Wednesday Evening Dance.

A large crowd of jolly dancers attended a dance given by Percy Daggart and Sam Kaler Wednesday evening in Memorial hall.

Delegates to National Convention.

Mrs. Etta Lamkin and Mrs. Emma Jack are in Portland attending the national convention of Federated Women's Clubs as delegates from the local organizations.

Will Entertain.

Mrs. E. D. Briggs will entertain this afternoon the executive board of the Civic Improvement Club and the city beautiful committee at her home on Almond street.

Music.

An especially attractive program of musical numbers has been arranged by Director Lawrence of the Lyric orchestra for the Sunday evening concert.

Thirtieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Russell and son Claud of Yreka, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mrs. A. H. Russell. Today is the thirtieth wedding anniversary of the visiting couple. Thirty years ago they came into the city in a stage.

Elks to Dance.

Tomorrow evening the local Elks will enjoy an informal dance in the Elks' ballroom. While the regular series of Elks dances has been completed, the Elks were just beginning to get really interested, and this additional dance was put on to answer the demand for more.

A Cool Place to Dance.

Lovers of terpsichorean tripping will be glad to learn that the dancing season at the Natatorium will open Saturday evening with a big orchestra, a fine floor and a jolly time assured under the direction of Manager Hum Pracht. Everybody in Ashland and the valley is invited to attend the opening dance.

Reception.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore of Portland are giving a post-nuptial reception Friday evening, June 4, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Harry B. Moore. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Marie Rice of this city.

School Rally.

The Neil Creek school will have a big rally all day Friday. Professor Griffen, head of the boys' and girls' industrial department of the O. A. C., will speak in the afternoon. Professor Reimer of the experiment station will also address the school and Miss Calkins will give readings.

W. R. C. Food Sale.

Dickey Brings Back Bride.

Frank Dickey returned the last of the week from Portland bringing a bride with him. The lady was formerly Mrs. Dickey, her husband having been killed in a railroad accident several years ago. Mr. Dickey is one of the most popular of the Ashland railroaders and a host of friends will welcome his wife.

Medford Grizzlies Scale Grizzly.

Forty-six members of the Medford Grizzly hiking club climbed Grizzly peak last Sunday and enjoyed a very pleaasnt day of real mountaineering. Moving pictures of the crowd were taken by A. C. Allen. The Medford Tribune concludes an interesting article on the trip with the following:

"No one who has ever had the pleasure of viewing the Rogue River Valley from this peak, with the great systems of mountain ranges on every side and the snow-capped peaks of Mount Shasta, Mount McLoughlin and Mount Ashland in the distance, will ever regret making the trip to the summit of Grizzly peak."

Trade Secrets of the Coffee Business

Coffees probably carry the largest margin of profit of any food products you buy. It was this condition we sought to change when we reorganized our coffee business a year ago.

Big selling expenses of exclusive coffee houses are really respousible for the large profits. Because coffees are but one branch of our business, we are able to keep our expense of getting them to the consumer from 40 to 60 per cent under other concerns.

We are giving this saving to our customers in the shape of better values. Royal Club is the best coffffee on the market, at 5c to 15c a pound less.

The Chautauqua Park Club meets tomorrow afternoon(Friday) at the Chautauqua hall at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Summer Term.

Summer term at the high school will begin Monday, June 7. Pupils should make arrangements as early as possible with the individual teachers.

Merley Circle.

Mrs. F. E. Walters, Mrs. Mastiers and Mrs. Keller entertained the Merley Circle at the latter's home on Allison street last Wednesday afternoon. About twenty-five ladies were present. The time was spent with music, conversation and fancy work. Delicious refreshments were served and all departed vowing they had had a jolly good time.

Auxiliary.

Commencing last Monday, the Auxiliary Club rooms on Vista street will be open every afternoon to the members and Friday afternoons to the public. Tea and wafers will be served for 10 cents. The club met in regular session Tuesday evening of last week—the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month having been chosen as meeting nights.

R. R. Telegrapher Delegate Returns.

F. E. Walters, wire chief and manager of the railroad telegraph office, returned from St. Louis Tuesday. Mr. Walters was delegate from the Shasta district to the grand convention of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. There were nearly five hundred telegraphers from all parts of the United Sattes and Canada present and a rousing session was held.

Pleasant Hour Club.

The Pleasant Hour Club met with Mrs. J. Sam Wilson last Thursday in a farewell reception to the club's late president, Mrs. Ruckle, and spent a very delightful afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ruckle are leaving overland for a trip through eastern Oregon, where they will dispose of their outfit and go back to their old home in Iowa for a visit.

Band Dance.

The Ashland armory has been secured for the monster band dance which will take place a week from Friday evening. Out of town people are expected in large numbers and Ashlanders will turn out en masse to dance to the strains of the best music ever offered at a local dance and to hear the twenty-piece symphony orchestra. Preparations are being made to make the event an epoch-making affair.

Barrett-Neil.

Miss Irene Barrett and Ellis Neil of Ashland were married Thursday evening at Yreka at the home of the Methodist minister, Rev. McKay. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 in the presence of a few friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett of the Kingsbury springs district and is one of the most popular members of the younger set. The groom is a son of L. A. Neil and has recently been conducting the ranch east of the city. Both are well known locally. The young couple returned to Ashland Tuesday and Tuesday afternoon were in the city receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends. They will make their home here.

Morris-Lindsay.

Two Ashland young people, Miss Nina Morris and Mr. Sam Lindsay, were married at San Diego at 9 o'clock on the morning of May 24. The ceremony took place at the residence of Rev. Crabtree. Miss Morris left Ashland about two weeks ago for the southern California city. She is a graduate of the class of 1912 of the Ashland high school and a highly popular young lady among Ashland young folks. The groom attended school here several years ago. He is employed by the Pacific Telephone Company in San Diego. The couple will make their home at the Thorbin apartments in San Diego. The good wishes of many Ashland friends are extended to them.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many kind friends of the Eastern Star lodge and the musicians who were so kind during our last bereavement in the loss of our beloved mother, Mrs. Mary A. Barclay.

MRS. ELLA B. MILLS.
BYRON HALL BARCLAY.

Marsh Goodwin, a former Ashland boy now residing in Eugene, graduates from the University of Oregon this month. Goodwin is the only graduate in the school of political science. Superintendent Briscoe of the local schools has been carrying advanced work through the university extension service and gets a degree from the school of education.

AT THE CHURCHES

Bruce Evans is Drawing the Crowds.

"Stagnation is the next station to damnation."

"The church has only been successful so long as she has been aggressive. A fire engine always has right of way. Any old thing can impede the progress of an ice wagon or a wheelbarrow."

"A little fellow was asked why he fell out of bed and replied it was because he had gone to sleep too near where he had gotten in. That is why your are a backslider, brother—you went to sleep too near where you went in!"

Bruce Evans says no man an be a Christian without being a "hot-footed" Christian. He meant by that that every man who is tied up with the church in any way ought to be tied up in every way. Evans goes on the theory that a man who fails to crown the Christ Lord of all does not crown Him Lord at all.

as he makes every one call him, have as he maxes every one call him, have been growing since Sunday night. A great crowd was present last night and men who are not accustomed to be seen in church were there in goodly numbers. The evangelist is unlike a great many men in his profession inasmuch as he does not berate and browbeat every person with whom he disagrees.

All the pastors o the city were on the platform last night and took part in the services. Prayer meetings are being held in several homes in different parts of the town, representing different denominations, at 10 o'clock. Evans speaks in the Baptist church at 3, 4 and at 8.

You may not like him, but you are advised to take a nap before you go, for Bruce will certainly keep you awake.

Baptist Church Notes.

J. Bruce Evans is this week conducting meetings in the Baptist church. Hundreds of people have heard him thus far, and most everybody in town is hearing about and thinking of him and his meetings. And when you hear him he makes you think of God and the investment of your life here and hereafter.

Sunday school will be at 9:45.

Morning worship at 11. J. Bruce Evans will preach.

B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:45. Leslie Phillips will lead.

There will be regular services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, June 6. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 o'clock. No prayer meeting this week or next.

New Rector Arrives Tomorrow.

The Rev. P. K. Hammond will arrive in Ashland Friday noon to tatke charge of the Episcopal church here. His wife and daughter will arrive Saturday. Services Sunday at the Episcopal church will no doubt be under his charge. Mr. Hammond comes to Ashland from Oregon City, where he has endeared himself to the people. The Tidings received a letter from E. E. Brodie of Oregon City, president of the State Editorial Association, praising Mr. Hammond very highly. Mr. Brodie says:

"Mr. Hammond is a personal friend of mine. He is a genial gentleman and I know that he will be a welcome addition to the social and religious life of your community."
