A local creamery man advertises aeriated milk. Wonder if he dont mean irrigated milk?

Horace Deardorff, the Oakland Mill man, was looking after his intrests in Roseburg Tuesday.

The wheat gaown in this section this year is excellant in qualityand the yield good per acre, but there is a shortage in acreage and prices will probably rule a little higher in the local market.

News come from the Philippines that indications of rich oil fields in the neighborhood of Cavite, and other localities, are most encouraging and numerous borings are being made.

Mrs. H. A. Smith, widow of Representative Smith, committed suicide Sunday night at Portland by jumping into the river from the Morrison-street bridge. Despondency is given as the cause.

On next Sunday at 11 o'clock, the Rev C. M. Rees, of Wilbur, will preach at Cleveland, after which there will be a number of probationers baptized. On Saturday evening at 8:00, W. A. Allen will preach at the same place.

The Edenbower Epworth League will give an ice cream social at the old store building near the railroad crossing Friday evening July 25. For the purpose of raising money to paint the church. Girls bring the boys, and the boys bring your purse.

The Roseburg Soda works is now installed in the new building of the proprietor Mr. O. L. Sutherlin on Main St. near the Van Houten House. Mr Sutherlin will retain the old building as an Apiary. He was practically run out of the old building by the bees which took up their quarters in the walls of the building.

Walter Lyon, Governor Geer's private secretary, has returned from Washington, where he has been having an outing in assisting Sheriff Cudihee in hunting for Tracy. All trace of the murderer seems to have been lost. Lyon thinks he has formed a confederacy with other criminals of a desperate character, who will be able to secure food for him and take it where they will hide in the mountains.

T. A. Wood has worked incessantly to secure legislation favorable to Indian War Veterans. He has five other bills in congress to aid veterans. This work that he has done and is expected to place veterans under obligations to give him their pension business, and it seems to us that they can not afford to give it to any one else. See his ad. elsewhere. Attorney J. A. Buchanan is looking after his interests in this matter, and doing his business in Roseburg. (j1tf.)

F. J. Blakely returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.

Wm. Rushey went to Portland on business yesterday afternoon.

Hon. L. J. Adams of Silverton, was a Salem business visitor yesterday.

Dr W. O. Flock and wife of Portland, but late of Kirksville, Mo. have decided to locate in Roseburg, being well pleased with the city and its surroundings. The doctor is a graduate of the American School of Osteopathy of Kirksvill, Mo., and comes to us highly recommended. We welcome them to our city.

You can't exactly pick gold from the bushes in Oregon, but the hop growers and prune raisers will soon begin to pick what will bring big quantities of the yellow metal, or paper representatives of the same from the vines of their yards and the trees of their orchards. And they will want all the help they can possibly get.

Frank Long & Sons have fitted up the room in the Hild burn brick near the dpeot, formerly occupied by Cloyd's grocery, and will soon put in a large and complete stock of harness, saddles, fixtures and harness hardware, also a stock of trunks and valeices. Being practical harness makers they will also do all kinds of repair work and make harness to order. They expect to be ready for business by Aug. 1st.

Thomas Arnold, the 17 year old accomplice of Harry Granelli who attempted to wreck a train at Rice Hill about two month ago served his two month sentence in the County jail at this place and was released Tuesday. He was immediately taken in charge by an official of the Oregon State Reform School and returned to that institution from which he was paroled a few weeks prior to his escapade at Rice Hill.

W. S. Johnson, a progressive farmer, of near Brockway, exhibited a sheaf o very fine wheat at this office early this week. He received the seed from the East and being of an unknown variety he has christened it the "Johnson Winter wheat." The heads are bearded and very large, long and plump, some containing as many as 136 kernels to the head. This sheaf of wheat was 7 feet, 2 inches in length and thrives on either bottom or foot hill land.

Chas. H. Fisher of the Boise, Idaho, Capital News, is enjoying his annual summer vacation here in Roseburg, his former home, and is also looking after his business interests connected with the Roseburg Review. Mr. Fisher reports his Idaho paper prospering and business of all kinds active in that state. His paper is probably at the zenith of its glory, for the indications are that a change politically will soon come over that prosperous commonwealth. There is too much prosperity up there to long permit of harmony and security in the Demo-pop-cratic camp. This combination can only flourish under a reign of adversity and hard times.

Mrs. Lulu Walgran, and son Eugene, accompanyed by Miss Ethel Dickson, who have been visiting the family of Smith Bartram of this city, left this morning for their home in Hampshire, Ill.

E. W Herchberger, of Ft. Klamath, a hardy guide and mountaineer of that section is spending a few days in Roseburg. He will return home via the East Umpqua trail on horseback having came in over the old military road to Eugene.

Senator A. C. Marsters returned home to-day from an extended business trip to North Dakota. He visited Portland, Seattle, Helena, and other prominent points along the route and reports evidence of great business activity all along his journey. The genial Senator came home with a ruddy complexion indicating that his trip had been a beneficial one, as well as a profitable one from a business standpoint.

G. H. Clark called at our office today and ordered his PLAINDEALER sent to Eugene, where he expects to go Saturday to reside. He has not quite forgiven us yet for stating that ye editor was the only republican at a certain Democratic meeting in this city last May, at which he was also present. Don't blame him. Harry Floyd also has a similar kick.

The Gibson murder case went to the jury at Grants Pass Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, and the jury returned a verdict — murder in the first degree after about three hours' deliberation. The crime for which Gibson is convicted was committed last April. He and his nearest neighbor, John Schoenlaeher, quarreled over the matter of the dividing line between their farms, and about Gibson's stock, which Schoenlaeher alleged was allowed to run at large over his fields. These disagreements led up to a standing feud, resulting in the killing of Schoenlaeher one evening by Gibson.

Milk, Milk, Milk.

The Gaddis Dairy will furnish you bottled milk from July 15, 1902, at five cents per quart and in addition to this buttermilk free.

We claim that under our new process of aerating, purifying and bottling (which should be the case with all milk consumed) you get from twenty-five to fifty per cent more value for less money than any other milk delivery in the city affords. The milk delivered is in quality A 1 and guaranteed to give you entire satisfaction. As published on our former rate cards I allow one week's trial free of charge unless entirely satisfactory. If you think the above is overdrawn, why not give it a trial that we may demonstrate. Why not spend your money where your dollars go the farthest, and patronize a permanent business? a11.

Around the Capitol.

We will send the value of one dollar and ten cents ($1.10) in booklet, containing twenty-seven pen and ink photo reduced sketches of Washington life by mail for ten cents (cash or stamps). Queen Victoria knighted Sir John Tenniel for similar artistic work in London. (Your editor has sample of this.)

DEATH OF MRS. J. M. WRIGHT.

A Highly Esteemed Pioneer Lady of Roseburg.

Mrs. J. M. Wright, who has been ill for some time past at her home in this city, passed peacefully to the great beyond at 5 o'clock this morning July 24, 1902, aged 72 years, 3 months and 4 days. Mrs. Wright, whose maiden name was Emily Simmons, was born in Howard County, Missouri, July 20, 1830, and was united in marriage to J. M. Wright in 1846. In 1852 the family crossed the plains to Oregon, locating in French Settlement in this county, where they resided until about twelve years ago when they took up their residence on Cass street in this city. The husband of the deceased, departed this life at the family home in this city July 17, 1897, after a useful and active career. Grandma Wright, as she was familiary known, was a lifelong member of the Baptist Church, and was a grand Christian lady, whose kindly disposition and many noble traits of character readily endeared her to all with whom she formed an acquaintance, and her death will be sincerely mourned by the entire community.

Seven children, three sons, and four daughters survive her. They are W. T., C. W., and L. S. Wright; Mrs. Rena Jones, Mrs. Ann Thompson, Mrs. Alice Van Buren and Mrs. Merit E. West.

The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Douglas at the Baptist church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

Obituary.

Mrs. Priscilla Stearns Brown was born in Swanzy, New Hampshire in the year 1824, migrated to Oregon in 1853 and was married to Hon H G Brown September, 15, 1856. She departed this life at her home below Elkton July 17, 1902.

She leaves four daughter, one son, and her husband, with whom she had lived for nearly half a Century to mourn her loss.

The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground, on the premises where she had spent the larger part of her life. A large concourse of friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respect to the departed loved one.

"Mother" Brown was a devoted Christian and her kind winning ways won for her a host of admiring friends, to whom the sad news of her death brings a feeling of loss and pain.

Her life was made up of deeds of love and kindness, which shed its radiance upon all who came in contact with her. "None knew her but to love her" and so prominent was the religion of Christ manifested in her life that her influence for good among her friends only eternity can reveal.

Mrs. Brown believed in, and practiced scattering flowers in the pathway of her friends thus bringing sunshine and cheer into many sick rooms and discouraged lives. She little knew how many sad hearts she had inspired to higher and holier living by the simple gift of a bouquet of flowers and with the love and sympathy that always went as their accompaniment.

"We only know that thou hast gone.
And that the same returnless tide
Which bore thee from us, still glides on.
And we, who mourn thee, with it glide.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled:
Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no fare well tear is shed.

The bereaved family have the heart felt sympathy of the people of this neighborhood in this their hour of bereavement.

"Dearest Mother, thou hast left us;
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But tis God that hath bereft us;
He can all our sorrows heal."

"A FRIEND."

Notice.

Mrs. Smick, a post graduate of the Northwest Conservatory of Music, will give music lessons either on the organ or piano at her home two miles east of Roseburg. Also lessons in either china, oil, pastell painting, or crayon. 7-17p.

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The Glendale Hotel Case is Affirmed On Appeal.

SALEM, July 22.—In the Supreme Court, yesterday, the following opinion was handed down:

Maurice Abraham, administrator of the estate of Sol Abraham, appellant, vs. Oregon & California Railroad Company and Catherine Clarke, respondents; appeal from Douglas county; Hon. J. W. Hamilton, judge; affirmed. Opinion by Associate Justice R. S. Bean.

This was a suit to enjoin the defendants from operating, or permitting to be operated, a hotel or eating house on land conveyed to the defendant company by the plaintiff and his grantors, for all legitimate railroad, depot and warehouse purposes, on the ground that it is maintained for the accommodation of the general public and is not necessary or convenient for the operation of the railroad.

The court says: "Our conclusion from the evidence is that the hotel or eating house maintained by the defendants, or under their supervision, is convenient and proper as an incident to the management and operation of the railroad, and it is therefore a legitimate railroad purpose, within the meaning of the deed from the plaintiff to the defendants. The decree of the court below will, therefore, be affirmed.
