FRUIT RECEIPTS ARE VERY LARGE

FOURTH CAUSES LARGE RECEIPTS

QUOTATIONS FOR FRUIT UNCHANGED, BUT APPARENTLY GOOD DEMAND FOR FOURTH OF JULY TRADE—SOME DEALERS REPORT SCARCITY OF EGGS.

Front Street, June 28.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:
Butter remains unchanged.
Eggs moving all right.
Block hogs in demand.
Poultry market in good tone.
Cantaloupes cheaper.
Berries smaller and stiffer.
Steamer arrives tonight.
General market favorable.

Big Fruit Shipment Arriving.

Large shipments of fruit are arriving and more are due in anticipation of the Fourth of July trade. There is no change in prices, but the receipts are moving steadily at quotation prices. The strawberry season is drawing to a close, as the continued warm weather is stunting their growth. Raspberries and blackberries are coming in, but the hot weather threatens to cut the crop short.

Eggs in Demand.

The majority of the Front-street houses complain of a scarcity of eggs and but small quantities were received yesterday. The ruling price is 20c per dozen for fresh ranch eggs, although two or three firms quote this quality at 19c.

Cantaloupes and Melons.

Several cars of cantaloupes have arrived, and are quoted at lower prices than have prevailed. A lot of watermelons are en route, but the selling prices as yet have not been determined.

Meats Are Moving.

Block hogs are in good demand and the better quality of veal is wanted. Considerable mutton and lamb is being received, but no change in prices is reported.

Poultry in Fair Demand.

Poultry is in good demand, especially spring chickens; old hens are looking better, but there is no change in the quotations. The demand is unusually a little better to supply the Fourth of July trade.

Butter at a Standstill.

The supply of butter appears to meet the demand, and there is no change in the market quotation. When green feed becomes scarcer there will be a falling off in the supply and prices may advance.

Chittim Bark Arriving.

Considerable quantities of chittim bark is arriving. It is coming from Willamette valley points and Lewis river, Wash. The price is still quoted 5c per pound and the present outlook is not favorable for an immediate advance.

Wool Pretty Well Cleaned Up.

Considerable wool is coming in, but it is claimed that the greater part of the yield has already been sold. The eastern dip is being marketed principally in Boston. Occasionally a few small lots are sold in the Portland market.

Reduction in Fancy Flour Products.

Graham flour in 50s reduced 25c per barrel; whole wheat in 50s reduced 25c per barrel; same in bales reduced 15c per barrel.

Merchants' Opinions on Today's Markets.

Chatterton & Co.—Spring chickens of all kinds in good demand; old hens moving readily; block hogs selling off with steady demand; fancy veal has a good call and the poor article not wanted.

Mark Levy & Co.—A car of cantaloupes, also car of watermelons arrived.

Pearson, Page & Co.—First car of cantaloupes arrived in good condition; new potatoes coming in better at 2½c per pound.

Toft, Hine & Co.—Would advise steady shipments of everything in our line; market looks favorable for all the goods that come in for the next two weeks, at least.

Davenport-Thompson Company—Car of oranges received and cherries arriving freely; strawberry market stiffening; raspberries and Lawtons arriving more freely. Lawtons are selling at $1.50 per crate and raspberries $1.50.

Bell & Co.—Car of bananas arrived and car of new potatoes expected; a big lot of fresh figs just received.

Dryer, O'Malley & Co.—Car of bananas and oranges received.

Page & Son—Berries will soon be a scarcity in the market owing to the hot, dry weather. The hot weather is drying up the late strawberries and growers report that the weather conditions will work an injury to the raspberries and blackberries.

W. B. Glafke & Co.—Steamer will arrive tonight with a large cargo of fruits.

Levy & Spiegl—Car of California vegetables arrived from California; big shipments of fruits for the Fourth of July trade being received.

McKinley Mitchell—Old potatoes are firm but there is not many left in the hands of the growers; hops are looking up but there is no advance in prices; crops need rain.

COTTON CROP REPORT FAVORABLE.

New York, June 28.—T. A. McIntyre & Co. say: In most of the districts east of the Mississippi river cotton has not made rapid growth and is generally small, though healthy and well cultivated, and good growth is reported from Mississippi and portions of Alabama, and while lice are increasing in the last named state, they are less numerous in Mississippi and South Carolina. West of the Mississippi river the advance of the crop has been more rapid, a good growth being generally reported, and while some of the fields are foul in portions of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana the crop is generally well cultivated. In Texas boll-weevil are more numerous in the southwestern, central, eastern and coast sections.

STRENGTH IN BONDS MAY CONTINUE

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)
New York, June 28.—Logan & Bryan say:
Every time the bears put out a few stocks they find it difficult to get them back. The Reading statement was unfavorable but its effect is very circumscribed. The inside buying of good bonds still continue. We think this strength will last and gradually work into the list.

NEW YORK COTTON REPORT.

New York, June 28.—T. A. McIntyre says: It looks to us very much as though the day's slump in the old crop options was mostly in the nature of a shake out of the scattered remaining long interest and that issuance of 20,000 notices for delivery on July contracts had this object in view and of creating a better buying basis. The best information here is to the effect that no more than a few thousand bales of high-grade cotton would be tendered for delivery today, but almost every spot house sent out notices, shortly after the market had opened. There was, however, 20,000 circulating through the trade. As far as they appeared among commission houses, forced liquidation resulted and when the selling orders came into the pit traders were there to hammer the price down to sellers. During the late afternoon there was little support forthcoming except from those who were short and were inclined to secure some profits on break. The various reports by states in detail read much more unfavorably than the weekly summary indicates.
