CHILDREN TO SEE NATION'S RULER

Mayor Simon Plans to Have the Youngsters See President.

Twenty thousand school children will gather in a body to greet President Taft when he visits Portland October 2, if the plans of Mayor Simon can be carried out. The mayor will ask the board of school directors to make arrangements so that the pupils of the Portland public schools may be assembled on the Plaza blocks on the morning of Saturday, October 2, when the presidential party passes on its sightseeing tour over the city.

"I have not asked the president to address the school children," said Mayor Simon yesterday, "because I do not want to add to his worries at present. He will have enough of them in connection with deciding his itinerary and other details incident to his western tour.

"But when the president arrives I think the reception committee can arrange it so the children can see the nation's ruler and perhaps hear him. It is possible that the president may be prevailed upon to make a brief address.

"My idea would be to have the school children assemble on the Plaza blocks to be reviewed by the president on his motor trip over the city. I will communicate with the school authorities in the course of the next few days, in an effort to make arrangements to the end suggested.

"The reception committee will meet Monday to complete the program for the reception of President Taft during his two days' visit here, Saturday and Sunday, October 2 and 3.

"The committee in charge of the banquet to be given to the president at the Portland hotel Saturday evening will, I suppose, make out the invitation list, but that is a detail which has as yet received no consideration."

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. T. S. Linscott

[Ministers, Sunday school teachers and others interested are invited to write The Journal briefly their views as to the worth of these "questions," particularly if they consider them of value in their work.]

The International Newspaper Bible Study club is for the purpose of promoting in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a local club, and take up the simple course herein outlined, barring only ordained clergymen. All who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and to compete for the prizes.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes, and the back questions may be obtained by addressing this office.

This paper has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly in both the Saturday and Sunday issues of The Journal. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

Conditions of the Contest.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to this paper, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study club and this local club.

2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing Sunday, March 14, and the answers must all be in the possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed 200 words in length and may be less. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer.

4. The answers must be delivered to this office, and they will be collated at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study club.

The Prizes.

First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.

Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.

Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.

Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50, to each of the next 35 contestants.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded and in like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.

All who can write and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoned ideas.

Paul on Christian Love—I Cor. 13:1-13.

Golden Text—And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three, but the greatest of these is love, I Cor. 13-13.

Verse 1—What is the utmost which can be claimed for the gift of eloquence?

Why is an eloquent man without love like a brass band with cymbal accompaniments?

Will eloquence without love make a man acceptable to God?

Verse 2—Is there any necessary moral praise due to a man who has the gift of prophecy and has intuitive knowledge of mystery?

Is there any more necessary praise to be accorded to a big man than to a little man?

If God gives a man the faith so he can remove a mountain and he at the same time is without love, what good is the faith to him?

Verse 3—Do some people give liberally and suffer personal inconvenience, who have no real love in their hearts, and if so, what is it which prompts to these acts?

If a man gives when it can be seen, and does not give when it cannot be seen, is there any love in his heart, or any real merit in his charity?

Should the church refuse to accept of money for the gospel or for charity, from those who clearly give to be seen of men?

Do those who give without love, but to be seen of men, reap any benefit from it, or does it hurt them?

Can you conceive of a man giving his body to be burned for his religion with an impure motive, or without love in his heart?

What is the only thing which recommends us to God in and of itself?

Verses 4-7—What proof can you give that love is long suffering and kind?

If we really love a person will we ever speak of him to his injury, no matter what the provocation may be?

What is it in love, which tends to patience, politeness, kindness, gentleness and humility?

May a person be controlled by love and be envious at the same time, and if not, why not?

Does love always make a man think of "the other fellow" before himself?

What does love take all its pleasure from?

Verses 8-13—Can despondency or doubt, or depression, or hopelessness, or any other bad feeling, occupy the heart that is filled with love?

What will be the relative values or uses in heaven, of faith, hope, eloquence, knowledge, love?

What is really the sum total of all things, or that which sums up in itself all the blessedness, nobility, and happiness, that the mind can conceive, or the heart crave, and why is it so? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Lesson for Sunday, September 5, 1909. Paul's Third Missionary Journey—Farewells. Acts 20: 2-38.

BOLD ATTEMPTS TO KIDNAP FAIL

Gets Letter One Day Late for Purpose for Which It Was Intended.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 28.—Captain C. B. T. Moore of the U. S. S. Colorado had his attention called today to a rather unusual experience of Miss Bessie Carpenter, a pretty young woman from Colorado Springs, and is of the opinion that an attempt was made to decoy the young woman, but that the plan, if such was the intention, failed by reason of the fact that a letter dated Friday was not delivered to her until today.

The letter to Miss Carpenter, which was sent to her through the general delivery, read:

"202 Second Avenue South, Seattle, Wn., Aug. 27, 1909.

"Miss Bessie Carpenter:

"Did you lose a railroad ticket? If so please claim at above address this evening, 8:15 o'clock. It will be to your benefit. In haste. Very respectfully,

"P. M. SMITH.

"Inquire for Prof. P. M. Smith, or Mr. Searles."

Miss Carpenter went to the address, 202 Second avenue south, which is a cheap rooming house. No Professor Smith, nor Mr. Searles was known there.

The only Smith known there in the past few days was "J. H. Smith, U. S. S. Colorado," that was the way he registered on the book at the lodging house. Miss Carpenter went out to the Colorado and had a long talk with Captain Moore. There were several Smiths on board the Colorado. The only man whose initials were anything like those on the rooming house register was S. H. Smith, and he showed he had not been on shore. Captain Moore believes some one heard Miss Carpenter reporting her loss at the validating office, and that a decoy letter was sent to her.

LOCKJAW CURED BY 60 GRAINS CALOMEL

Troy, Pa., Aug. 28.—The death of aged W. H. Snedaker of Snedakerville, recalls a marvelous case of cure of lockjaw on him by a country doctor living near Troy.

Mr. Snedaker was 50 years old when he had a thumb torn off, and lockjaw developed. His case was desperate.

The old Troy physician said he had a remedy, heroic in the extreme, but as Snedaker would probably die anyway, he would like to try it. He administered to the sufferer 60 grains of calomel. Snedaker survived both the dose and the lockjaw, and died 43 years later, at the age of 98.

USES BEDPOST AS IMPLEMENT OF DEATH

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Buena Vista, Colo., Aug. 28.—William H. Merrifield, a prominent pioneer of Buena Vista, committed suicide today by hanging himself to a bedpost with a leather strap. He was a brother of Rev. George Merrifield, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal conference of Wisconsin.

TINY GIFTS TO GREAT HOSPITAL

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—Twenty-five cents seems a small sum to contribute to the running expenses of such a great institution as the Pennsylvania hospital, yet many such gifts were made during the last year, and they were among the contributions most prized by the officers of the hospital.

For they came from the poor. They came from the Italians, the Russian Jews and others in the downtown tenement district, from people who had to deprive themselves in order to give them, and they came as direct tokens of appreciation from those who most largely benefit by the free service at the hospital. In many cases the money was inclosed in soiled envelopes and accompanied by notes scribbled in Russian or Italian, often extremely illiterate.

One mother wrote in broken English that could scarcely be deciphered. Her mite amounted to 50 cents. She wished it might be more. The doctors at the hospital had saved her boy's life when he had acute indigestion. Her gift of 50 cents would deprive her family of their regular once a week meat dinner, but she wished she was able to give more.

The number of patients treated at the hospital during the past year war 48,681. Among the larger bequests received was one for $212,313 from the estate of Edward C. Weaver. From the Misses Blanchard came a contribution of $25,000 for the endowment fund.

$5,000,000 LOSS TO CHESTNUT GROWERS

New York, Aug. 28.—About five years ago chestnut trees were observed to be dying in New York. The cause, then unknown, has since been found to be a fungous disease of the bark. One authority estimates the loss from this disease in and around New York at more than $5,000,000.

It is believed that this disease was brought to this country from Japan, although this has not been positively demonstrated. Its spread has resulted mainly from the sale and shipment of nursery stock.

As a result of investigations into the fungous diseases of the chestnut trees, the Department of Agriculture has recommended as a preventive the careful inspection of nursery stock. It also advises that as a means of checking the spread of the disease all affected trees be cut down and utilized, care being taken to burn all the brush.

FLEES FROM MOUSE, FALLS TO DEATH

New York, Aug. 28.—Fleeing from a harmless mouse making a race for its life from the family cat, a New York woman lost her life in the most tragic manner. Mrs. Sarah Nagler, fifty-two years old, of No. 398 Bristol street, leaped upon a chair beside an open window in the kitchen of her home as her cat chased a mouse across the floor. The chair overturned and she was precipitated through the window to the yard, fifty feet below. She landed on her head and was killed instantly.
