MAT AND BOXING DATES SELECTED

Louis Orsie's Request for Reinstatement as Amateur Turned Down.

Dates for the interclub boxing and wrestling tournaments of the Seattle, Spokane and Multnomah Athletic clubs were selected yesterday afternoon at a meeting held in Portland. In all six meetings will be held, each club being host for two of them.

Portland will get the first tournament when the Seattle Athletic club meets Multnomah club in the local gymnasium. Then on December 4 Spokane and Seattle will take a try at the sport in Spokane. January 8 Spokane comes to Portland and January 29 Seattle and Spokane will go against each other in Seattle.

The first trip abroad of the local athletes will be taken to Spokane, February 26, and one month later, March 26, the winged "M" mitt and mat experts will meet the Seattle biffers and grapplers in Seattle.

The coast championships which were held by the Multnomah club last season will go to Seattle, being held some time during the progress of the A.-Y.-P. fair. Very likely the plan adopted during the Lewis and Clark fair here in 1905 will be followed out by Seattle. This will mean holding two different tournaments, one each for boxers and wrestlers.

Orsie Turned Down.

The registration committee of the Pacific Northwest association of the Amateur Athletic union, which met also, had little to do. About the only thing that came up of importance was denying the application of Louis Orsie, the crack Spokane boxer, for reinstatement to amateur ranks.

Orsie professionalized himself around Spokane last spring by boxing with a professional pugilist. Under the rules of the A. A. U. Orsie cannot be reinstated for a period of two years. The Seattle and Portland delegates sprung the following section of the rules when the matter was brought up:

"No application for reinstatement to full amateur status shall be entertained unless the applicant shall have abstained from all professional conduct for two years, and can be acted upon only at a meeting of the Amateur Athletic union or of the board of governors."

Spokane's delegate, Fred Blomberg, made no effort to press the request for Orsie's reinstatement, having brought it up on behalf of the young boxer himself.

FIRE AND MUSIC TO STIR VARSITY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 13.—The first big rally of the season will be held on Kincaid field next Friday night and plans are being formed to make it the largest and most enthusiastic rally ever held at the university. A large pile of old barrels and waste material has been secured from several of the contractors who are constructing large buildings and the freshmen will provide an immense bonfire. Addresses will be made by Honorable S. H. Friendly, "Pat" McArthur, President Campbell and others prominent in university affairs.

A feature of the rally will be the first appearance of the newly formed university band which will lead the parade through town. The band has been practicing faithfully every night and is improving wonderfully.

The presence of many of the alumni, especially the members of the team, will also be a great drawing card.

The alumni team will be one of the strongest that has ever been together at Oregon and should the varsity win it will be due to the lack of time in which to practice together.

Reads Like All-Northwest.

Among those who will turn out are: McKinney, Templeton, Hug, Kerron, Latourette, Earl, Chandler, Moores, Zacharius, Arnspiger and McClains. With Kerron, McKinney, Latourette and Templeton in the back field, Hug at center, Moores and Chandler at ends and a line such as the rest will form, the varsity team will have its hands full. The "Grads" are expected to arrive within a few days in order to practice.

The game between the "babes" and the West Portland High will also be a fast one, as the freshmen have been practicing hard in order to make a good showing.

AMERICAN MARKSMEN BEAT CONNAUGHT'S MEN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 13.—Remarkable shooting was done yesterday by a team picked from the Second infantry, Washington national guard, which in the face of climatic odds and with the highest score ever made by a rifle team off a western range, defeated for the third successive time a team representing the Duke of Connaught's own regiment, Sixth Canadian rifles, of Vancouver, B. C.

The international contest which occurred at the American Lake rifle range won for the Americans the championship of the Pacific coast and a $500 loving cup.

The official score:

Possible score, 2,500; second infantry, 2,315; sixth Canadian rifles, 2,256.

The official rifle records of the world are not available, but it is the belief of the officers that the score may prove to be a new world's record. Both teams made the highest scores ever recorded in the northwest.

Captain J. M. Curry of North Yakima broke the individual record established during the recent Olympic games at London. His total score was 241 out of a possible 250.

Multnomah Club Has Box.

One of the largest boxes at the horse show has been set aside for the Multnomah club, and Manager Woodward announces that any of the members who wish to occupy it during the show can make reservations at the club. It will be handsomely decorated during the show.

COLD WEATHER ADVICE

To all is to beware of coughs and colds on the chest; as neglected they readily lead to pneumonia, consumption or other pulmonary troubles. Just as soon as the cough appears treat it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup, the standard cure of America. Use as directed—perfectly harmless. A cure and preventive for all diseases of the lungs. Sold by Skidmore Drug Co. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

LEE'S DONAX IS THE SENSATION

Trotter Made Into Pacer in Six Weeks Has Mark of 2:09 1-4.

What is regarded as one of the most remarkable harness horses developed around Portland in years is Donax, the 6-year-old son of Alondra-Ida Dolan, a transformed pacer, owned by M. E. Lee, a young real estate operator and practically a novice at the racing game. Last week at North Yakima Donax established a mark of 2:09¼ as a pacer, and were not the season to close in the northwest in the next few days he would probably turn the circuit in still shorter time.

Three months previous to September 7, the opening date of the Seattle race meet, Donax never knew what it was to haul a sulky. He is a gentle animal and Mr. Lee used him as a family driving horse. He is a big, beautiful chestnut gelding with a great heart. He could travel handily along the streets and suburban drives and could show his heels to most all of the driving horses in the little brushes Mr. Lee had with his friends.

Looked Like 2:20 Horse.

Some men experienced in the ways of harness races finally induced Mr. Lee to put him on the northwest circuit this spring. They said he might amount to a 2:20 horse or thereabouts, since his methodical, even leg action was promising.

Three months before he was put in the training stable, Donax was a trotter. He had always been a trotter. For six weeks the trainers tried to increase his speed to a perceptible margin. It was not encouraging. He showed signs of being double gaited. They were quick to see the advantage of it. Then they hooked a set of pacing hobbles on him. After a few rounds of the track he took to the new style like a duck to water. They nursed him along till he was showing great bursts of speed. His trainer and others wanted to keep on with the training work, but Mr. Lee thought competition would be the best school for Donax. So to school he went after being out of the kindergarten but six weeks.

Transformation Apparent.

The complete transformation of Donax was apparent when he came out on the field in the Portland races on Friday of the meet. Previously he has forced the winner to go some at Seattle and Salem in the 2:25 classes. Around the track under forced draught Donax looked a bit awkward, but it was probably due more to the unusually long side-wheel strides he was taking.

In that race, the 2:25 class, Donax compelled Tom Murphy, a California horse, to cover the mile in 2:09½, which was considered to be one of the most remarkable showings of the meeting. In North Yakima Donax supplanted Tom Murphy at the head of the division and established his new mark.

Next year this trotter-pacer should be one of the sensations of the north coast turf.

KILL THREE DEER ON ALBANY'S DOORSTEP

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olbany, Or., Oct. 13.—A rather remarkable incident occurred Saturday and Sunday when three deer were killed within a few miles of this city. Hunters who have been in the mountains report a hard time in making any kind of a killing, but in these cases but very little exertion was wasted.

The first deer was killed on the Dickson farm by Will Dickson. Another was killed Sunday at North Lawson, a fine black tailed fellow, on the farm of T. L. Dugger. Ralph Crawford was the lucky hunter. The other was killed near Taliman on the Swank farm.

There is much speculation as to the cause of these animals leaving their old-time haunts and coming down into the valley, especially this time of the year.

JACK OWSLEY IS HELPING OREGON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 13.—"Jack" Owsley of Seattle, the famous Yale back, arrived in Eugene yesterday and was out in the afternoon assisting Coach Forbes. He will remain here several days and will pay special attention to the development of the backfield. Owsley was head coach at Yale in 1905 and his assistance will be exceedingly valuable.

Two new men have registered in the university who have the reputation of being good players. Mackintosh of Oly being good players. Mackintosh of Olympia and Inman of Alaska. Both have played under the new rules in their "prep" schools.

Hayes has been added to the training table. He is playing a good game at end and is improving steadily. There are now ten men on the table. McIntyre's name was at first placed on the list but he has not been doing as well as he did at first, so he was dropped for a time.

The team is getting into good shape now and will be ready for the alumni game Saturday. It is probable that all of the promising candidates will be given a chance in that game and that the squad on the training table will be increased next week.

This Date in Sport Annals.

1870—Off Sandy Hook, N. Y., yacht Dauntless beat the Cambria in 40-mile ocean race.

1876—George E. ("Rube") Waddell, pitcher of the St. Louis Browns, born at Bradford, Pa.

1884—At New York, Dominick McCaffrey given decision over Charlie Mitchell in four-round bout.

1898—The American yacht Vigilant won the third race in a series of five for the America cup off Sandy Hook, defeating the British yacht Valkyrie and winning the match.

1903—At Boston, Joe Walcott won from "Kid" Carter in 15 rounds.

1904—At St. Louis, Tommy Sullivan given the decision over Abe Attell in five rounds, winning the featherweight championship.

MISS HUTCHESON MAKING A HIT

Miss Gertrude Hutcheson.

Miss Gertrude Hutcheson who is singing the prima donna role in the "A Knight for a Day" company, has made a distinct hit with the musical patrons of the Heilig. Miss Hutcheson displays wonderful talent as a coloratura soprano for a young woman.

SAYS REPUBLICANS KEEP GOOD TIMES

R. R. Butler of Condon addressed the members of the Sunnyside Taft club last night at Hunter's hall and in company with Judge J. E. Magers, led one of the most largely attended Republican rallies held so far during the campaign, with the exception of the Beveridge meeting at the Armory.

Mr. Butler in his address spoke of the history of the Republican and Democratic parties and advanced the same arguments which have been made for some time regarding the retention of prosperity by the people through the retention of the Republican administration. He is an eloquent speaker and won much applause during his address. Judge Magers also discussed national issues at some length.

Mr. Butler is now on his way to southern Oregon where he will make a tour of the district, beginning with an address at Ashland tonight.

WHY IS STOVALL ALWAYS MISSED?

Cleveland's Great First Baseman Is an Oregon and Coast Product.

Wonder why it is that all the scribes east and west overlook one of the best bets of the season, when they recount the diamond stars who have gone from the Pacific coast to the major leagues and who have stayed there? They tell you of Frank Chance, the peerless leader; Hal Chance, the most sensational first baseman, but never a line about George Stovall, the great first sacker of the Cleveland club of the American league. Stovall should be claimed as a coast product. His home is near Seattle, he had his training in the old inland empire league, playing with Pendleton and Walla Walla, then had a few weeks toward the end of the season of 1908 with Portland, and afterward went to Cleveland.

• •

Last season Stovall had hard luck, finishing with a batting average of .236 and a fielding average of .983, being tied with Jones of St. Louis and Anderson of Washington for third place. This year the big fellow has batted around the .290 mark, being second only to Rossman of Detroit of the American first basemen. He is ahead of such fellows as Unglaud with .288, Jebell with .261, Freeman with .253, Stahl with .248, T. Jones with .247, Davis with .243, Moriarity with .228, and Jiggs Donahue with .209.

• •

When Ty Cobb, Detroit's outfielder, and champion batsman of the American league, secured four hits yesterday out of five times up he undoubtedly established a new record in a world's championship games. At any rate, it is a new record for the Chicago-Detroit championships. Last year in the games Rossman and Coughlin of Detroit and Steinfeldt and Evers of Chicago got three hits each out of four times up. Cobb's batting yesterday was at an .800 per cent rate.

• •

Bill Burns of Washington, last year with Los Angeles, has returned to his native heath, with a story to the effect that the Los Angeles team, as it is now playing would finish well to the top of the second division in either big league. Bill also says Washington will have one of the best pitching staffs in the American league next season. This is natural, since Bill himself, Walter Johnson, Bobby Groom, the Portland twirler, and Dolly Gray of the Angels will be on the firing line.

• •

Although Portland is not playing the baseball put up by Los Angeles—not yet—still more men will go from the Beavers to the big league this year than from any other team. Portland has twice as many as San Francisco, three more than Oakland and two more than Los Angeles, provided Easterly is not taken by Chicago. Some record, eh? when the team is trying its best to keep above the .500 mark, and the Angels are leading by some 75 points. Raftery, Danzig, Madden and Groom go from Portland; Ellis, Gray, Easterly, probable, from Los Angeles; Sutor and Zeider from San Francisco and Wright from Oakland.

• •

Portland opens up with the Seals in San Francisco this afternoon for a week's series, after which the Beavers cross over to Oakland for another week. Against the Seals the Oregonians should put a good-sized jackscrew under their percentage.

AT THE THEATRES

Music and Fun at Heilig Tonight.

The attraction at the Heilig theatre tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 will be the merry musical comedy "A Knight for a Day." This is one of the funniest and most brilliant musical offerings that Portland has had this season. The principals are excellent and the chorus is pretty and can both sing and dance.

Clever Howards at Orpheum.

Eugene and Willie Howard, two clever youngsters, are at the Orpheum in a singing and dancing comedy. Their little act "The Hebrew Messenger Boy and the Thespian" is a melange of songs, humorous dialogue and clever parodies. All of the material they use is of their own writing.

Grand Opera at Pantages.

The greatest singing aggregation in vaudeville is the Zingari troupe of eight operatic vocalists at the Pantages theatre this week, presenting the dainty operatic novelty "Gypsy Life." This act, which has won much praise throughout the east, is composed of selections from well known operas.

Minstrels at the Baker.

There are a lot of big laughs let loose every night this week at the Baker theatre, for the world famous Richards & Pringle's minstrels are here with all the newest jokes, prettiest songs and sweet toned singers. The olio is said to be one of the best ever seen here. Matinees Thursday and Saturday.

Greatest Play in Portland.

There have been 21 performances of "The Girl of the Golden West," given by the Baker stock company at the Bungalow. Those who intend to attend should secure seats at once. Positively last time Saturday night. Curtain at 8 sharp.

"The Rocky Mountain Express."

What is more interesting in a theatrical way than a play with a consistent plot, many heavy mechanical contrivances, scenery of great beauty, a company that can correctly carry out the ideas of the author's characters. Such a production is the new Kilmt & Gaxxolo Amusement company's melodrama "The Rocky Mountain Express," which is the attraction at the Star theatre all this week.

"Clansman" Seats Selling.

Seats are now selling at the boxoffice of the Heilig theatre for the widely discussed and historically correct drama, "The Clansman," which will be the attraction at the above theatre for three nights beginning next Thursday, October 15. A special price matinee will be given next Saturday afternoon.

Grand's New Bill.

At the Grand today there is a new vaudeville bill, one of the kind which Sullivan & Considine know how to gather from the four corners of the earth. The Sisters Ullerone, recently featured by Barnum & Bailey, have the headline position with their remarkable performance on a revolving globe. "The Actress and the Porter" by Noble and Brooks, is a feature.

Governor Hughes to Speak.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Governor Hughes has promised to deliver an address before the New York State Christian Endeavor convention, which assembled for a three-days' session in the Emmanual Baptist church today. Other speakers of prominence to be heard are Dr. Parkes Cadman of Brooklyn, Von Ogden Vogt of New York city, Don O. Shelton and "Gypsy" Smith, the noted evangelist.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the Civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at all druggists.
