Mrs. W. C. Conner and son Clare went to Cottage Grove Sunday to enjoy a brief visit.

J. A. Hammersley arrived home this morning from Storm Creek where he has been prospecting.

Miss Edythe Means has returned to Roseburg to remain indefinitely. She is a guest of the Bell sisters.

"Buff" Livingston, of Glide, is in Portland receiving medical treatment at a hospital. His father John Livingston, accompanied him.

Indian war veterans are already sending in their applications for pensions under the new law, which was approved by the President last week.

Mrs. Alice Turner and two children, of Davenport, Wash., who have been visiting in Oakland, were the guests of Mrs. H. D. Graves of this city.

S. A. Sanford left Saturday to visit his timber claim in Lincoln county. His position in the First National Bank will be temporarily filled by Cole Stanton.

A reliable party in Portland desires the assistance of a nurse girl for two children at $15 per month, and fare paid to Portland. Inquire at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner visited the latter's uncle, aunt and grandmother on the Calapooia Saturday and were much pleased to find Grandma Conner's condition greatly improved. Mrs. Ira Conner and two sons of Cottage Grove, were also guests at the Beidler home last week.

Albert McCoy, electrician on the U. S. battleship Wisconsin, now at Bremerton, Wash., is in Roseburg visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCoy. The vessel recently returned from a cruise of 20,000 miles in the South Pacific ocean.

J. G. Nowles, a brakeman on the Wendling branch of the S. P. railroad, fell under the wheels of a moving box car on the Marcola siding the Fourth and both legs were cut off below the knees. He was taken to Eugene thence to the company's Portland hospital. His home was at Coburg.

In order to make more rapid progress in his street improvement work Contractor Fred J. Blakely has just placed a second rock crusher in position on the gravel bar in West Roseburg and will now be able to gravel the streets nearly as rapidly as the grading progresses. Good work is being done.

T. A. Wood has worked incessantly to secure legislation favorable to Indian War Veterans. He has five other bills in congress to aid veterans. This work that he has done and is expected to place veterans under obligations to give him their pension business, and it seems to us that they can not afford to give it to any one else. See his ad. elsewhere. Attorney J. A. Buchanan is looking after his interests in this matter, and doing his business in Roseburg. (j11f.)

WANTED—A cook, apply at the Home Cafe, near the depot.

INDEPENDENCE DAY OBSERVED.

Rain Dampened the Fires of Enthusiasm at this as Well as Others Places.

Despite the rains preliminary handicap to the Independence Day festivities, the excellent program arranged by the local Woman's Relief Corps was very successfully carried out. The exercises were held in the Circuit Court room at the court house which was filled to overflowing with a patriotic crowd of people of this city and vicinity.

Mrs. D. C. McClallen presided in a very pleasing and efficient manner, on behalf of the W. R. C. in a neat and appropriate address presented Douglas county a fine large flag, which was immediately hoisted and unfurled to the breeze from the mast head of the fine pole recently erected in the court yard. The flag was received by Judge Thompson, who thanked the W. R. C. on behalf of the county. Judge J. W. Hamilton delivered the acceptance speech which was interesting and well received. The Declaration of Independence was read by Mrs. Hallie Hamlin and patriotic recitations were given by Mrs. E. E. Richards, of Portland, and Miss Francis Fulton the charming elocutionist. Hon. Geo. M. Brown was the orator of the day and entertained his hearers well for nearly an hour.

His oration was a masterly effort and set forth in eloquent and glowing terms the exigencies of the times. In the afternoon other musical and literary exercises were held at the same place, in which the children largely participated.

The Fourth of July Shoot.

In the afternoon the local gun club held a pigeon shoot on their grounds at Rose's field. The wind was very unfavorable at times and the scores was not up to the average. The totals of the 30 participants, for the 25 shots each were as follows:

Born, at the family residence at Placer Oregon, June 20th 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Decker, a son.

Many children in this city are suffering from malarial fever. Our popular M. D. is kept busy all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Farmer and W. D. Rohrer, spent three days last week on Days Creek, the guests of Mrs. Farmers parents.

Mrs. Dewey, mother of J. L. Dewey is at Glendale and will spend some time here visiting her sons John and Philip Dewey and her daughters Mrs. E. Boyd and Mrs. Jock Penny.

Miss Genevieve Roberts, who has been visiting her father, Geo. Roberts Sr., and her two sisters Mrs. Flint and Mrs. Nelson for two months at San Francisco, came home on the 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perdue and the four children of City Marshall O. F. Rohrer, have been very ill this week with malarial fever. Dr. Bowersox is attending them, and they are convalescing.

Mrs. Rebecca Eggleston, of Ashland, who has been visiting her sons Andrew and Sydney Jacques, for the past ten days, returned to her home recently We also enjoyed a pleasant visit with the amiable pioneer lady, who resided for many years in this valley.

F. Bobbie Kenmont, who has charge of the removal of the new machinery for the Gold Bug mine from this city to the mine, had the misfortune to split his thumb in handling machinery yesterday. The wound is an ugly one, but Bobbie wears his usual pleasant smile, and we hope he will experience no bad results from the hurt.

Alfred Slocum, Notary Public, who has his office at J. C. Clements shop, requests to say that all old soldiers and pensioners are cordially invited to his office, and he will execute them work free of charge. As Mr. Slocum is a very competent officer, he is paying a fine tribute of respect to our reverened pensioners that is worthy of emulation.

Freddie Guth, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Guth, who recently entered the Naval Reserve Military School at Goat Island, has passed his examination and received fine honors, and we all feel proud of the fact that Freddie has made such a good record. And we congratulate his parents on his success. We expect Freddy to occupy a place as Midshipman in our navy, and we wish him success.

MOLLIE.

SHOOTING NEAR WILBUR

Horace Roadman Instantly Killed By T. H. Lovell.

THE OUTCOME OF AN OLD FEUD

Lovell's Plea is Self Defense--Lovell's Boy the only Witness.

T. H. Lovell shot and instantly killed Horace Roadman in the hills four miles west of Wilbur about noon Sunday and the particulars of the shooting was telephoned to the officers here about five o'clock. Deputy Sheriff H. T. McClallen immediately started on horseback for the scene of the tragedy, but met Lovell and his little boy on horseback about two miles north of Roseburg. Lovell gave himself up and was brought back to Roseburg and lodged in jail over night. Deputy Sheriff McClallen accompanied by the County coroner left for the scene of the tragedy about seven o'clock Sunday evening. They arrived on the grounds where the unfortunate event occurred about ten o'clock and found Roadman lying on his back in the road with two bullets in his breast. The coroner took charge of the body and took it to Wilbur, where an inquest will be held today. The little boy Willis Lovell, age eleven years was with his father at the time the tragedy occurred and tells the following story:

THE BOY'S STORY.

"Father, my brother, sister and I were out picking berries. We took guns with us as we thought we might see some grouse. Father took his 32 caliber repeating Winchester and brother the shotgun. We were returning home. Father and I were ahead and brother and sister some little way behind. As we came to a turn in the road we saw Mr. Roadman coming along as if he was tracking us. He had a club in his right hand. I was behind father. Roadman saw father and changed the stick to his left hand and pulled a pistol from his right hip pocket. He pointed it at father and said "Lovell, God—— ——" I heard Roadman's pistol click as he cocked it. Just then father fired and Roadman fell back. As he fell he turned and tried to shoot over his shoulder. Father fired two more shots. The other children came up and we went on home, where I got dinner for father. We then started for Roseburg. Father told Mr. Bert Brown what had happened and we came on here."

The father tells the same story, saying he shot in self-defense. He seemed surprised that but two shots took effect, as he had fired three.

It seems Roadman and Lovell have not been on the best of terms for some time. It is said that Lovell has been jealous of Roadman and blames him for causing all the trouble between himself and wife and was the direct cause of their separation. Mrs. Lovell says that Mr. Roadman and his entire family have only been friends to her as they knew that Lovell treated her brutally. She also states as does her daughter Lola, that Lovell has threatened to kill Roadman.

Lovell is 62 years old and Roadman was about 50 years old. Lovell was up before Justice Robinett of this city some six months ago, in answer to a complaint filed by his wife, charging him with cruel and inhuman treatment. This caused a separation, since which time Mrs. Lovell and part of the children have been residing in Roseburg while Lovell and the other children remained out on their ranch near Roadman's place. Mr. Roadman and family resided on a little ranch adjoining the farm of Hamilton & Templin in the Calipooia Valley which is being farmed by W. H. Boddler and sons, and so far as we can learn has always bore a fair reputation although considered generally, rather quick tempered and arrogant. Both men have figured in neighborhood troubles and justice courts a few times, but were never considered dangerous characters, so far as we can learn. This tradgey is a very sad one and is deplored by our citizens generally and by the people of Calipooia in particular. Lovell will probably be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
