Newport

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Newport, Or., Aug. 14.—Crowds continue to arrive at Newport. Many of the hotels are overrun with guests. All the cottages are occupied and hundreds of tents are brought into use. Tenting is one of the great features of Newport. Without a season's experience, one does not know how to appreciate her fragrant pine groves, and the pure spring water. At the height of the season nearly one-third of the population is housed in tents.

The demand for lumber is much more than the supply from the local mills. It is reported that extensive repairs on the Spruce Lumber company mill at Toledo will soon be completed, and the mill will soon be put in operation to furnish lumber to the local market.

The past week might properly be called "railroad week" at Newport. The representatives of three large companies have been busy looking over the field of future operations—Superintendent J. P. O'Brien of the Southern Pacific, E. E. Lytle of the Tillamook road, and Mr. Spaulding of the Spaulding Logging company.

Mr. O'Brien expressed his intention to extend the road from Yaquina to Newport at an early date. It is reported by those who say they know that Mr. Lytle will build his road south to Siletz and connect with the northern terminus of the Corvallis & Eastern, thus making a coast line for passenger traffic, and passing through the largest belt of timber on the coast.

The Spaulding people have taken an option on a desirable tract for a terminal ground and passenger depot. Their object is to secure a deep water transportation for the output of their mills at Salem, Newberg and other places in the valley. They expect to have the road completed in a short time. They have just commenced operating the first of their new motor cars for the passenger traffic, and it gives perfect satisfaction. It will not be long until Newport will have a six hour passenger service from Portland.

Mr. Daily and party from Portland arrived in their auto touring car. They seem to be having a jolly time, and report the road fairly good.

The Presbyterian church could not accommodate the crowd that assembled for the morning service. Mrs. Hinges of Salem rendered two beautiful sacred songs.

The ladies of the Catholic church gave a very profitable and enjoyable entertainment at the Irvin Park clubhouse Wednesday last. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, the electric lights were subdued with china lanterns, the literary program was fine, and the refreshments delicious.

Registered at Irwin House.
