LOCAL GLEANINGS

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 p. m., Jan. 9, by Mrs. Mingus, special government meteorogolical observer:

Maximum	41
Minimum	38
At 4:43 p. m.	40
Precipitation	1.73

Wind—Southwest; cloudy.

Due Wednesday.—The Alliance is due in Wednesday from Portland but owing to the storm, she may not arrive until Thursday.

Apples In Bloom.—C. J. Hillstrom of West Marshfield, has been showing his friends real apple blossoms the last few days, the trees having bloomed during the recent fine weather.

Consider Reserves.—The Marshfield city council will at its meeting tonight determine whether or not it will donate $15 per month to the Marshfield Naval Reserves for Armory rent until the Oregon legislature provides for their maintenance.

Goes East.—Harry Bradfield and son, Pasquin, left yesterday for Neodasha, Kas., where they will visit Mr. Bradfield's parents for a few weeks. Mr. Bradfield took along a good load of Coos Bay literature which he will distribute in the sun flower state.

Dries Apples.—Taylor Siglin has devised a new apple dryer. He and his neighbors had a surplus of fruit. He has some brick kilns on his place so he fixed them up and in them dried seven hundred pounds of apples. He sold the entire amount to the Smith-Powers Logging Company for six cents per pound.

Back to Oregon. — Joseph T. Bridges, former register of the United States land office in Roseburg, has gone into the mercantile business at Oakland, Oregon, buying an interest in the establishment owned by his brother, W. O. Bridges. The firm title is Bridges Brothers. J. T. Bridges has been located at Cordova, Alaska, the past two years.—Roseburg Review.

Prospect Good.—W. Edwin Tribble, formerly of Colorado, is visiting here with Geo. P. Schlosser. He recently returned from Coos Bay and believes the outlook very flattering for the early construction of a railroad from there to Roseburg. Mr. Tribble believes Oregon is destined to grow more rapidly in percentage of population and business in the next few years than any other state in the Union.—Roseburg Review.

Gets Along Well.—Mrs. J. C. Swinford has received a letter from Mrs. Chas. Fensler, who is in San Francisco with her husband who is receiving treatment at Lane hospital, saying that he is getting along nicely. Mrs. Fensler says that the specialists there decided that instead of suffering from tuberculosis of the bone, Mr. Fensler had what is known as a typhoid knee. That he is getting along so nicely will be gratifyinging news to their many friends here.
