LONE BANDIT ROBS SILVER CITY STAGE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Nampa, Ida., June 23.—The stage from Silver City to this place was held up about two miles north of Silver City yesterday by a lone highwayman, the mail bags rifled and the passengers to the number of nine relieved of their valuables. The robber was armed with a shotgun, and after halting the stage he ordered the passengers and driver to alight and lined them up by the roadside. At this juncture a man and his wife, residents of Silver City, drove up, and they, too, were forced to join the passengers from the stage and relieved of their purses.

Just as the robber completed his work with the passengers, a man from the direction of DeLamar, rode up on horseback. He was forced to dismount and cut open the mail pouches, which the bandit then ransacked.

The robber was a small man, and wore a black mask. It is not thought that he secured more than $50 in cash. A posse is scouring the woods for the bandit, but so far no trace has been found.

For the Ocean Beach.

The popular steamer T. J. Potter will make her initial trip this season on Saturday, June 25, leaving Ash street dock promptly at 1 p. m..

Season tickets, Portland to any point on the beach, $4.00. Saturday excursion tickets, good returning Sunday night, only $2.50. Tickets and berth reservations at O. R. & N. city office, Third and Washington.

Stop, Look and—

Well, after you have looked, then act. But first stop worrying about little things. Look through Journal Want Columns and you'll find good reason to get busy. They are great bargain-bringers.

Here's a reliable man of ability looking for something to do, but wants only certain kind of work. He says what it is, under "Situations Wanted—Male," giving the address, "I. 7."

"Big sale of mining stock," is the heading over an advertisement under "Business Chances"—says how big, too.

T. W. Pittinger knows he has a bargain to offer in a beautiful home. You can buy it on small monthly payments. Read the ad. under "For Sale—Real Estate."

Can you be at 224 Washington street, between 10 and 11 Friday morning? Why? Read the ad. under "Business Chances," that begins with "Sacrifice Sale."

On East Seventh street is a 7-room modern house for rent. The number is given under "For Rent—Houses." Get it.

Looking for housekeeping rooms? Some advertised under "For Rent—Housekeeping Rooms," from various parts of the city.

Residence lots—cheap — for sale by owner. These are some things told in an ad. under "For Sale—Real Estate." Location, address and phone number are also given.

Want to buy a grocery stock and fixtures? Mr. Diez offers it under "For sale—Miscellaneous." Get his address and find out about it.

Have you ever noticed the classification "Roofing?" Look for it and see what the advertisers say in it.

Are your rooms all filled? If not, don't forget Journal Want Columns—1 words for 15 cents is the rate for an ad. one time. Try it.

But whether you need a servant, or something else, always bear in mind that it pays to advertise in Journal Want Columns.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular meeting of the Council of the City of Portland, Oregon, to be held on the 6th day of July, 1904, a petition will be presented by the undersigned to the Council praying for the vacation of that part of East Twenty-third street described as follows: Commencing at the northwest corner of lot 13, block 13, in Tilton's addition to East Portland (now Portland) Oregon, and running thence south along the west side line of said lot 13, 125.09 feet to the southwest corner of said lot 13; thence west at right angles to the said west side line of said lot 8.4 feet; thence north and parallel to the said west side line of said lot 123.09 feet to the south side line of the intersection of East Salmon street with East Twenty-third street; thence east along the south side line of the said East Salmon street 8.4 feet to the place of beginning.
