Exhibit Postoffice for Seattle.—A complete postoffice will leave Portland for Seattle May 5. It will include a stamp window, a money order department, a mailing division; all that goes to make up a local postal service, including clerks and carriers. This is the postoffice that Uncle Sam uses to demonstrate his mailing system with. It was first used at the St. Louis exposition, then brought to Portland and used in the Lewis and Clark exposition. Since the close of the Lewis and Clark exposition that postoffice has reposed in the basement of the local postoffice, very much dismembered. It will be taken to Seattle in boxes, then set up on the exposition grounds ready for use. A special representative of the postoffice department at Washington will accompany the outfit and have charge of its installation at the fair.

Police Investigate Stickers.—The origin of little yellow stickers with the legend "Fire the Jap" printed on them, all bearing the union label, is a puzzle to the police. These pasters have been put up on numerous telegraph poles, windows, buildings and even on the interior of buildings. Whoever is doing this does not discriminate, as the pasters have been placed in large numbers on business houses which employ no Japanese labor. The stickers were also placed around Astoria in large number. There, it is stated, the person putting up the signs, placed them particularly on the houses where Japs were employed. The local police have been instructed to look out for the man who is putting up the stickers.

Tied in Sack by Friend.—John Swanson, found yesterday in the Grand rooming house at Third and Couch streets with his hands tied and a sack pulled over his head and in a drunken condition, is evidently the victim of a practical joke. Swanson states that he had been drinking with a fellow countryman by the name of Olson, whom he had met on several occasions, and that together they went to the Grand rooming house and went to bed. He then drifted into a deep slumber and when he was awakened by the police found his hands tied. He says he had $1.65 with him when he went into the rooming house, all of which was gone when he awoke. Swanson does not know where Olson may be located.

Corbett Executors Report—Receipts of $232,444 and expenditures of $253,991 in the last six months are reported by Emma L. Corbett, Elliott R. Corbett and W. C. Alvord, executrix and executors of the Henry W. Corbett estate. Their twelfth semi-annual account, showing these figures, has been filed in the county court. The cash on hand is now reduced to $7588, having amounted to over $29,000 at the last report. Legacies to the amount of $43,859 have been paid and $81,000 expended in improvements and real estate operations. From real estate sales and rents $125,000 has been received.

Julius Ordway Ill.—Julius Ordway, prominent in business circles of this city for the past 25 years, is seriously ill at his home, 300 Crosby street, from a combination of heart and stomach trouble. He is under the attendance of his physician and is now said to be resting easily, although it is not yet known how the illness will terminate. He was stricken suddenly while out attending to his timber interests and when brought back to the city was completely prostrated. His condition is now said to be somewhat improved, although he is still very weak.

Civil Service Examinations.—An examination in the civil service will be given May 19 to secure eligibles to fill a vacancy in the bureau of engraving and printing at Washington, D. C., in the capacity of apprentice plate cleaner, transferer and engraver at $500 per annum. An examination will be held June 2 for the position of game law clerk (male), at $1800 per annum in the bureau of biological survey department of agriculture. For both these examinations application should be made to Z. A. Leigh at the postoffice.

Wants Land for Ditch—Condemnation proceedings were instituted in the federal court yesterday by the Hood River Irrigation company against George W. McCoy. The application is for permission to cross the defendant's land with an irrigating ditch, the plaintiff representing that it is ready to pay damages in the sum of $12,000 for the concession. This suit is one of a number which the irrigation company has found it necessary to bring in order to secure a complete right of way for its waterway.

Files Will of Wife Long Dead.—John H. Hall has filed in the county court the will of his wife, Olive I. Hall, who died in October, 1893, nearly 16 years ago. The value of the property is placed at $37,000, and all of it goes to the husband, who is executor of the will. The property consists of 162 acres of land worth $30,000 and two lots in Lane's addition placed at $7000. The will was witnessed by L. B. Gordon, now Mrs. L. B. Bush, and I. A. Mills, whose address is now unknown.

Charged With Drunkenness.—Charles Van Duyn, a young man of good appearance, was arrested again last night on a charge of drunkenness. Van Duyn has just completed a five-days' turn in the city jail and has been arrested several times during the last few weeks. Judge Van Zante postponed sentence until he could investigate the connections of the young man and see if there is any possible way that he can be induced to stop drinking.

Idleman Loses Salary—Mayor Lane yesterday vetoed an ordinance authorizing the payment of $225 to C. M. Idleman, an employe in the park department who has been incapacitated for several months by illness. The mayor says that the council had no right to pass such an ordinance without the knowledge of the park department, and he suggests that in future it might be just as well to let the park board attend to its own affairs.

Important for Everybody.—White Lily fancy flour patent, per barrel, $5.80; White Lily flour, fancy patent, per sack, $1.50; Washburn Crosby Co's. Gold Medal flour, per barrel, $7.10; Washburn Crosby Co's. Gold Medal flour, per sack $1.85; olive oil at great reduced prices; Juno Coffee three pounds for $1. Tanaka Is Sane.—Geroo Tanaka, the young Jap who was arrested on a charge of making an attempt to break into Elton court, was returned to the municipal court by the lunacy commission today. Tanaka had been taken before the commission to be examined as to his sanity but was reported perfectly sane. On motion of Deputy District Attorney Hennessy, the state charge against him was dismissed and a city charge of disorderly conduct was placed against him. He pleaded guilty to this charge and was sentenced to 90 days in jail and fined $100.

Church Celebrates Birthday.—The First United Presbyterian congregation of Portland has just rounded out 25 years of its existence. This event will be marked by the opening for preaching services tomorrow of the new auditorium, corner Sixth and Montgomery streets. Rev. Frank D. Findley of Seattle will preach both morning and evening. An invitation is extended the public to be present.

A meeting of the Portland Seamen's Friend society will be held on Friday, May 14, 1909, at 4 p. m., at 244 Stark street, for the purpose of changing the by-laws and executing supplemental articles of incorporation. E. Quackenbush, president.

COAST CITIES WILL BE AIDED

Plan to Bring Here Japanese Business Men's Excursion Is Generally Indorsed.

L. Gerlinger, in a report which he will submit to the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday on the results of his recent eastern trip, will set forth the fact that practically every railroad in the United States, nearly all the larger commercial bodies and a number of the larger manufacturing firms will join in contributing toward the entertainment of the Japanese business men and trade experts who will visit this country next fall.

Mr. Gerlinger returned the early part of this week from a trip to St. Paul, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, where, with E. F. Blaine and J. D. Lowman, representing the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and F. E. Goodall, president of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, he perfected plans for the entertainment of the Japanese party.

The representatives of the chambers of commerce were accompanied to Washington, D. C., by James J. Hill and Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific, and with them had an audience with President W. H. Taft and R. A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior. Mr. Gerlinger had luncheon with Senator George E. Chamberlain.

In Philadelphia the party was entertained at a banquet by the Pennsylvania railroad officials, who promised elaborate entertainment for the Japanese party. In New York E. H. Harriman and a representative of J. Pierpont Morgan promised their aid, as did the heads of such large manufacturing institutions as the United States Steel corporation and the International Harvester company.

Favors were extended to the representatives of the coast commercial bodies at every hand. Practically the entire trip through the east was made in private cars and banquets and dinners were given for them in every city they visited.

"Everyone to whom we talked promised to exert every effort to give the Japanese party a fitting entertainment," declared Mr. Gerlinger today. "We hope to give them as elaborate entertainment as they gave the representatives of our chambers of Commerce."

Fifteen Japanese business men and a like number of Japanese trade experts have been invited by the Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and Portland chambers of commerce to visit the United States in September. The entire party including the wives and families of the delegates, will probably number about 50. They will be taken all over the country on special trains, after having been entertained in the coast cities.
