MULLIN'S STICK TURNS THE TRICK

Big First Sacker Bats 1000 —Pitcher Most Knocked From the Box.

Hard and timely hitting by "Red" Mullin in particular and by Jimmy Adams and Tom Murray in lesser quantities together with good pitching by Big Eddie Kinsella and almost perfect fielding behind Kinsella, gave Portland another well earned victory over Aberdeen yesterday, 8 to 1. The Colts hammered Most out of the box and hit Shelgon Le Jeune almost as hard.

Portland got her first run in the very first inning on some nice work by Bassey on the bases and Mullin's first two bagger. Bassey worked Most for a base on balls after Cooney and Casey had been retired and with a most pleasing readiness stole second. Mullin then drove one far over Swalm's head, scoring Bassey. Garry popped out ending the inning.

Another run came in the second on Adams' single, Murphy's sacrifice and Murray's long two bagger. After Cooney struck out to start the third inning Bassey drew another base on balls and came clear around on Mullin's second two base wallop to left field. Garry singled, sending Mullin to third and reaching second himself on the throw in. A wild pitch scored Mullin and placed Garry on third, whence he scored on Jimmy Adams' two bagger. Jimmy was out trying to stretch his hit into a triple.

We missed an inning then but added two in the fifth when Cooney was hit by one of Le Jeune's slants, was sacrificed by Bassey and moved up another notch on Mullin's single. Garry walked, filling the bases, and on Adams' long sacrifice fly Cooney scored. Mullin scored when Moore juggled Murphy's grounder, but Garry was out at the plate trying to score on this same play.

Mullin scored the last run of the game on his single, a couple of infield misplays and a steal. Aberdeen's tally came on three little infield taps by Campbell, Swalm and Bewer.

OREGON AGGIES WIN FROM SALEM SCHOOL

Salem, Or., May 22.—The Oregon "Aggies" cleaned up the Salem High school in a game on the home grounds yesterday by the score of 8 to 1. Rieben, pitcher for the Agricultural college, had the high school baters mystified, while on the other hand the farmers pounded out all kinds of hits from singles to "homers" almost at will.

Keene, who last year pitched for the high school, played first base for O. A. C. against his former teammates. The high school players got tangled several times throughout the game and did not put up their usual class of ball. The collegians played ball every minute.

The lineup follows: O. A. C.—Rieben, p.; Moore, c.; Keene, 1b.; Horton, 2b.; Davis, 3b.; Coess, ss.; Carroll, lf.; Keck, cf.; Phillips, rf.

BEAVERS FALL DOWN ON TEXAN

Garrett Pitches Great Ball but Errors Rob Him of Game.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Los Angeles, May 22.—Los Angeles took the fourth straight game from Portland yesterday, through the errors of the northerners, 3 to 2. Garrett pitched a splendid game for the Beavers and deserved a victory. He held the Angels down to five scattered hits. Portland copped seven bingles off Tozer.

Los Angeles made her three runs in the fourth inning. Beall started by walking and Howard sacrificed him to second. Then Smith went out, Hogan to Kennedy. Delmas was hit by a pitched ball, and stole second. Armbruster throwing wide. Beall scored on this heave. Dillon got life at first on Olson's error, on which Delmas scored. Dillon stole second and went to third when the ball hit him and bounded off. Ort juggled Orendorff's high bounder and Dillon scored.

Olson doubled for Portland in the sixth and came home on Johnson's single. In the eighth the Beavers tried hard again. Ryan smashed out a three bagger and scored on Olson's single. Things looked bad when the bases were filled on walks to Johnson and Breen. Dillon chased Tozer and sent Nagle in to finish up. Graney bunted a third strike and was out. Kennedy forced Olson at home and Armbruster flew to Godwin.

Roy Willett, coaching for Portland, and Jud Smith swapped punches in the sixth and Smith was chased out of the game.

BIG WEEK AMONG LOVERS OF RING

Four Championships Are to Be Decided on Both Continents.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, May 22.—Next week promises, if all the schedules are lived up to, to be the busiest week for the fighters in the history of the game. Four championships are to be decided—two on this side of the Atlantic and two in England—and in addition to this a number of top notcher boxers are carded to exchange biffs.

The trouble will start in London, Monday night, when Sam Langford meets Iron Hague before the National Sporting club, for the heavyweight championship of England. This mill was substituted for the Langford-Johnson fight, which Johnson ran out of. Hague is a big, strong fellow, but slow of brain and foot and should be pie for Langford. Hague has a terrific wallop, but a man of Langford's speed should experience no trouble in getting by it. Hague's most notable performance was the knocking out of Gunner Moir in one round. It took Tommy Burns 10 rounds to put the crusher on this same Moir.

On the same night and before the same club Digger Stanley and little Jimmy Walsh, who is well known to California fight fans, having fought Jimmy Reagan of Oakland and Monte Attell in San Francisco, will fight for the bantamweight championship of England. This will be their fourth meeting. Walsh lost a 15 round decision to Stanley in London, April 18, 1904, and two months later fought him to a 15 round draw. Their third meeting took place in Chelsea, Mass., October 20, 1905, Walsh taking the decision after 20 rounds of fast fighting.

On this side of the water the ball will be started rolling by Mike (Twin) Sullivan and Kyle Whitney, who fight in San Francisco Tuesday night for the welterweight championship of the world. On the same night and before the same club Jockey Bennett and Jimmy Reagan, the latter a serious contender for the bantamweight honors, will step 15 rounds.

Boston will also be the scene of a high class batfle on Tuesday night when Freddie Welsh, who has been after Battling Nelson's scalp for a year or more, meets Phil Brock, the sturdy Cleveland lightweight, who has shown considerable class since his invasion of the far east. Welsh and Brock are scheduled to go 12 rounds.

Kansas City, not to be outdone, will get on the pugilistic map on the same evening, Ad Wolgast, the Milwaukee featherweight, who has been doing considerable fighting in Los Angeles, hooking up with Teddy Peppers.

Two nights later, in the same city, Packy McFarland will bandy blows with either Jimmy Devine or Harry Trendall.

The big show is reserved for Saturday, when Battling Nelson and Dick Hyland start on a 45 round journey for the lightweight championship of the world at the Mission arena.

On the night of the last day in the week Johnny Frayne, one of California's best lightweights, and Frankie Neil, ex-bantam champion of the world, are billed to fight boys of their class in the east.

All in all the week promises to be a hummer and may develop new champions.

This Date in Sport Annals.

1878—At Fleetwood Park, N. Y., Francis Peralto rode 305 miles in 14 hours 31 minutes.

1884—On the Nepean river, Australia, Edward Hanlan defeated E. C. Laycock in scullers' match for $5000 and championship of the world.

1885—At San Francisco, Charlie Mitchell and Mike Cleary went four rounds; police interfered and bout declared a draw.

1891—At Cambridge, Mass., J. P. Lee, amateur, ran 120 yards, over hurdles in 24 4-5 seconds, breaking record.

1893—At Chicago, McKean of the Cleveland team, accepted all of 15 chances at shortstop in a game with the Chicago club.

REFEREE GRANT RUNS FROM SALEM CROWD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, Or., May 22.—Salem fans got a close range view of the inner workings of the wrestling game "and how she is played" at the opera house last night, when after a few minutes' jockeying Referee Grant declared two bouts forfeited to Dan Sullivan because Eddie O'Connell, he said, used the strangle hold, which was barred. As a result the admirers of the game in Salem today are not anxious to put up their hard earned "cash" to secure matches.

Had it not been for two snappy preliminaries those who paid admission would have received absolutely nothing for their coin. As it was, disgusted and angry fans threatened to mob the referee and it was necessary for him to jump from the stage and make a dash for the door to escape. The promoters in Salem refused to turn the gate receipts over to the managers and the district attorney promises an investigation.

One bout lasted almost 12 minutes, O'Connell was the aggressor every minute, while Sullivan drew in like a turtle and squealed whenever O'Connell made a motion toward his neck. The referee called everything a strangle hold and announced finally that the match was forfeited to Sullivan because O'Connell had persisted in using it. Afterward he thought better of it and allowed the bout only to go to Sullivan.

The second bout was like the first except that it lasted only about five minutes and was a little more raw. Sullivan shut himself up like a clam and was always on the defensive. O'Connell was the favorite with the audience.

When the Salem promoters could not prevail upon Grant to call off the bets they ordered the stakeholders not to pay over the money and the gate receipts were "tied up."

Last night's match promises to be the last for Salem for some time.

KRANTZ SWINGS ON UMPIRE FOR DECISION

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oakland, Cal., May 22.—"The least he should have done was to make it a draw," so say the fans who saw the bout between Terry Keller and Kid Krantz at the West Oakland club last night. There are those who say that Referee Simpson should have awarded the fight to Krantz. At any rate a draw decision would have been popular.

During the first few rounds Keller simply ate up his opponent, having every advantage over him, and he put him on his knees a couple of times but with a rally that surprised even the oldest fans, Krantz came to and handed Keller such a walloping in the last round that the onlookers figured that he had the best of the fight. Keller was all but out.

Krantz after the decision was rendered queered himself with the local fans by striking the referee.

The other scraps furnished plenty of amusement and were good. Brooks, the Portland welterweight who modestly calls himself the "champion of America," could do nothing but a draw with "The K. C. Terror," Jack O'Shaughnessy.

Charley Riley earned the decision he got over Willie Ritchie after the boys went six fast rounds.

Johnny McCarthy put one over on Paddy Ellis, the Alameda Cyclone, that proved a haymaker and while both boys lasted the limit the decision given McCarthy was deserved.

Miller and Patrick fought a draw.

Racing Begins in Canada.

Six races were on today's card, including the famous King's Plate. The meeting will continue until June 5.
