

Love. When, vexed by care and harem'd by distress, The storms of Fortune chill the soul with dread, Let Love, the soothing Love, still sweetly bleed, And his amantive beam brightly shed; His downy plume, o'er thy pillow spread, Shall fill thy weeping sorrows to repose; To Love the tender heart hath ever fled, As on its mother's breast the infant throws Its sobbing face, and there in slumber grows — Mrs. Tigue.

THE LOVING KINDNESS OF GOD.—The loving kindness of God! what a beautiful expression! How rich and consoling the thought contained in it! It is not mere good will, nor mere complacent friendship, nor the mere neighborly kindness of human beings, although these are of high and precious account; it is the good will, the friendship, the kindness of love—the love of God, who is love itself. We know something of the loving kindness of father and mother. We have been gently tended and nursed by this kindness; or, parents ourselves, we know full well the throbbing of parental affection. Deep, earnest, self-sacrificing, is human love in many tender relations. We trust in it fervently and without fear. O! if there were no human love in which we could trust, what a desolate place would this world be! But the loving kindness of God, of that great and incomprehensible Being who fills the universe with his presence, and before whose majesty the pillars of heaven tremble—what a loving kindness that must be! the kindness of infinite love wedded with infinite power! There is nothing that love can conceive of, or wish to do for its object, but it is contained here, and rendered not only possible, but absolutely certain.

SET THINE HOUSE IN ORDER.—Alas! for him who grows old without growing wise, and to whom the future world does not set open her gates, when he is excluded by the present. The Lord deals so graciously with us in the deaf ear of life, that it is a shame to turn a deaf ear to the lessons which he gives. The eye becomes dim, the ear dull, the tongue falters, the feet totter, all the senses refuse to do their office, and from every side resounds the cry, "Set thine house in order, for the term of thy pilgrimage is at hand." The playmates of youth, the fellow laborers of manhood, die away, and take the road before us. Old age is like some quiet chamber, in which, disconnected from the visible world, we can prepare in silence for the world that is unseen.—[Tholuck.

Men should observe when sinners are fitted to hear instruction. Physic must not be given at all times, but in season.—Opportunity advantage every work.

Roman Eye Balsam,
FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES.
THIS BALSAM was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist, with remarkable success, for diseases of the Eye and Eyelids.
There are many persons who would rather suffer from pain and disease through life, than credit or try the efficacy of any new discovery; all such had better read this, but to all reasonable persons this preparation is recommended as a most safe and efficient cure for inflammation of the Eye and Eyelids, caused either by too close application to minute objects, scorching habit, exposure to cold, hazy, misty, or irritating air, from any extraneous body under the eyelids. It is remarkably soothing in itself, and has cured thousands who would otherwise have lost their sight.
In cases the Eyelids are inflamed, or the ball of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost like magic and removes all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is a numerous class of persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents or diseases that weak and inflame the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, who, from the nature of their occupations, are compelled to work in a close and hot atmosphere. Such should never be without this BALSAM.

No More Mills Burnt!
MR. BOOTH.—DEAR SIR: I have now in my Mill one of your Centre Feed Fire-proof SMUT MACHINES, put up two weeks ago. I can say that I consider it the greatest improvement in this class of machinery that has come under my notice. The danger from fire by its construction and construction to the one in general use, is completely obviated. The dust and dirt, heretofore so annoying to me, is now effectually remedied. That part of the mill before occupied by the Smut Machine is now as clean as any part of the mill. I can say that it is the best smutting machine ever saw. The improvement in the quality of flour will be at once discovered; in fact, the great change produced in every respect is indeed a very great one. I would say that I have had in my mill previous to this machine that cut the grain very much, but this does not cut a kernel, and does not require half the power. Your machine will certainly take the preference in this State, and I would say so to the Pacific coast.

To the Millers of this State:
You will never regret trying this Smut Mill. You can call and see how this cleans wheat, before purchasing. I have the only one in Oregon at present, but they can soon be obtained. I would say that my flour has had a great reputation in the last two years, and I am satisfied by the use of this smut mill that it will still make an improvement in the flour, if any can be made.

THE high and envied celebrity which these prominent Medicines have acquired for their valuable efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing out only empty, but unworthy of them. They are known by their traits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.
In all cases of asthma, acute and chronic rheumatism, affections of the bladder and kidneys, bilious fevers and liver complaints, in the south and west, where these diseases prevail, they will be found invaluable. Pleurisy, typhoid, and other diseases, which once use these Medicines, will never recur, and be without them.
Dyspepsia.—No person with this distressing disease should delay using these medicines immediately. Eruptions of the skin, erysipelas, flatulency, fever and ague—for this scourge of the western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other diseases have the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent.

A Blessed & Divine Remedy
SANGUIFEROUS NERVINE TONIC:
Read my Theory of
LIFE and DEATH,
THAT most diseases prove fatal; that early death occurs, that people live for years a living death, weak, emaciated, and exhausted—not from the disease itself, but from an inability in nature, and nature's strength to withstand or maintain life through the ravages of disease. Give them strength, and nature will drive herself, if stimulated. She has given us herbs and plants to effect all this. Purify the blood, render the intestines, the liver, the heart, and all the natural functions of man or woman active, and you have half conquered disease. Dr. JACOB WEBBER does conscientiously assure all who read this, that his Sanguiferous or Invigorating Cordial produces all the effect above described. He has seen the old, the tottering, the palsied, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the lubricate, the debilitated, and the invalid revive under its influence, as if new life were given them.
Dr. Webber's Sanguifer
acts on the blood, heart, brain, intestines, sinews, nerves, the fluids in a semi-fluid, and the whole physique, and
BENEFITS ALIKE
the nervous hypochondriac, the dyspeptic, the nervous, debilitated and feeble, the over-dosed invalid, the bilious and liver-diseased sufferer, the gourmand, the debauchee, the intemperate, and all who suffer ill health.
"OH HORRIBLE! OH HORRIBLE!
Most Horrible!!"
When worn-out nature succumbs to DEATH, because she has not strength to resist. Now, Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorating Cordial causes strength—that is its main quality. The first operation, Tonic; the patient feels that satisfaction is caused—his skin is damp, his limbs supple and active, he feels a wish for exercise, and knows he has strength to endure it; he is light-spirited; his skin becomes clear; his eyes, too, because his liver is made active, the bile neutralized or ejected, and his blood thinned and purified. If he has a foul stomach, this acts as an aperient, not otherwise. Again, it immediately relieves itching, and prevents an accumulation of wind in the stomach. The stomach, the great receiver of disease and its issue. I will now enumerate a few of those diseases which I have seen Dr. Webber's Invigorating Cordial act most beautifully:
Nervousness, Weakness, Languor,
Fever and Ague, Chills, Pains
in the Limbs, Joints, Body,
Delirium Tremens, Tremors, Constitutional
Decline, (from any cause,) Debility in either sex
or age,
Torpor of the Liver, Bowels,
& HABITUAL CONSTIPATION!!
