The New Northwest.

FRIDAY.....JANUARY 28, 1876.

TO THE VICE PRESIDENTS OF THE O. S. W. S. A.

You are urgently requested to be present and aid at the fourth annual Convention of the Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association, which will convene in the city of Salem on Thursday, the 10th day of February, 1876.

You are further urged to present written reports of the work in your respective counties. If it is impossible to be present at the meeting as urged, you will please send your written reports to the Corresponding Secretary, F. F. Victor.

BY ORDER OF EX. COM. OF O. S. W. S. A.
Portland, December 28, 1875.

HOME NEWS.

An unusual amount of sickness prevails in this city at present.

The ladies of Nonpariel Lodge I. O. G. T. will give a grand leap year entertainment at their hall this (Friday) evening.

H. W. Scott, Collector of Customs for this port, arrived in this city overland from California on Saturday, after an absence of two months.

"Beautiful Snow" covers the ground to the depth of several inches, and the merry jingle of sleigh-bells makes glad the hours of the day and evening.

The Democratic State Central Committee will meet in this city on the 13th of February; the Republican State Central Committee on February 16th.

McGibeny's "song service" will be resumed next Sunday evening, at Oro Fino Hall. Hugh and Allie will appear in a new role. Admission, 25 cents.

Repairs on the steamer "Ajax" were completed, and she departed at noon on Tuesday for San Francisco. Her detention has caused serious inconvenience to the traveling public.

Half-fare on the Oregon and California Railroad to persons attending the Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association, which meets in Salem on Tuesday, the 8th day of February.

Frozen water-pipes are chief among the luxuries of the "cold snap." These, together with the rapidly diminishing wood-piles, cause the heads of families to sigh for the return of the humid skies and gently falling mists of a well-regulated "Webfoot" winter.

Judge Green, of Olympia, was prevented by sickness from filling his appointment to lecture at the Y. M. C. A. rooms in this city on Tuesday evening. The committee have postponed his lecture until the last, and will make it an additional one without extra cost to ticket-holders.

The steamer above the Cascades was unable to make the usual connection with the "Oneonta" on Saturday on account of ice. The prospects of a freeze-up of some duration are very flattering. Until navigation is resumed the mails will be conveyed between this city and The Dalles overland.

Couch's Lake, on the east side of the river, has been converted by the winter king into a fine skating rink, and bleak Boreas has held numerous and popular receptions thereon during the past week. A peculiarity of these receptions is the sudden and unceremonious manner in which guests seat themselves upon the polished floor of the grand pavilion.

F. F. Morse, manager of the Opera Troupe that lately visited this city, and who had been for some days incarcerated in the city jail for debt, was taken on a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Shattuck on Saturday morning, who decided he was unlawfully held, and ordered him to be discharged from custody, which was done.

The challenge made some days since by Mr. T. Morris, to a contest for the skating championship of this State, has been accepted by Messrs. R. H. Thompson and Charles Meade. The contest will take place on Saturday evening, the 29th inst., at Wood's Museum. A Centennial medal will be awarded by Mr. Wood to the victor. Fifty cents admission will be charged to those who desire to witness the contest on rollers.

In making up your lists of periodicals for 1876, don't forget the West Shore, the only illustrated paper published in Oregon, devoted to literature in general, and the resources of Oregon and Washington Territory in particular. The ablest writers in the State are contributors to its columns; the engravings are executed by the leading artists on the coast. As a family journal it stands at the head of Pacific Coast publications; as a paper to send to friends abroad it has no equal—a single copy will give them a better idea of the Pacific Northwest than a year's number of any other paper. Sent postage paid for one year, $1 50; single copies, 20 cents. Address the publisher, L. Samuel, No. 5 Washington street, Portland, Oregon.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL.

The total county tax of Yamhill is $36,000.

There is over five feet of show at Silver City, Idaho.

A Universalist church is being built at Coquille City.

The tax levy in Josephine county this year is 2½ per cent.

Hay is $25 per ton and potatoes $1 per bushel at Olympia.

A post office has been established at Isabella, Lane county, Oregon.

The winter term of the Ashland Academy began with good prospects on the 3d.

J. Henri Brown wants a brief biography of every pioneer sent to him, at Salem.

Forty-three marriage licenses were issued in Jackson county during the year 1875.

The city marshal of Oregon City is enforcing the law against selling liquor on Sunday.

The wreck of the bark "Windward" was sold at Useless Bay last week to various parties, for $3,950.

Colonel Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. Benedict departed for California by the "Oriflamme" last week.

Snow on the way from Tenino to Olympia is about four inches deep. The stage road is very rough.

The steamer "Favorite," once a popular passenger boat, has gone into the towing business on the Sound.

The iron works at Oswego turn out about 1,000 tons of pig iron a year, nearly all of which is exported to San Francisco.

Snohomish county, in 1862, according to a census taken at that time, contained a white population of 44 persons—old men.

The California and Oregon Stage Company has raised the fare between Roseburg and Redding from 10 cents to 15 cents per mile.

Dr. Magers, of Gervais, whose pocket was picked of $250 at the State Fair, is inventing a patent pocket, to prevent like occurrences.

Arrangements are now perfected for the construction of a large cannery at Knappton, in which Messrs. Ledwich & Blackburn, of Chicago, take large interests, associating with them Mr. J. B. Knapp.

There are 1019 volumes in the Odd Fellows' Library at Salem. Ten monthly magazines and seven newspapers are received.

Mr. Lane has introduced a bill in Congress asking for the appropriation of $25,000 for improving the navigation of the Yamhill River.

Robert U. Byles, a student of the Willamette University, died on Sunday evening, after a brief illness. His parents reside at Elma, W. T.

Protracted meetings are now being held at several points in Yamhill county by different denominations. Considerable interest is reported.

The frieght-house at St. Joe, the terminus of the west side railroad, was destroyed by fire on Friday night. Loss about $1,500. Origin of the fire unknown.

Amity is growing rapidly, and aims to be the largest town in Yamhill, soon. She already claims more handsome young ladies than any other town of the same size in the county.

The family of Hon E. L. Bristow, of Salem, have suffered additional bereavement in the death of another member, William E., who died of typhoid fever on the 21st inst., aged 17 years. This is the third child of Mr. and Mrs. Bristow that has been buried within the month.

In a synopsis of the reports of the public schools of Washington Territory, we find the following: "The salary of teachers is too small to keep first-class ones in the schools, while the pittance of $250 currency allowed to the Territorial Superintendent is hardly enough for his official duties at the desk. He has studied the field and collected many valuable facts. In his view, graded schools are feasible in six counties. The idea of one central graded, or high school, for the benefit of all the schools in the county, is specially recommended."

A man whose wife subscribed for the NEW NORTHWEST, and paid a year's subscription in butter which she had made without the slightest assistance from any one, writes: "I want to stop your paper. The sufferegists stand a pore show here. We uns don't go a sent on a woman that would like to see wimmen vote. Besides, my woman dont git no time to read." This is not the first ignoramus who has wished to "stop the NEW NORTHWEST," nor yet the first we wot of who protects "his woman" so closely that she has no time to read. The paper still goes to press regularly, however, and more than one woman who erewhile had no time to read it has learned to take time, and has become better, stronger and happier in consequence.

The Central Pacific trains were blocked by snow for several days near Well's Station, Utah. The Northern road has been blocked since Friday. The eastern-bound trains got through the blockade and started from Wells on the 25th with nine engines and a snow-plow. The weather has grown warmer, and the snow is thawing.

Thomas W. Field, Superintendent of the Brooklyn public schools, is soon to marry the lady principal of one of the schools. Mr. Field's first and second wives were also Brooklyn school-teachers. This shows that the participation of women in professional pursuits is no barrier to matrimony.

Brother Dement, of the Enterprise, says "assistance is unnecessary to enable him to get off witticisms at our expense." We can only judge from his "stale, flat, and unprofitable" attempts, of which the last was by no means least.

In Lewiston, Maine, in a population of 20,000, there is less than one arrest per day for drunkenness, owing to the labors of the reformers, accompanied by the faithful execution of the prohibitory liquor law.

Charles O'Conor, with that unpleasant cynicism for which he is famous, ascribes his recovery from his recent severe illness to a careful and comprehensive disregard of his physician's instructions.

Sunshine, a juvenile magazine published at Santa Clara, California, deserves the liberal support of all friends of the little folks. It is the only publication of its class on the Pacific Coast.

The remains of General Gordon Granger, who died in New Mexico on the 10th inst., have been taken to Lexington, Kentucky, for interment.

The University of Vermont, at Burlington, has 153 students, of whom 91 are under-graduates—19 of them ladies, and 62 medical students.

Charity is never lost; it may meet with ingratitude, or be of no service to those on whom it is bestowed, yet it ever does a work of beauty and grace upon the heart of the giver.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is an epitome of newspaper history. It is also regarded as an official register of circulations. This feature requires the closest scrutiny to prevent it from leading to abuses. The plan adopted by the publishers of the DIRECTORY to secure correct and trustworthy reports is rigid in its requirements, and is adhered to with impartiality. Successful publishers, who have something to gain by a comparison, are generally prompt, not only to send reports in conformity, but give Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. such information as enables them to weed out unsubstantiated statements of pretenders in journalism. The popularity of the book, and the general confidence in its accuracy and good faith, are attested by the immense body of advertisements it receives. 4 26

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.—Dr. J. P. Miller, a practicing physician at 327 Spruce street, Philadelphia, has discovered that the extract of cranberries and hemp combined cures headache, either bilious, dyspeptic, nervous, or sick headache, neuralgia and nervousness. This is a triumph in medical chemistry and sufferers all over the country are ordering by mail. He prepares it in pills, at 50 cents a box. The Doctor is largely known and highly respected.—[Philadelphia Bulletin.

What is the value of a life? Gold cannot measure it. Yet when menaced by a violent cough or cold, or any disease leading to consumption, a single dollar invested in HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR will unquestionably preserve it.

MOORE & HOLLABAUGH, (successors to J. Fleischner), at the old stand, 123 First street, known as the San Francisco Boot and Shoe Store, respectfully say to his old patrons and the public generally that we have marked down the old stock from 25 to 50 per cent., and intend to sell regardless of cost, having this day received a large stock of New Goods of the latest styles, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest, endeavoring to suit all who may favor us with their patronage. Custom work of all kinds done in the latest styles and on new and scientific principles. Repairing done to order. Give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. All work warranted.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The "Bazar" is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—[Boston Traveler.

The "Bazar" commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the "Bazar" is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—[N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—[Chicago Evening Journal.

THE GRANGER CHURN,
A new invention,
Makes the best of butter
With the least attention.

Now all good dairymen,
Who would a reputation earn,
Should make their butter
In the Granger Churn.

It makes more butter
From the same amount of cream
Than any other Churn
That ever was seen.

And it makes it so yellow,
With such excellent taste,
It is the pride of the seller,
For it sells in such haste.

The grocers all want it—
The butter I mean—
To supply all their customers,
From laborer to queen.

It will churn in five minutes,
I am happy to say,
And does not waste time
Like the old-fashioned way.

Those that have tried it
Speak in complimentary terms
And say they will use it
In preference to all other Churns.
