ANTIFERMENTINE

Preserves Fruit, Cider, Milk, Butter, Eggs, Tomatoes, Catsup, Pickles, Etc.

What is it: It is a simple, harmless preparation, free from taste, smell and color, that has the properties of stopping and preventing fermentation in all vegetable and animal foods.

What it does: It is especially useful for preserving fruits of all kinds without cooking, retaining their natural fresh appearance and taste.

Its Use does away with labor, and makes what has been a hot, disagreeable task, a delight and a pleasure. It substitutes for the Summer heat of the kitchen the cool shade of a lawn or piazza.

Its Results are never doubtful when used according to directions, and Plum Puddings, Peach and Berry Pies can be had in Winter as well as in Summer.

Its Use is profitable and economical, for it saves one-half of the sugar, saves the jars broken by heat, saves the fruit cooked away, and saves the time and labor lost by the old methods.

For Cider it unsurpassed. It stops fermentation at any point desired, and produces a sparkling beverage like Champagne.

The question is sometimes asked, "Is it injurious?" To allay all doubts on that score, we would say that we have consulted many of our most eminent Chemists and Physicians, and all unite in pronouncing the use of ANTIFERMENTINE as a preservative, a perfectly safe and harmless preparation.

Our Contemporary and the Bank.

Last week the LEADER thought well of "passing his hat to us" as he says, into which we have no objection whatever to drop a contribution, and annex some good advice. As to the bank we would say that we have carefully examined the expert's report of the exact status of Hamilton, Job & Co., bank, and while there appears to be some evidence of gross negligence in the conduct of the business, it is unfair to the concern, and damaging to the best interests of the depositors to jump at unwarranted conclusions through the elasticty of an illballanced judgement, and characterize mere business carelessness as criminal perversion of the interests involved.

The irrevelant, and reckless statement of our esteemed Populist Contemporary, in connection with this affair, indicates the grotesque vagaries that must be constantly wriggling in the corridors of his brain (save the mark!) It has always been the case with people of similar calibre, that the less they know about anything, the wiser they wish to appear; and the peculiarity of it is, that as a rule, whenever they open their mouth they put their foot in it. Now in the case in point, our esteemed neighbor, although great in pretensions, is manifestly modest; whatever statements he makes, have only weight with the people he claims to represent, viz: the "Common People," there are no common people in Lincoln county but himself, and his radius of influence is indeed limited, a fact which explains the windy utterances of self-inflated importance. His typographical antics reminds us of a little lonesome whirlwind or spiral column of surplus refuse, making a spectacle of itself for a moment and then disappearing harmlessly, its composition scattered.

What we would like to know is, how anyone can pose as a critic of financiering who never cultivated the acquaintance of anything outside of potatoes, turnips or cabbage who never had a dollar in a bank or in fact anywhere else and whose knowledge of business affairs would not cover a postage stamp, and not Columbian one at that.

Our contemporary has an amazing stock of gall and the best investment he could make would be to dispose of some of it in exchange for common sense, but some people demand our sympathy for the misfortune of birth and with others it produces a smile—just as the organ grinder manipulates his monkey for the amusement of a few. Our esteemed contemporary may grind his organ, but he should muzzle his monkey, the chattering makes most people tired. Our advice to you is

Don't strike a man when he is down. Don't abuse a man behind his back. Don't lie. Try and be honest.—Newport News.

Great Scott! Are we shot or stabbed, or did a house fall on us? It is some satisfaction for the people to know where to find a man, and from the above they may know that Mathews and his paper are defenders of the Job bank steal. Nothing like putting a man on record, sometimes.

Chitwood Items.

Weather nice, and all hands busy and happy.

Mr. Thomas robertson was very sick last week, but is about well again.

The two grandsons of Mr. Robertson, Thomas and Leonard Davis has gone back to Minnesota, the land of blizzards.

Mr. Young, our stock inspector, is to start for Blodgetts valley where he has leased a piece of land. He is going in the hop business. We wish him success in the enterprise.

There is some improvements going on here.

Mr. McDonald says he has not gone out of the cheese business but has just taken a layoff for the winter and expects to resume in the spring.

Now Mr. Editor we would like to know what is the matter that we do not get the LEADER for last week, we cant see why it should take a week to get mail 15 miles. Surely there is a screw loose somewhere. Have you had another 'friendly visit.' Please send the paper along it is better late than never.

STUCK.
