SHOOTS MOTHER BECAUSE OF HER BIRTHDAY SLAPS

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Dangerously Wounds His Parent—She Prays to Recover.

(Journal Special Service.)

Denver, Col., Feb. 13.—While playfully giving her son Willie 12 slaps on his back in honor of his twelfth birthday, Mrs. Lillian Phillips of Arriba, Colorado, was shot with a rifle in the hands of her 4-year-old son Harold. Mrs. Phillips is at a hospital lying at the point of death from a bullet close to her heart. When Willie was cornered, with the aid of his brothers and sisters, Harold entering into the spirit of the occasion with the rest, the mother began the slaps.

"One, two, three"—— she counted. Then Harold became frightened and begged his mother to stop. Not heeding his pleading, the little fellow got out his rifle, which was supposed to be unloaded and on the last count pulled the trigger, the ball entering Mrs. Phillips' back.

"For his sake I must get well," she moaned. "It would never do for the innocent little fellow to go through life with the knowledge that he had killed his mother."
