MADRONA HILL

This beautiful new addition is now ready for sale. It is the only tract on the Peninsula that has the car line so close to the river view lots. A home 200 feet above the city, where you can overlook the harbor and city. The ships of the world pass in full view; the mountains with their snow-capped peaks are in full view; the river with the green-covered hills of the Heights for a background, make a beautiful picture. Nature has passed out the good things to this addition with a lavishing hand. It is close in, good car service. Bull Run water, building restrictions, boulevards graded and graveled; in short, everything necessary for elegance and comfort. A lot can be secured here on easy payments.

Take St. Johns car, get off at Greely station. It is between the station and the river.

WEATHER REPORT.

The river at Portland will reach a stage of 20½ feet Thursday morning and 22 feet Friday. The river will fall Sunday.

The Vancouver Island storm has advanced southeast to Wyoming. The following maximum wind velocities occurred yesterday: North Head, 60 miles south; Tatoosh Island, 60 miles southwest; Seattle, 52 miles south. The heavy rains in this district have ceased, and, except in northwestern Oregon and western Washington, where showers are probable, fair weather will prevail in this district, with lower temperatures. The cold wave in Montana and the Dakotas is broken and the temperatures in that section have risen from 20 to 40 degrees during the last 24 hours. Cold weather, however, continues in the southern and eastern states, with temperatures from 10 to 20 degrees below normal.
