Has thus far proved a failure as a practical light for family use, and the owners of gas stocks breathe more freely and see renewed dividends near at hand, but the Oregon Kidney Tea has been a success from the first, paying large dividends of restored health to all those afflicted with backache or any disease of the kidneys or urinary organs, and carrying consternation to the pockets of rival concerns with worthless nostrums to sell. Ask for the Oregon Kidney Tea and take nothing else.

Valuable Facts From a Safe Source.

The affairs of this country have become so extended that it is only by a carefully prepared synopsis in the form of figures that one can hope to understand what is really going on. Hon. A. R. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, is the only man who has the facilities at his command for collecting complete national statistics and he does it with the greatest care and accuracy. His latest issue, "The American Treasury of Facts," has been sent us by Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of the valuable Warner Safe Remedies. This book is a miniature cyclopædia in itself, containing, in addition to a vast amount of national matter, about all of value that has transpired in this country during the past year and reflects credit upon the compiler as well as upon the enterprise of Messrs. Warner & Co. in selecting it.

DIED.

MRS. SALLIE C. TURNER.

At her home in Pendleton on Friday the 5th just. at 10:45 A. M., of a complication of diseases of a few days' duration, Mrs. Sallie C. Turner, wife of J. H. Turner, aged 44 years.

Death with his unrelenting grasp has thus taken away a most estimable lady and loving wife and mother, and given birth to sorrow where joy and happiness so lately reigned. Not only will Mrs. Turner's loss be mourned by her widowed husband and three young orphan children, but by a host of friends whom she had made by her many attractive qualities.

Yet it may well be said "she has only gone before," as she died in full faith and communion with her Maker and in fellowship with the M. E. Church South, of which denomination she had long been a member in good standing. The funeral will take place from the house at 10 A. M on Saturday the 6th inst. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

REDFORD—At the residence of A. J. Cochran in Greasewood precinct, Nov. 2d 1880, after a few days illness with typhoid fever, Walker W. Redford, aged 24 years and 4 months.

Weekly Oregonian please copy.

GATHERGOOD— In Centerville, Umatilla County, Oregon, Oct 13th, Lizzie Belle, infant daughter of Robert and Jennie Gatherhood, aged 9 months and 1 day.

Words composed for the comfort of the sorrow stricken parents whose little babe was so lately carried by the angel of death over the river to the land of love and light where endless summer reigns.

Your sweet little babe,
Has gone to its rest,
Jesus caresses the lamb gently,
On his loving breast.

He holds it and keeps it,
Safe from all harm;
Kindly protected,
By his strong loving arm.

Lonely and sad,
It has left your life;
But your darling is safe,
From teel and strife.

You love your little darling,
And Jesus does too;
He has taken and will keep it,
Ever lovely for you.

If he had left it,
In this world below;
Who knows but its portion,
Were sorrow and woe

It might have wandered,
In error and sin;
And become unfitted to enter,
Bright Heaven within.

But now your sweet infant,
Is pure as snow;
No sin nor sorrow,
It ever can know.

'Tis only her body,
Lies under the sod;
The spirit you love,
Is safe with its God.

In love it was given,
It was taken in love;
To be happy forever,
In its home above.

Oh can you not trust,
Your wise heavenly friend;
And live for him ever,
'Till your sorrow shall end?

Waiting and trusting,
And looking above;
Working for Jesus,
With a soul full of love.

Then when you work,
Life's trials past;
You'll meet your sweet darling,
In heaven at last.

MISS LIZZIE ELY.

Rev. E. W. Morrison will hold services Sunday at 11 o'clock in the Baptist Church.
