All the delights of a metropolitan dinner are enjoyed at the Sargent, Portland's magnificent family hotel, every Sunday evening. This elegant five-story stone and brick establishment, within a few months, under the management of Mr. Nicholas Sargent, known from ocean to ocean as one of the expert caterers of America, has taken first rank among the fashionable houses of the west, and Portland is constantly showing its appreciation of its excellence by flooding its dining-parlors with the first people of the city. This is espacially true of its Sunday evening dinners, when joyous and chatty parties may be seen gathered at its tables discussing the good things of this life as they partake of the delicacies always set before them. This patronage has grown so large that Mr. Sargent says he would be greatly aided in caring for his friends if those intending to dine at the Sargent on Sunday evening would telephone him on Saturday giving him the number of plates desired. The telephone number is East 291. Seven car lines pass the house, Grand and Hawthorne avenues, for all parts of the city, so that persons not caring for the 10 minutes' walk across the river can reach the house by electricity.

Fred Butler, the noted soloist who was with Dr. Chapman during his evangelistic campaign in Portland, arrived in the city last night with his wife. He will give a concert at the White Temple next Tuesday night, assisted by Mrs. Walter Reed and Miss Kathleen Lawler. Dr. Brougher will have something special to announce tomorrow to his people in regard to Mr. Butler's services at the White Temple. He will also announce his decision as to whether or not he will remain in Portland. He will preach tomorrow morning on "The Future of the White Temple," and tomorrow night on "A Man's Love—Is It Greater Than a Woman's?"

Edward Wertheimer died yesterday afternoon at the Good Samaritan hospital after a long illness. Mr. Wertheimer was one of the best-known citizens of Portland and had lived here since his childhood. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and was a brother of Fred, Julius, Sigmund, Samuel and Joseph Wertheimer, all of Portland. A sister, Mrs. Brunswick, lives in Indiana. The funeral will be held from the family residence, 31 North Park street. The date will not be fixed until Mrs. Brunswick has been notified of her brother's death.

A number of interesting copper coins are owned by Mrs. Laura Hicks of East Forty-first street and Transit avenue. They have been in her possession for 62 years and are illustrative of early coinage. One coin is a bank token of Montreal of 1832. Another is an American coin on which is printed "A Friend of America and Freedom—Lafayette." This coin has no denomination, but a date, 1834. Among the number is an old American copper of 1818. There are several others, all earlier than 1837.

The funeral of T. L. Dixon, the telegraph operator killed by a freight train in the terminal yards Thursday, was held this morning in the presence of a large number of friends. Beautiful floral decorations were received from employes of the Western Union office and from the Commercial Telegraphers' association, of which Dixon was a member. The pallbearers were: Charles Springer, E. E. Madden, H. Whitson, W. C. Schaubslager, Moody Smith and Hans Urdahl.

Roy Bodley, president of the South Mount Tabor Alumni association, presided last night at the closing exercises of the South Mount Tabor public school. Diplomas were presented to the following members of the graduating class: Austin Williams, Ernest Weygandt, Genevieve Boitano, Sophia Blohm, Dorothy Lewis, Grace Failing and Alma Bufton. An excellent musical and literary program was rendered.

The closing session of the convention of the Oregon and Washington district of the Missouri synod will be held at Zion German Lutheran church, Chapman and Salmon streets, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The congregation will hold its annual mission festival tomorrow at Hawthorne park with services at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. In case of rain services will be held at the church.

Closing exercises of the Portsmouth school were held yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Eliot of the Unitarian church gave the address. An appropriate program, consisting of music and recitations, was presented. Those graduating were Dottie Nash, Anna LeBolt, Anna Rhinemiller, Ida Larsen, Lillian Paulson, Gussie Singer, George Harris and Willis Sibray.

Graduates, teachers and principals of the Montavilla school for the past 16 years met in annual reunion at the schoolhouse last night. N. W. Bowland, principal, presided, and Professor J. D. Leatherman, the first principal, was the guest of honor. He organized the school and was its principal for 10 years. An interesting program was rendered.

In the county court this morning the will of Mary K. Howitt, a daughter of Plympton Kelly, was admitted to probate. Property valued at $9,450 is disposed of. To the husband, Thomas Howitt, is bequeathed in trust for their daughter, Bessie Howitt, 20 acres of the old Plympton Kelly donation land claim. The Methodist Episcopal church at Gresham is bequeathed $100, the public library at Gresham $25, and Maud Rowley $500. Ten acres of the Plympton Kelly claim are given to the husband, together with all the remainder of the estate property.

Holding that E. S. Merrill had not acted in good faith in offering to sell to Mary M. Gillett a lot for $12,000, Judge Gantenbein, in the circuit court this morning gave Mrs. Gillett judgment for damages from Merrill for breach of contract. It was held that Merrill had contracted to sell the lot to Mrs. Gillett, and that he could not convey title to it. Mrs. Gillett was given judgment for $2,000 that she had paid on the lot, and the rent of the property for 12 months, less taxes and interest.

The HAND OF FORTUNE

You will hear unsuccessful people talk a good deal about luck and fortune, but it is all bosh. Fortune is merely the good, hard sense that causes a man to prepare himself to take advantage of opportunity. Don't be fooled by silly tales of prosperity dealt out by the hand of fortune. The hand of fortune is a bank book and the person who has provided himself with a nice fat bank account is in position to carve his own fortune and make it what he wishes. It may take some economy, thrift and perseverance to establish a good bank balance, but it always pays in the end. A small amount of cash will enable you to open an account with this strong bank, where your money will be absolutely safe and you may always depend upon the advice and influence of the bank to help your business interests. We pay 3 per cent compound interest on savings.
