BOX CAR ROBBERS TRIED AT CONDON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Condon, Or., April 9.—The circuit court adjourned here Wednesday after a two days' session. James Smith, who has been in jail here all winter on a charge of larceny, entered a plea of guilty to simple larceny and was given 30 days in the county jail.

Charles Wilson, Sid Spencer and Albert Wallace who were charged with breaking into an O. R. & N. box-car and stealing a quantity of shoes and clothing were given a trial Monday and the jury after being out 24 hours disagreed. Wilson and Wallace then changed their plea to that of guilty and were sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary. Spencer was discharged.

James Dunn, of the firm of Dunn Bros., general merchants of this place, has gone to Tucson, Arizona, for the benefit of his health.

Want Ad. News of the Day

There's no use "chasing" all over town for office rooms. The Journal has the advertisements under the proper heading. 233½ First street has an ad. in today.

Under "For Sale," 542 Market street is advertising a ladies' bicycle and a revolving office chair. Do you want either?

267 Columbia uses the "Housekeeping Rooms" column. "Two nice front rooms, furnished for housekeeping; ground floor; rent reasonable," so says the advertisement. You'll find that The Journal carries the good places when they are advertised.

"E 1, Journal," is setting forth a proposition under "Help Wanted—Male," that will doubtless interest a good whisky salesman. Read the ad.

Another ad. under "Housekeeping Rooms" is that of 85 Seventh street. "Strictly modern," is a clause of the ad. That means much.

Under "For Sale," E 9, Journal, is advertising the furniture of two office rooms. Here's a chance for some one to furnish an office cheaply. The furniture must go, as the rooms are for rent.

215 Eleventh street advertises under "Furnished Rooms," "elegant front furnished rooms for gentlemen." The fact that they are in a private residence is probably a matter of more than passing interest.

Under "For Rent—Flats" is a brief little ad. of 271 Baker street, which may carry a long story if investigated by flatseekers.

"E 15, Journal," advertises under "For Rent—Houses," a cozy cottage in select residence district. Furnishings for sale, too.

Do you need a cook? There's one advertising for a position under "Situation Wanted—Female." Can furnish city references, according to the ad.
