Happened in New York Recently

Mr. Samuel Hopkins, of the New York Tribune, read an advertisement offering coats of an expensive, imported fabric at $12. When he tried to buy one he found the store's entire stock of these coats consisted of only one genuine garment, and they refused to sell him that.

Could Never Happen Here

Honesty, value and service are the three chief aims of this store. The truthfulness of our advertisements is as important to us as the honesty of our merchandise. Our guarantee of value covers our statements, spoken or written, as well as our goods.

We Desire Your Confidence

We want you to know and remember that your complete satisfaction is the only acceptable finish of a transaction here. In abolishing periodical sales we acted on the belief that a smaller profit at all times would allow better values to every purchaser.

This is The Right Selling Plan

You will agree with us when you investigate our values, prices and service.

BORN

MALONEY—To Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Maloney, at their home on Commercial avenue, Friday, May 21, a son. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Injured Foot.—Julius Kruse while slashing on his ranch at Isthmus Inlet yesterday cut his foot severely. He was brought down last evening to the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Albert Matson, in West Marshfield.

Baptist Trouble.—A meeting of the Baptist church is to be held tonight concerning some serious difficulty between Rev. A. F. Bassford and Dr. Leslie.

Serves Papers.—A. P. Davis, Deputy Sheriff, left today for the Coos Bay Creamery to serve papers in a suit of L. Stephenson vs. Fred von Lilienthal, an action in Josephine County to quiet title to land there.

Better Weather.—Captain Dave Holden says that we are going to have better weather, a change of the moon and a northwest wind being unfailing signs of better conditions.

Apricots In Market.—The first apricots of the year made their appearance on the local market when the Nann Smith yesterday brought in several boxes from San Francisco. The California product is raised in the warm and protected south. The first of the fruit are small but have a very good flavor.

Long An Inspector.—Captain E. S. Edwards, U. S. Inspector of hulls in this district, is being congratulated by his friends on having reached the 26th anniversary of his service in this capacity. Captain Edwards is well known here and in the past six months has made three trips here in company with Captain George Fuller regarding the troubles of Coquille river boats.

Visits Sick Wife.—Frank Cameron came over from the county jail last night, called home by the serious illness of his wife who has been in Mercy Hospital for a month. Judge Coke granted Cameron his liberty until the noon train today when he was supposed to return with Deputy Sheriff A. P. Davis. Mrs. Cameron is said to have kept calling for her husband until the nurse wrote him a letter to come at once. Cameron was sentenced to five months in jail on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

G. A. R. To Meet.—The G. A. R. of Coos Bay will attend in a body the services at the North Bend Presbyterian Church tomorrow, according to the announcement made by Commander Simeon Miller. The veterans from Marshfield will meet those of North Bend shortly before 11 o'clock in the morning in front of the North Bend news stand and proceed in a body to the church where Rev. Shimian will deliver the sermon.

Many Griefs.—Mrs. R. E. Knorr of Gold Beach who returned here yesterday from Portland where she took the body of her husband, one of the victims of the Randolph wreck at Bandon, for cremation, has had an additional misfortune, her aunt dying while she was in Portland on the sad mission. Mrs. Knorr will spend a few days in Marshfield as a guest at the Peter Mirrasoul home and Mr. Mirrasoul will assist her in arranging her business affairs. Whether she will retain the business at Gold Beach is not certain.
