OUT of town guests have occasioned a good deal of entertaining for the dull season of the year. Almost everything given has been on an informal plan, but nevertheless those who still remain in town have been given opportunity to go out a great deal. Miss Talbot of New York, who is visiting her brother, Guy W. Talbot; Mrs. J. G. Edwards of Hay Creek, who is Mrs. Walter Burrell's guest; Miss Aveline Webster of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Harrison Corbett's sister and guest; Miss Ethel Rogers of South Greenfield, Mass., who is with Miss Genevieve Thompson; Miss Margaret Cobb, the guest of her schoolmate, Miss Kathleen Burns; Miss Sally Cross, Mrs. Lee Hoffman's guest; Mrs. West, a bride who has recently arrived for a short stay here; Miss Keast of Victoria, Mrs. Cookingham's guest, Miss Josephine Large and Miss Villa Whitney White, the Misses Ainsworth's guests, are among those for whom entertaining is being done. Mrs. Talbot's dance, Mrs. Allen Lewis' tea, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson's tea and Mrs. Walter V. Smith's bridge were all of some prominence.

On of the most enjoyable of the smaller affairs was given Friday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe in honor of their son George Clifford Coe, who is shortly to leave for Johns Hopkins Medical school. The guests were not informed what the evening's entertainment would be, but assembled at Merril's boathouse. When all had arrived the "Rose City" was headed up stream for the Rock Island club. Here Prasp's orchestra enlivened the evening with excellent music. At 10 o'clock the dancers sat down to supper, after which there was a farewell dance before returning home along the moonlit Willamette. The invitation list was made from Mr. Coe's old Portland academy and Stanford friends. Those invited were: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierke, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Portland society is deeply interested in the advent of a new matron who will join the ranks of married women next Wednesday and will soon after come to Portland to live. Miss Bessie Henry of San Jose will be married at her parents' home next Wednesday to C. Edward Grelle who has long been one of the most popular and prominent of Portland's young bachelors. Miss Henry has visited here, first as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, whose classmate she was at Stanford, and later as the guest of Mrs. Grelle, who was here spending part of the winter with her son. She was much entertained and proved a popular guest. In San Jose and San Luis Obispo, where she has lived in later years, she is a popular favorite.

Tuesday evening, prior to his departure Wednesday for California, Mr. Grelle entertained with a farewell bachelor dinner at Rock Island club. The guests were William H. Warrens, Jordan Zan, Chester G. Murphy, who, by the way, was another of Miss Henry's classmates, Albion Boody, David T. Honeyman, Walter Beebe, and W. B. Mackay, who is to be Mr. Grelle's best man at the wedding. The party went up the river in Mr. Murphy's launch, stopped en route at the Oaks for a swim and then went on to the club to dine.

Mrs. J. G. Edwards, a most attractive English matron who is visiting Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, has been the motif for a good deal of entertaining. Besides being an honor guest at Mrs. L. Allen Lewis' tea and at Mrs. Walter V. Smith's bridge party, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett gave a charming musicale for her Thursday afternoon. Miss Josephine Large, pianiste, and Miss Villa Whitney White, soprano, the talented instructors of the Portland Academy summer school of music, were the entertainers. Following the music tea was served in the garden by Miss May Failing.

Mrs. Burrell was hostess for her guest at two small dinners Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Howard and Captain Gordon Voorhies made up the party of six and Friday night Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baldwin and Frank L. Brown were the guests. Mr. Edwards is expected to arrive today from Hay Creek and Mrs. Burrell will give a supper for them tonight. They will return home in about a week.

★ ★

The Misses Mary, Jeanne and Grace Gray entertained about 60 of their friends at a garden party Wednesday evening at their attractive country home near Milwaukie. Miss Mary Howard, who left yesterday for her home in Washington, D. C., after a year's stay in Oregon, was the honor guest. The lawn was prettily illuminated with Japanese lanterns.
