VARIETIES

All kinds of wants appear in these columns today, and what you have may be just what someone else wants. Read Journal Want Columns and see.

Did you find a Woodcraft pin with a name on it? The one who lost it is advertising under "Lost and Found."

$3,000 will pay for a modern home, just built, within walking distance. You can buy it on terms, according to an ad under "For Sale—Real Estate."

The Brunswick-Balke Collender company wants something, and means what it says. The ad under "Wanted—To Rent" tells just what it is.

"3 furnished rooms with piano," and more than that; read the ad under "To Rent—Furnished Rooms."

Mrs. G. F. Whitehouse has something to say that will interest you, under the heading, "Summer Resorts."

By the way—don't forget that Situations Wanted advertisements are inserted two days free of charge.

An experienced collector is looking for a position; he can furnish good reference. Can you use him? His ad is under "Wanted Situations—Male."

There's an ad appearing under "For Sale—Real Estate" with the address 203 First street. See what it says. May be something you want.

Notice what Crockers offers in these columns today. One under "Business Chances," several under "For Sale—Real Estate" and another under "Summer Resorts." Quite a selection.

Under "For Sale—Horses and Carriages," notice the advertisements from the Red Front stables. Several very good chances offered. Don't miss 'em.

You can find any amount of good things by constantly keeping in touch with Journal Want Ads. Remember, an ad costs only 5c a line, $1 words for 15 cents.
