CONTRIBUTING SPHAGNUM MOSS

(By the County Agent)

W. E. Lawrence, Assistant Botanist of the Oregon Experiment Station, and A. G. Sweetser, of the University of Oregon Botanical Dept., spent a couple of days in the ounty locating sphagnum moss bogs, of which several were found in the vicinity of South Beach and Ona.

The County Agent is cooperating in the work and will make further search for other bogs that are undoubtedly within the County. Arrangements are being made with the Red Cross, whereby that organization will gather the moss, and ship it to Corvallis and Albany, where it will be made into bandage pads for use on the war front. The harvesting of the moss is all gratuitous and of much importance. Plans are now under way to ship many tons of the moss. The patriotic enthusiasm with which our citizens are taking hold of this important work is indeed a credit to them and the whole county. Simply upholding Lincoln County's exuberant record in war contribution campaigns. Deeds, not words, count.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING

Pomona Grange met in an all day session at Ona on June 26th. An open meeting was conducted in the afternoon at which Mr. John Schuyleman of Monroe and Crisell, a Portland Dairy Supply House, delivered the major address on the subject of Silos. He treated his subject in an interesting and exhaustive manner. It was of great value to the members present. Master S. T. Loudon gave a keynote and telling talk for the "good of the order". Other interesting numbers completed the program and the evening was converted into an enjoyable all-night dance.

GENERAL PERSHING INSISTS THAT LETTERS BE WRITTEN HOME

"Duty to one's country does not end on the parade ground, nor even on the battle field, but consists in doing everything in one's power to help win the war," says an order issued by Gen. Pershing, a copy of which has been recieved by the War Department.

"To write home frequently and regularly to keep in constant touch with family and friends is one of the soldier's most important duties. Mothers and fathers will suffer if they do not hear often from sons fighting in France. In the present large companies it is not possible for officers to write letters for their men, and every man must do it for himself."

Jas. Franks was over from the Siletz Agency Saturday.

A. C. Crawford of Lower Farm was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. Catherine Collins returned Monday evening from a visit at Salem.

J. B. Miller went to Portland Monday to spend the Fourth with his family.

Don't let the wheat flour in your kitchen shame the flag at your front door.

Bert Howe was a passenger for Portland Saturday morning, returning Monday evening.

The service flag tells of some one in the fight. The question is, who is sending him wheat.

Joe Kosydar of the Lower Siletz shipped a car of cattle to the Portland markets Saturday.

Mrs. Lena Jones of Newport visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ball, in this city.

P. H. Elting of Orton was in the city Monday evening attendnig a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee.

War is scraping our sugar bins and our granaries. The less we eat the longer it will take to empty them. Isn't that plain enough?

It is very much better to be a worker in the ranks than a shouter on the side lines. Everybody can be a worker in the food saving ranks.

Fred Olson of Chitwood was transacting business in Toledo Saturday afternoon. He called in and paid for another year's Leader while in town.

Dr. Berry returned Wednesday evening from his trip to Washington, D. C. The Doctor says that he will be in his office on his usual dates hereafter.

"Tell me what you eat, and I will tell you what you are" was once merely a clever phrase. Now it is an inter-national war axiom and means something.

Denying yourself a little wheat and sugar is not comparable with the sacrifice the men at the front are making. It's merely a privilege. Take it as such.

Glen Young, of Lincoln, Nebr., arrived last Saturday evening for a visit with County Judge and Mrs. R. R. Miller, in this city. He is a nephew of Mr. Miller's.

Merrit J. Harrison, of Detroit, Michigan, arrived in Toledo last Thursday evening for a visit at the J. W. Harrison home across the bay, he being a nephew of Mr. Harrison.

Miss Isabel Lingenfelter arrived over from Corvallis last Friday evening for a visit with her parents, returning to that city again Monday, where she is studying music.

Carl Davis returned Monday from a trip down the coast thru Coos and Curry counties. He says he "saw a lot of country and timber on the trip," but that it wouldn't compare with what we have here in Lincoln."

"Its a lot better for the whole lot of us to be eating American oats, rice, or corn or barley, or good Irish American peraties, than to have the Kaiser feeding us crow at the point of a sixteen inch gun," says Mrs. O'Flaherty.

E. H. Olmstead, recently of Nebraska, purchased the G. G. Stevens place in southeast Toledo this week. Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead drove out from Nebraska in their car and will make their home here, Mr. Olmstead having accepted the position as engineer in the Roberts mill.
