PRICE OF BUTTER TO TOUCH BOTTOM

Receipts Are Very Heavy and Dealers Are Anxious to Steady the Market.

STORAGE OPERATIONS ARE SOON TO BEGIN

Eggs Are Showing a Rise—Hams Are Advanced—Other Provisions Are Lower.

Front Street, April 21.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are: Butter to touch bottom. Eggs are scarcer and up. Poultry coming but very firm. Dressed veal quoted lower. Dressed hogs in fair shape. Car sweet potatoes arrives. Salmon receipts are larger. Potatoes showing dullness. Hops are firm but quiet. Hams advanced ½ cent. Cottage hams off ½ cent. Shoulders off ½ cent. California 'grass drives out.

Butter to Touch Bottom.

Within the next few days the butter market will in all probabilities touch the bottom for values during the current season. Receipts are still very heavy and dealers are very anxious to allow the price to go to the bottom around 17½c per pound for the fancy product. Along the street the best brands are being held rather firm at 20c per pound, although some stocks have been sold as low as 17½c. The time of putting butter into cold storage is rapidly drawing near and when that time arrives the market will stiffen and perhaps go to a higher point. There is still some California butter in this market, but the amount is by no means very large. Practically all of the city creameries are now selling their best product at 22½c per pound and some sales have been made at that figure. Receipts of country store butter are quite heavy, but there is a fair demand for this product from the south at present prevailing values.

Egg Market Is Higher Again.

With receipts inadequate to supply the demand, the egg market is ranging higher today and sales are being made mostly around 19c per dozen. The transactions under that amount are very few and do not comprise the general market.

Dressed Veal Is Quoted Lower.

The market on dressed veal is very weak with rather heavy receipts and the tone of the market is dull with prices lower today. Dressed hogs in fair demand is ruling with values unchanged from those of yesterday. Spring lambs are now coming in large supply but the call is not very liberal.

Salmon Receipts Are Larger.

Receipts of salmon are larger in the local markets. Reports from down the river say that the run yesterday afternoon was an improvement over previous ones. The cold storage operations continue to secure the major portion of the catch. Prices unchanged in this market today.

Potatoes Showing Dullness.

The potato market is rather dull today but the tone is just as healthy as ever—only the prices are not so high. The California markets continue to weaken with the heavier arrivals, but according to a large dealer here this is a prearranged plan to secure lower figures and then buy up large stocks at low prices. Then there will be an advance. The onion market is firm but business is nominal.

Changes in Provision Market.

The following changes were made in the price of local provisions today: Shoulders down ½c per pound; regular hams of all averages advanced ½c per pound; cottage hams declined ½c per pound. No change appears in the price of lard.

California 'Grass Drives Out.

Receipts of Oregon asparagus are much heavier and the California product has been practically driven out of this territory. Receipts of the latter have stopped altogether. Home stocks are coming from Walla Walla and are finding a good sale around $1.75 per box. A car of sweet potatoes came this morning.

NO HOGS COME BUT MARKET IS NOT GOOD

Cattle Demand Is Excellent at Former Values — Spring Lambs Unsaleable.

Portland Union Stockyards, April 21.—Livestock receipts:

	Hogs.	Cattle.	Sheep.
Today	.....	40	600
Week ago	30	603	1,000
Previous week	25	675	1,000

No hogs were received at the local yards today, but the tone of the market is not in good shape. The demand for cattle is very good and the tone of the market is strong. The sheep market is fair with no change in values. Spring lambs cannot be sold now at any figure and today's values in that line are nominal.

Official prices for livestock:

Hogs—Best eastern Oregon, $6.00; blockers and China fats, $5.25; stockers and feeders, $4.50@4.75.
