QUARTER OF EGGS COMING ARE SECONDS

EGGS ARRIVING IN BAD CONDITION

FARMERS ARE HOLDING TOO LARGELY AND AT LEAST ONE FOURTH OF PRESENT ARRIVALS ARE SECONDS OR WORSE—TOO MUDDY TO CATCH SALMON.

Front Street, July 11.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:
Salmon is scarce again.
Eggs are coming in bad shape.
Advance in provisions takes effect.
Poultry as scarce as ever.
Cheese market is dull.
Walla Walla potatoes and onions in.
New onions are very firm.
Good meats are wanted.
Oregon tomatoes are coming.
Peaches are arriving in plenty.
Watermelons a trifle slow.
Local green corn in market.

Eggs in Bad Shape.

There were fairly liberal supplies of eggs today, but the condition of the arrivals was very poor. At least one-fourth of the eggs that came in were either seconds are altogether bad. This condition was brought about by the farmers holding too long, with the expectation of higher values. The weather is now in such a state that it is impossible to do this and many shippers will find it out to their regret before the summer is ended.

Salmon Is Scarce Again.

The waters of the Columbia are now so muddy that it is nearly impossible for the fishermen to operate and in consequence a very poor catch is reported on the lower river during the past few days. In this market good, fresh Columbia river stock is a luxury, inasmuch as stocks are hard to obtain. No changes appear in fish quotations today.

Provision Advance Takes Effect.

The spirited advance in the provision market noted exclusively in The Journal yesterday took effect this morning. The changes were: Hams of all averages advanced ¼c; breakfast bacon advanced 1c; sides show an advance of ¼c and backs the same amount; bellies are ¼c and butts ⅛c higher. Smoked and unsmoked grades are included in the rise in prices. Prices in lard show no changes.

Local Tomatoes Are Coming.

All the commission-houses were in receipt of tomatoes from in the vicinity of the Dalles this morning. Demand was good with stocks in much better condition than the outside product. Oregon peaches are in more liberal supply and are in better shape. Demand is quite good. California watermelons are not being sought after very much, the season being too new.

Red Onions Out of Market.

New California red onions are disappearing very fast from the local markets and yellow Danvers are taking their places. Today a car of Walla Walla new potatoes and a car of globe onions arrived. In this market Walla Walla onions are not considered very good. The potatoes arrived in good condition. A car of California onions and potatoes also arrived. This morning a car of bananas was distributed along the street.

Poultry as Scarce as Ever.

Poultry of all kinds is as scarce as ever and not a single coop was carried over from Saturday's market. The principal call continues for old hens, but everything with the exception of ducks and geese finds ready sale. Some turkeys would find a fair demand.

Good Meats Find a Call.

Although the receipts were a trifle better in fresh meats this morning there was still a good demand for veal and hogs of the better grade with a limited call for lambs. Bull beef continues in bad shape with the market low.

Merchants' Opinions on Today's Markets.

W. B. Glafke Company—Walla Walla corn came in this morning; also a car of Walla Walla potatoes; butter same.

W. T. Turner & Co.—We expect a good market for chickens this week; eggs very active.

Bell & Co.—Car yellow Danver onions in; car potatoes; car bananas; some nice tomatoes coming from The Dalles.

Chatterton & Co.—Chickens of all grades in brisk demand; hogs and veal selling off readily; eggs very firm.

Malarkey & Co.—Just returned from Astoria and found salmon very scarce there on account of the muddy condition of the river.

L. Jaggar—Quite good demand ruling in old potatoes.

Davenport-Thompson Company—Lots of small fruits now in market.

Everding & Farrell—Poultry all cleaned up; eggs are steady but there is plenty to go around; quite large number arriving in very poor condition from holding too long; butter unchanged; veal and pork in good demand.

Dryer, O'Malley & Co.—Old potatoes better demand; eggs firm; chickens firm with not enough coming to fill demand; doesn't seem to be enough meats coming.

Page & Son—Car bananas; fancy tomatoes arriving from The Dalles; some nice peaches, too; car new potatoes and car onions in.

Tuft, Hine & Co.—Prospects look good to handle large shipments of veal, block hogs and chickens of all grades; egg market cleaned up and there is a brisk demand for above lines.

Smith Bros.—Supplies of fresh meats larger but still there is not enough for the demand; market especially good on veal and hogs and lambs.

MINNESOTA IS FIRST.

Chicago, July 11.—On acreage 3 per cent smaller than a year ago Missouri expects to raise 31,000,000 bushels, or an increase of 9,000,000 bushels. The harvesting season was bad on account of excessive moisture. Minnesota and the Dakotas expect to bring contentment to the farmers of that region with a total yield of 201,000,000 bushels of spring wheat as compared with 172,000,000 bushels a year ago. Generally speaking the conditions in the northwest are more satisfactory than they have been for some time. Minnesota takes her place this year ahead of Kansas as the premier wheat producing state of the United States. First North Dakota has no trouble to beat Kansas.

SPRING WHEAT HIGHER AND WINTER LOWER

Washington, July 11.—The government crop report this afternoon shows the condition of winter wheat on July 1, 78.7 per cent; spring wheat, 93.7 per cent; corn, 86.4 per cent; total all wheat condition, 84.5 per cent. Last year winter wheat was 78.8 per cent; spring wheat 83.5 per cent; corn, 79.4 per cent. Logan & Bryan say: "The government report was about as expected."

SOME REACTIONS IN STOCKS EXPECTED

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)
New York, July 11.—Logan & Bryan say: The government report this afternoon, while always a matter of uncertainty, is yet expected to show a satisfactory and encouraging condition in the grain crop. There has undoubtedly been some damage to wheat in the southwest but it is not sufficient in its scope to continue an influence on the general commercial situation. Stocks have had so much advance of late that reactions from now on will occur, but we advise buying good stocks on these reactions. So long as the crop outlook is all right there is not much else to fuss about.
