SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Charles Rice Killed at Mt. Scott Sunday.

Sunday evening about 5:30 news came to town that on the baseball grounds at Mt. Scott, Sunday afternoon, James Dixon, a young man about 17 years of age, had shot and killed Charles Rice, a young man about 23 years of age.

Owen Atterbery, constable of that precinct, was present and saw the shooting and immediately arrested young Dixon without a warrant and brought him to town last night, and he is still in Mr. Atterbrey's charge.

From Mr. Atterbery, who witnessed the shooting, we learn that these two young men had had difficulty before this, and a small provocation, it seems, revived the old feud. It appears that some misunderstanding concerning the ball game awakened old ill feelings and a few hot words were interchanged between them, when Rice was heard to say he would thresh Dixon, and immediately began to take off his coat, while threatening Dixon. At this Dixon drew his pistol from his pocket and shot Rice twice, killing him almost instantly. Owen Atterbery, the constable of Mt. Scott, who has had Dixon in charge, procurred a warrant this morning from Justice Hamlin and placed Dixon under arrest as provided by law.

This is another disagreeable affair in our county that is sure to be annoying to all parties involved and is deeply deplored by all good citizens. As this affair will be brought into court and tried according to the process of law the PLAINDEALER forbears making any comment, pro or con, with regard to justifiable or unjustifiable homicide, believing newspaper trials do not subserve any good pupose. We give the account of the affair as reported by the constable, Mr. Atterbery, who brought Dixon to the city last night, as before stated, and await the result as the courts shall dispose of it in due time.

Odd Fellows' Memorial Services.

Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m., there will be held memorial services in the Odd Fellows' Hall, in this city. An interesting programme has peen prepared, consisting of speeches and music by members of the three branches of the order, Odd Fellows, Patriots and Rebekahs. Every Odd Fellow is invited to attend and bring his family. The graves of deceased Odd Fellows will be decorated by members of the order in the afternoon. All parties who have them are requested to bring what flowers they may be able to procure for decoration purposes at 2 p. m. In the evening a lunch will be served in the banquet hall at the temple. The members of Rebekah Lodge will unite in these services to commerate departed Odd Fellows in conformity with the established usage of the order in America. The literary and musical exercises will be held in the hall at 8 o'clock in the evening.

A New Departure.

The programme now being arranged by the Knights of Maccabees, for their entertainment to be given Saturday evening, June 20th, will be somewhat novel. All the entertainment will be furnished by the gentlemen. The programme will abound with male solos, duetts, quartets, etc. The Maccabees propose to make their first entertainment a success. Deputy Supreme Commander Mitchell is a good talker and the press speaks well of his ability all over the state.
