SOCIETY

BY DRUSILLA DREW

(Social news is a daily feature of The Journal. Any one wishing to insert such news should send it signed to the society editor or telephone it before 10 o'clock in the morning.)

Mrs. Alonzo G. Barker was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a large tea, given at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fielding S. Kelly, 698 Northrup street. Mrs. Barker received alone. With her in the living room were Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth, Mrs. Sanderson Reed, Mrs. Roger Sinnott and Mrs. Fielding Kelly. Tea and coffee were served in the dining room by Mrs. Charles Scadding and Mrs. C. S. Jackson. Mrs. E. B. Hamilton presided over the tea. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Berti Baer and Miss Cornelia Cook. The arrangement of the rooms was altogether charming. The living room was filled with quantities of roses, carnations and asters in a perfect riot of colors. In the hall were Japanese dahlias and the dining room was given over to white asters, white carnations and white roses most effectively displayed. There were about 200 guests.

Wednesday at 12 o'clock the marriage of Miss Olive Blanche Johnston of Vermont, Illinois, to Ernest S. Dyer of this city was celebrated in the Taylor street Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Dr. Benjamin Young, who read the ring service, and Carl Denton was at the organ. The bride was given away by Mrs. W. E. Dyer and was attended by Miss Hilda Dyer, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, while William C. McCulloch acted as best man. Following the ceremony, a brief informal reception was held at the church, after which an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home in Kenton of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyer, parents of the groom. In addition to the well known wedding music from "Lohengrin" and "Midsummer Night's Dream," played by Mr. Denton, Dr. Keyes's "O, Promise Me" was sung by W. E. Dyer, brother of the groom. The guests at the church included only the relatives of the groom residing in Portland, and a few of his intimate friends. Mrs. Dyer is a young woman of attractive personality and has made many friends during the short time that she has been in Portland. Mr. Dyer is engaged in business in Kenton, where they will reside.

Annie Besant's Birthday.

Mrs. Annie Besant, the theosophical leader who is now engaged in an American lecture tour, was born in London, October 1, 1847, a daughter of Dr. Wood, a famous English agnostic. As a coworker with Charles Bradlaugh, the famous Socialistic agitator, she became prominent as a leader of the girls in the famous matchmakers' strike of 1888, and was afterward closely associated with William T. Stead and George Bernard Shaw. In 1889 Mrs. Besant became a disciple of Mme. Blavatsky, the high priestess of theosophy, and upon the latter's death Mrs. Besant became the recognized leader of the cult. Mrs. Besant is a woman of brilliant attainments and has written extensively on Socialism, theosophy and kindred subjects. In recent years she has spent much of her time in India, where she has founded schools for Hindu boys and girls and engaged in other educational work. She is the founder of the society of the Sons of India, which has several hundred branches throughout the British empire.

RESTRICTING CHILD LABOR IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 1.—Some important amendments to the child labor laws in New York state became effective today. Under the new order of things no child under 14 is to be permitted to operate or assist in the operation of any machine that is dangerous to life or limb or to engage in any occupation that might be harmful to the health.

Convention of Boys' Brigade.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 1.—The 16th annual convention of the United Boys' Brigades of America convened here today with about 1100 boys in attendance, representing nearly 40,000 members throughout the country. Delegates from Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island and other states are on hand to take part in the big street parade tomorrow. In addition to the parade the program provides for addresses by prominent men, a monster field meet and special religious services to be conducted on Sunday, the last day of the convention.

A Timely Suggestion
Christmas will soon be here. You have promised the family a new piano; don't delay the selection of it until you have spent the money intended for the piano for something else.
Make your selection NOW, pay a small deposit and a little every week from now until Christmas; by that time you will have paid enough to equal the ordinary first payment and will be sure of your piano for Christmas day.
Just now you will find our stock especially large. Fall shipments are arriving every day.
Select your piano today.
