WEATHER REPORT.

A moderate disturbance is central this morning over Alberta. It has caused heavy rains on the strait of Fuca and moderately heavy rains in the sound country. Chinook conditions continue in eastern Oregon, eastern Washington, Idaho and Montana. Fair weather prevails generally elsewhere except in the Atlantic states, where light snow has fallen as far south as Norfolk, Virginia, and light rain has fallen in the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida. The indications are for showers Saturday in northwestern Oregon and western Washington and for fair weather in the remaining portion of this district. It will be cooler tonight in the Willamette valley and sound country and cooler Saturday in eastern Washington and northern Idaho.
