Camas Valley.

Mrs. Lee is progressing nicely with her school. There is now an enrollment of about 50 pupils.

For all the damp weather, crops look well and the pastures are good. Garden making is all that seems to suffer.

Mrs. Denn, who, since our last writing has been very low, is improving slowly. We hope to see her about before many weeks.

No one was heard to complain of a lack of moisture during the past week. After a brief respite of three days the rain is again coming down.

As Arthur Church, who has been taking care of the horses at the stage station, will leave soon, Mr. Legue has been employed in his place.

M. G. Pohl of Myrtle Point, who has been in the valley for the past week, will give a talk in the interest of the Grange Friday evening May 8.

Sunday school was organized at the church last Sunday. C. M. Wilson was elected superintendent. With the people we have in the valley, we should make the Sunday school a grand success. Sunday school at 2 o'clock P. M. next Sunday.

Road overseer Davis made a trip to Roseburg last week to get tools, powder etc. He will soon muster a force for limproving the road. Every one should willingly lend a hand, and speedily remove this one great draw back to Oregon, bad roads.

Arthur Church and family return to Nebraska before many days. Mr. Church came to Oregon 18 months ago. He is well pleased with the country and eaves sorrowing that he cannot take some of our fine fruit, giant trees and rainy weather with him.

Could one of those blue, mud-bespattered easterners of two months ago who hastenen back to their native elements after one trip of a few miles along the bottomless Oregon roads, see our beautiful flower be-decked hills, now, they would say with the web-footers, "I forgive you all Fair Oregon." One week of Spring repays us many times over for the long, rainy, muddy winter. If we could but remember during our most dark dreary weather, "Behind the clouds is the sun still shining" and smiling spring and sunny summer follows rainy winter, how few blue days there would be.
