APPLE SHOW AT ALCO CLUB ROOMS

Monster Chrysanthemums for Big Carnival to Be Held at Albany.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., Oct. 7.—The Alco club gymnasium as well as the parlors and offices have been turned over by the board of directors to the Albany Apple Fair committee for use during the big show the latter part of this month. Visiting members who will take part on the program will be given full privileges and use of the clubrooms during their stay in the city. The literary program and musical exercises incidental to the fair will be held in the south end of the gymnasium while the exhibits will find ample room in the north end of the large building.

J. Courtney of Albany stated today that he has grown in his garden a chrysanthemum bloom measuring eight and a quarter inches in diameter. The bloom is not yet fully developed and may possibly reach nine inches. He has other buds coming to maturity on the same plant, which he believes will eclipse the above mentioned. Mr. Courtney is a chrysanthemum devotee and has many varieties growing. He will have a large display at the Albany chrysanthemum bloom measuring eight fair.

NEW LAW PROVES SURPRISE TO MANY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Chehalis, Wash., Oct. 7.—A new state law which requires municipal governing bodies to publish estimates of their proposed expenditures for the ensuing year has resulted in several columns of estimates being printed this past month without any appreciable returns excepting to the newspapers which run the notices at so much per square. It was expected that the law would result in the taxpayers appearing before the city, school, county and other governing bodies with protests against at least some parts of the proposed estimates. Either the law bids fair to prove a dead letter, or else the local boards were very wise in making their estimates. No protests were received by any of the local boards. When the taxpayers, however, go to the treasurer to pay in their taxes it is more than likely that the treasurer will be forced to listen to the usual amount of grumbling, when in turn he will remind many taxpayers that there is such a law now on the books.

CALIFORNIA S. F. L. ADOPTS RESOLUTIONS

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Rafael, Cal., Oct. 7.—A resolution protesting against a federal ship subsidy, further than a mail subsidy, and requesting an investigation into the International Ship Federation has been adopted at the convention of the State Federation of Labor.

A resolution was adopted recommending that congress extend the Chinese exclusion act to all Asiatic nationalties and favoring the deportation of all Asiatics. This was the product of the Anti-Japanese Laundry league.

A recommendation that central labor bodies organize branches of the Asiatic Exclusion league was adopted.

The convention ordered the discontinuance of the Brotherhood of Interurban Trainmen, and to support the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Line Employes of America.

A resolution proposing that officers of the federation should not participate in politics was turned down.

More Railroad Rumors at Colfax.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Colfax, Wash., Oct. 7.—Rumors relative to the probability of the C. M. & P. S. railway company building a branch through Colfax to the Dayton-Walla Walla country in the near future are still in circulation in Colfax and vicinity, and the latest stories are to the effect that the line will leave the main tracks at Malden, and will in reality be a continuation of the "Spokane loop," a survey for which is now being run from St. Maries, Idaho, through Spokane to Malden.

Samuel Handsaker.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Eugene, Or., Oct 7.—The remains of Samuel Handsaker, the Lane county pioneer, who died here yesterday, were taken to Portland today for cremation. "Uncle Sam" Handsaker, as he was called, was among the best known pioneers of western Oregon. He was born at Hatton, Derbyshire, England, November 19, 1831, and came to America in 1843, landing at New Orleans with his mother, two sisters and a brother. Ten years later Handsaker came to Oregon, settling near Oakland, Douglas county. About that time the struggle with the Indians began, and "Uncle Sam" proved himself of the right pioneer spirit when he volunteered under Captain Laban Bouy, of the Second regiment of Oregon mounted volunteers, and later did similar service under Captain P. C. Noland. On November 27, 1856, he was married to Miss Sarah Johnson Cannon, of Camas valley, Douglas county. In 1869 they moved to Lane county, settling at Dexter. In 1895 they moved to Eugene and lived here until his death. Besides his wife, the deceased leaves the following children: George W. Handsaker, of Portland; Mrs. J. M. Keeney and E. B. Handsaker, of Eugene; Mrs. J. M. Gulley, of Ashland; Mrs. W. L. Bristow and Mrs. P. N. Laird, of Pleasant Hill; Rev. T. S. Handsaker, of Davenport, Wash., and J. J. Handsaker, of Arleta, Or.

Charles Montieth.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., Oct. 6.—Charles Montieth died at the family home yesterday morning at 5 o'clock after an illness of 12 years. He was 50 years of age. He was born in Albany March 7, 1859. In 1883 he went to Spokane, where for 15 years he had charge of the Whitehouse department store, one of the largest dry goods establishments in that city. The deceased was the son of Walter Montieth, one of the oldest and most prominent pioneers of Oregon, who laid out the original townsite of the city of Albany, and who donated nearly all the land on which the churches in this city have been erected.

Albany, Or., Oct. 7.—The funeral of Charles Montieth took place this afternoon at the United Presbyterian church of this city. The body lay in the church from 1:30 to 2 p. m. so that friends could view the remains.

Miss Ethel Jacks.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., Oct. 7.—Miss Ethel Jacks died early yesterday morning at the home of her father, W. H. Jacks, of this city. Consumption was the cause of death. Deceased was born at Medford, Or., March, 1889. She was a member of the Presbyterian church of this city. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the family residence.

Lucky Man Is Mr. Devine.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Lebanon, Or., Oct. 7.—A tragedy was narrowly averted yesterday when Elmer Devine, an employe at the Lebanon Electric Light & Water plant, in this city, was caught in the huge belt that runs from the generator to the great water wheel which pumps the water for Lebanon's water supply. He was tangled in such a way as to stop the whole power, and while one man helped to sustain the stoppage, another had to cut the belt to enable Mr. Devine to extricate himself. While so doing a man tried to shut off the power of the wheel, but instead of shutting it off he threw it on with all the force it had. Devine escaped with a few bruises.

GAS, DYSPEPSIA, HEARTBURN AND OTHER STOMACH MISERY GOES.

Relief in five minutes awaits every Stomach sufferer here.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your Stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost 50 cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drugstore the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out of order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort all of any kind of food you eat.
