BEAVERS GATHER FROM OAKLANDERS

Champions Play Good Ball and Win Opener From the Wolverine Tossers.

San Francisco, June 21.—The Beaver champions added another victory to their string yesterday by giving the Oakland club a severe trouncing, 7 to 2.

Portland displayed great machine work during the entire game and only in the eighth inning, when Henderson relieved Steen did the Oaks have a look-in and then they tallied twice.

Portland opened up on Pernoll in the first inning and four bingles combined with a couple of errors netted them three runs. Another run was made in the sixth inning on a walk, a sacrifice and two more errors by fumbling liners.

In the eighth Oakland filled the bases and with a tally counted already on Steen, Henderson was sent in to pitch. He let loose a wild heave and Hoffman scored. Then he tightened up and fanned Mitze, who was put in to bat for Pearce.

The Beavers swelled their runs to seven in the ninth inning by a number of singles and a couple more errors by the Oaks. The Oaks made another one in the ninth on Pfyl's double and Cutshaw's single.

Elmer Koestner will likely work in the box for the Beavers this afternoon, while Wolverton may send either Kilroy or Ables to the mound.

ASTORIA'S TRACK MEET CALLED OFF

Expense of Staging Pacific Coast Championships Is Considered Too Heavy.

Astoria, June 21.—The Astoria centennial celebration committee at its meeting last night, decided to call off all arrangements for the Pacific Coast Track and Field championships, which were to have been held here in August, for the reason that suitable grounds could not be secured and prepared except at a cost out of all proportion to the benefit accruing from a one day's meet. Other attractions will be arranged for to take the place of the track meet.

While the meeting would no doubt have attracted a large number of athletes, the Los Angeles Athletic club having already gone to the trouble of naming its athletic representatives, many of the best athletes along the coast might not have attended owing to the lateness of the season.

The Astoria committee appropriated $2000 to build a quarter mile cinder track and prepare the grounds, but it was found that it would require considerably more than that sum.

Inasmuch as the meet was to have occupied only one day, the centennial committee thought it could use the money to better advantage in providing attractions of a different character, but probably equally as interesting.

TWO SHOOTERS MAKE PERFECT TRAP SCORES

Columbus, Ohio, June 21.—When the interstate trapshooting tournament was resumed today, two marksmen had perfect scores of 100 each, made in the preliminaries to the Grand American handicap, the year's shooting classic, which is scheduled for tomorrow. J. M. Hawkins of Baltimore and J. R. Livingston of Springville, Ala., each killed 100 straight birds. Five others made a score of 99 birds. Mrs. Ad Topperwein of San Antonio, Texas, hung up 97.

Spokane in Lead Again.

Seattle, June 21.—Spokane's victory over the Giants yesterday put them in first place again by a margin of one game. The final score yesterday was 10 to 5. Netzel and Frisk each clouted out home runs. Sage, formerly of the Victorians, pitched for the Giants after the eighth inning, and was treated badly in the ninth. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Spokane	10	12	2
Seattle	5	9	1

Batteries—Bonner and Hasty; Seaton and Shea.

Vancouver Tied for Second.

Victoria, B. C., June 21.—The Canucks tied Tacoma for second place, and are one game behind Spokane, as the result of their victory over the Victoria team yesterday. Engle was in fine shape, and allowed five hits. Jacobs, a new player, performed at shortstop for Victoria. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Vancouver	7	12	2
Victoria	1	5	4

Batteries—Engle and Lewis; Zurchner and Spiesman.

Angels Trim Sacramento.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 21.—The Angels defeated the Sacramento team in the first game of the series yesterday by hitting in pinches, aided by a couple of costly errors. Halla was hit hard, but not in bunches. Thornton played first base in place of Babe Danzig. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Los Angeles	5	5	1
Sacramento	1	9	4

Batteries—Halla and Smith; Nourse and LaLonge.

Sutor Baffles Vernon.

San Francisco, June 21.—The Seals defeated Vernon by the score of 3 to 0. Sutor was a mystery to the Hooligans, while Raleigh was pounded hard. The score:

NICKS NICK TIGER FOR ANOTHER GAME

Lefty Jensen Pitches Good Ball and Homesters Finally Win Out.

Taking every advantage of the weakness of McCament and Hall, the Tacoma twirlers, the Nicks captured yesterday's game, 9 to 4, on a total of 14 bingles, four errors by the visitors, a passed ball, a hit batsman, several stolen bases and a couple of walks. Jensen, except for one inning, was master of the situation, errors entering into the scoring of the Bengals.

Mundorff was the first to make the rounds, starting with his single down the first base line, taking second on Casey's out and registering on Stovall's single.

Tacoma tied it up in the second when Morse singled to left and took second as Pettigrew let the pill roll away from him. Abbott's out let him to third and he registered on Seibt's single to right.

Score Two in Second.

The Nicks opened up on McCament, the attenuated Tiger twirler, in the second, taking third on Pettigrew's infield hit. A passed ball let Coltrin in and put Pettigrew on third, whence he scored on Bradley's sacrifice fly to Lynch. Jensen and Mundorff followed with singles but Casey and Stovall were easy outs.

Tacoma tied the score in the first half of the third when Coleman's single, Rockenfield's double to left, Mundorff's error and Morse's sacrifice fly let two in. However, in the second half of this inning the Nicks forged ahead when Williams singled, took second on an out, stole third and scored on Coleman's error.

Ed Kennedy's double to left in the sixth, which followed after three men were on base, seemed to put the visitors out of reach. And then they added another in the seventh when Morse singled, stole second, took third on Mundorff's drop of Colgrin's throw after Lynch's grounder, and then engineered a double steal with the redoubtable Mike sliding across the pan in nice fashion.

Pitches Same Old Way.

Even this handicap did not take the heart out of Jensen and he kept on pitching at his same old gait. His good work was fruitful, for by the strange slants of baseball, the Beavers pulled out ahead in the seventh inning by making five runs. Elongated McCament grew unsteady in this frame when he walked Casey and Stovall and Williams' single filled the bases. Johnson's grounder let Casey in because Seibt dropped the throw. At this juncture Bert Hall was called upon to replace McCament. Hall fanned Coltrin and then slammed Pettigrew on the larboard wing, forcing Stovall in. Bradley's single to right registered Williams and Johnson and Pettigrew came in when Abbott bounced the throw to the plate over Burns' head, Eddie having replaced Seibt when Hall took up the pitching. Bradley took second on the error, but was out trying to score on Jensen's single to center via the Lynch-Hall-Burns route.

In the eighth and ninth the Tigers were retired in one, two, three order.

If the Nicks keep on hanging the defeat sign on Mike Lynch's bunch we might just as well figure on getting another flagpole for the Northwestern pennant.

• •

Jensen is the candy kid, and the way he is winning games for Williams is a caution. Williams has three southpaws on his list and each one of them is a corker.

• •

You can talk about your ball games in the big league, Coast league and even the Northwestern, but none will compare with the game scheduled for Vancouver this afternoon when the Fats and Leans get together. The proceeds of the game will be turned over to the Commercial club. Louie Wise was neither fat nor lean and therefore is ineligible to play. The batboy's job was all that Louie could sign a contract for. All the big league scouts will be in Vancouver this afternoon.

"Pap" Van Haltren says he is looking 'em over for Pittsburg. It was Van who copped Harrison of Vancouver for the big leaguers a few days ago. "Don't know how long I will be with you," said Van. "I like Portland and may stay a few hours."

If Morse can field any kind of a hard hit ball what can Ike Rockenfield?

Here is a bit of light comedy of the daffodil line that might make you grin:

If Owen Moran is good at figures can he Ad Wolgast?

If there is a famine will iodine?

If a rope will strangle a man will an artichoke?

If an aviator drank 10 gallons of gasoline would it make an aeroplane soar?

If they let you in on a poker game will you window?

If the Rocky mountains are in America, where is the gas range?

If a tomato whipped a cabbage what would garlic?

Gene Krapp worked part of yesterday's game for Cleveland. The game was played in Detroit, which is Krapp's home town, but that didn't make any difference, Cleveland lost just the same.

If the Nicks can win games for the next couple of weeks the way they have since their stay at home, you can't tell where they are liable to finish in this race. You can't keep 'em down.

SICK JAKE, DUCKED, NOT RECOVERING

Plunge in Icy River After a Sweat Bath Perhaps Not Such Good Medicine.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

White Salmon, Wash., June 21.—Jake Hunt, youngest son of old Jake Hunt, the patriarch of the Klickitats over 100 years old, lies critically ill, and his relatives and friends are gathering at his lodge up the White Salmon. A white doctor was called, but now a medicine woman has charge. One of the first things she did was to warm the patient up to the sweating point, then rush him down to the river and duck him in the ice cold waters of the White Salmon.

Young Jake was one time medicine man, practicing among the Yakimas, his own tribe, and one summer went to Pendleton, where he was regarded as a fakir. His long tresses were shorn, his cayuse was taken from him and he was sent back to his lodge on the Columbia, where, humiliated, he went into retirement for several months, wailing for his lost tresses and lost power. Since then he never practiced. The "sick Injun" has a homestead worth $10,000, reservation allotments and bank accounts, and is one of the richest men in the valley, whites not excepted.

MISS RANSOM CASE COSTLY TO SOUTH BEND

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

South Bend, Wash., June 21.—The case in which Miss Bertha Ransom of Portland is suing the city of South Bend for $30,000 damages for personal injuries drags. Saturday, the case was frequently interrupted for the transaction of extraneous business and adjournment was taken early in the afternoon. Monday, no court was held because of the judge's illness. Tuesday, the defense's motion for a nonsuit was argued. The grounds for the motion were: No actual notice was given city of the existence of a plank nailed to sidewalk at time of alleged injury. No evidence presented that plaintiff was injured by reason of a plank on sidewalk. City was not notified of claim for damages within 30 days of date of accident. Today evidence for plaintiff was resumed.

A great deal of feeling has been stirred through this suit and two factions have developed, one of which believes the girl should be reimbursed for her extraordinary expenses and long months of suffering while the other characterizes the suit as an attempt of a clique to exploit the city. The city's expense for special counsel and detective work is said already to exceed $2000. The testimony for the plaintiff will probably consume a day more and sensational testimony is looked for when the defense opens its case. The big court room of the new courthouse is crowded at every session.

HOOD RIVER WATER FIGHT NEAR AN END

Pacific Power Agrees to Arbitration; Maximum Price Is $42,500.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Hood River, Or., June 21.—That the water fight retarding the interests of the city for a number of years is soon to be settled permanently now seems certain. The city council Monday night adopted a report from the fire and water committee that will submit the matter of fixing the price of the water system now in the city to a jury at the next term of the circuit court in Wasco county. The Pacific Light & Power company, present owners of the plant, offered to aid the city in every way possible to hasten termination of the case. The company agreed to set the maximum price of the plant at $42,500. Councilman Early addressed the council in favor of a speedy settlement, and had the several councilmen place themselves on record that they would stand by the proposition when it was finally submitted to the people for a vote to issue bonds for the purchase of the plant.

Ulen & Co.'s attorney submitted a lengthy report, stating the reasons for rejecting the bond issue of $90,000.

Mayor Hartwig submitted a communication to the council urging the necessity of placing speed signs along the highways as provided by the state laws. He also suggested the advisability of having the loose dogs muzzled in order to prevent hydrophobia.

An ordinance was passed providing that the city officers who now receive fees for service turn these amounts into the city treasury.
