Programme For Sunday Sermons and Record of Church Events in and Around Portland

APPEAL FOR A LIVING WAGE FOR EPISCOPAL MISSIONARY CLERGY

Bishop Scadding to Send Out Urgent Request to Church for Home Field.

Bishop Charles Scadding.

An appeal for a living wage for Episcopal clergymen in the home mission field in Oregon is contained in a statement that will be sent to members of the Episcopal church tomorrow by Bishop Charles Scadding. Every communicant is urged by the bishop to give at least $1 to the fund for the support of these earnest working clergymen. The statement follows:

"There are 15 clergymen at work in Oregon who are stipendiaries of our diocesan board of church extension. To pay them a living wage about $15,000 is needed. Of this $15,000, the sum of $2000 comes from the general board, $2400 from invested funds in the hands of the bishop, $6000 from the missions themselves in pledged monthly payments additional to their apportionments, and the balance, which is $3600, is the diocesan apportionment. There are 2600 communicants in Oregon and therefore this apportionment for church extension in Oregon amounts to $1 per communicant per year. Is that not a pitiful and beggarly amount to ask from a Christian man or woman for the extension of Christ's kingdom at home? We ought to be ashamed of our apportionments instead of appalled by them. We can easily raise them if we will. How? Organize. If the plan suggested by the general board, and our own diocesan board (i. e., a missionary committee in every parish, duplex envelope, etc.) were carried out, there is no reason why the diocese of Oregon should not meet its full duty. But it largely depends on the clergy. If this great privilege and obligation is brought persistently, clearly, reasonably and persuasively to the attention of our laity they will need it."

The Cantata "Queen Esther" will be given at Taylor Street Methodist church Friday evening, April 26, under the auspices of the Portland Women's Willamette club for the benefit of the Willamette university endowment fund.

Gregory Heights Church

Gregory Heights has a new church organized last Sunday of rather original character—a community church. It was organized under the Portland Presbytery by a committee representing that body, composed of Dr. T. H. Walker, Rev. Boudinot Seeley and the pastor of the new church, Rev. H. C. Marshall.

The church is to be strictly interdenominational and the members who have already joined are from several denominations. At present there are between 40 and 50 members, a Sunday school numbering 125, a large and efficient ladies' aid society, and a cradle roll of 41 children. This is the result of a year's work while the church was but a mission.

Rev. H. C. Marshall has been in charge of the missionary work since May 1, 1911, and has made an excellent record. He has had hearty cooperation from the residents of the neighborhood who are very enthusiastic over the work started very auspiciously and Mr. Marshall expects the growth of his flock to be steady from now on.

At the organization of the church last Sunday F. O. Young, A. E. Simmons and Charles E. Schobert were elected as the first elders. F. H. Taylor, Chris Hansen and J. C. Sumner were elected trustees of the new church. The elders elect are to be ordained and installed tomorrow morning.

Church Notes

Owing to the illness of Dr. John H. Cutlipp, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, the pulpit will be occupied in the morning by Rev. L. E. Linville, district superintendent in the Bombay, India, conference and a delegate to the general conference at Minneapolis, and in the evening Dr. J. W. McDougall, superintendent of the Portland district, will preach.

* *

A social for the members of the Sunday school of Calvary Presbyterian church, Eleventh and Clay streets, will be held in the church parlors Friday, April 19. There will be stereopticon views for the youngsters, and all sorts of games. Refreshments will be served.

* *

Dr. W. B. Hinson of the White Temple Baptist church will speak at the Young Women's Christian Association tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Lewis and Mrs. E. S. Miller will sing before the address. This meeting is open for all girls of the city or travelers who are visiting here.

* *

The regular weekly meeting of the Presbyterian Ministers' association will be held in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. E. Nelson Allen will give an address on the subject: "Proposed Denominational Unions with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A."

* *

Archie Bailey has been secured as chorister at the Central Christian church, East Twentieth and Salmon streets, and will sing at both services Sunday and will direct the chorus.

* *

The Willamette University Glee club is to take part in the musical program at the morning service at the Taylor Street Methodist church tomorrow.

* *

The annual convention of the Multnomah County Sunday School association is to be held this year at the Grace Methodist church, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 19, 20 and 21. Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner of Chicago, Professor E. T. Knapp of Spokane, and local specialists in Sunday school work will participate. There will be several musical attractions—ladies' harmony chorus, male quartet, the vested choir of 75 of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church, and orchestras of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian and Sunnyside Congregational churches. The graded union will have one whole session.

PASTOR TO ATTEND MISSIONARY MEETING

Rev. J. Allen Leas.

Rev. J. Allen Leas, pastor of St. James' English Lutheran church, is to leave on April 28 for Philadelphia, where he will attend the convention of the national board of English home missions which begins May 1. Mr. Leas will be absent about a month and will visit New York and other eastern cities while away.

Portland Presbytery

The regular spring meeting of the Portland Presbytery will open at the Westminster Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon and will last until Wednesday night. Rev. Henry Marcotte, the moderator, will preside. The most important business of the meeting will be the election of delegates to the General Assembly which is to be held in Louisville, beginning May 16. On Tuesday evening a Home missionary session will be held at which Dr. John Boyd, Rev. Henry Marcotte and Rev. Charles W. Hayes will speak. The Portland Presbytery is selfsupporting, raising all necessary funds here and not going to the eastern Presbyterys for assistance.

Sunday School Convention

Many excellent speakers are to take part in the twin state convention of the Oregon State Sunday School Association, to be held in McMinnville, April 22-24, and in Pendleton, April 25-26. Special musical programs are being arranged.

The list of speakers now numbers more than 60 and includes experts in all departments of Sunday school work. Low railroad rates have been secured and great preparations made for the comfort of the delegates.

Series of Sermons

Dr. William H. Fry, pastor of the Sunnyside Methodist church, has arranged a series of four Sunday evening services on "The Influences That Make For Character and Commerce." The topics are: Tomorrow, "The Influence of the Editor Upon Society;" April 21, "The Influence of the Public School Teacher Upon Society;" April 28, "The Influence of the Party Politician Upon Society;" May 12, "The Influence of the Preacher of the Gospel Upon Society." The services will open at 8 o'clock.

WILLAMETTE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS AT SESSION

Rev. A. F. Patch of Grace Montavilla Church Chosen Moderator; Meeting Ends.

At the closing session of the Willamette Baptist association at the Third Baptist church yesterday afternoon Rev. A. F. Patch, of Grace Montavilla church, was elected moderator; Rev. H. F. Cheney of the St. Johns church, vice-moderator; Rev. A. C. Saxon, clerk and treasurer. The Arleta Baptist church was chosen as the place for the meeting next year, and Rev. M. D. McPhail was chosen to preach the annual sermon and Rev. W. J. Beaven the doctrinal sermon. C. C. Hossumer was chosen a member of the state commission board.

J. F. Burke, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Oregon, in his address to the association reviewed the work of the league in the state, and declared that the defeat of last year should only make the prohibition sympathisers work harder for their ends. He declared that a movement has been started with the idea of testing the "Home Rule" amendment to the Oregon constitution. He stated that he was of the opinion that the law was a violation of police power of the state. Mr. Burke also declared that a district attorney and a sheriff should be elected who would actually enforce the laws.

Rev. F. C. W. Parker spoke on "State Rights," emphasizing the necessity of the Oregon Baptists giving attention to their own work in their own state, studying the facts and increasing the support. He said that a distinct advantage could be secured by bringing all missionary work under the supervision of the state commission board through terms of cooperation with the publication societies and the various home missionary societies. He showed the need of home missionary work in Oregon and the coming field, and stated that a woman missionary would be in Oregon by June.

C. H. Libby spoke on "The Men of Tomorrow," and declared that present methods of teaching boys in their early 'teens are wrong. This, he said, would be admitted by practically every Sunday school teacher. He said that in order to be a successful teacher today a teacher must carry a Bible in one hand, a club in the other. The paper created a sensation, and though it did not receive universal approval, it was ordered that it be printed and distributed to parents and teachers.

Rev. W. T. Milligan, a recent arrival from Minnesota, to begin work in Oregon City tomorrow, gave his impressions on coming from a snow-covered country to Oregon.

Resolutions were introduced calling attention to the encroachments of the Catholic church on the civil and religious liberties of our national government, and approving the activity of the Anti-Saloon league and W. C. T. U. An amendment was made to the latter resolution, by which the offering of the use of the churches to the two associations was left entirely with the churches themselves.

A series of special meetings are being held at the Swedish Baptist church, Fifteenth and Hoyt streets. These meetings will continue over Sunday, April 21. Meetings will be held every evening next week except Monday and Saturday. Rev. Asplund, from Spokane, and Lund, from Seattle, are the speakers.

RETURNS TO PASTORATE AT OCKLEY GREEN

Rev. John Bowersox.

Rev. John Bowersox, who began his fiftieth year as a minister in the United Evangelical church last March, was returned to his pastorate at Ockley Green for the coming year by the conference which met in Hillsboro last week. Since assuming the pastorate of the Ockley Green church Mr. Bowersox has made many warm friends in that section, who were greatly pleased with the action of the conference.

Mr. Bowersox entered the ministry in the central conference of Pennsylvania in 1863 and in 1870 came to Oregon. Since coming west he has been stationed in Salem, Albany, Corvallis, different points in Yamhill county and in Portland.

Pastor Resigns

P. E. Saltarelli, Baptist Italian missionary in Portland, has resigned to take up work in Brooklyn, N. Y. On Friday evening a farewell reception was tendered to him in the parlors of the White Temple. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed and many words expressed concerning Mr. Saltarelli's excellent work and the regret of all concerning his resignation. The City Mission union, in cooperation with the Oregon Baptist State convention, have already extended a call to Rev. Francesco Sannella, of Springfield, Mass., an Italian missionary, to succeed Mr. Saltarelli, and he has accepted the call and will arrive about April 10.

To Form Organization

Sunday afternoon at 4:30 there will be a meeting of young people in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church to lay plans for an organization, with devotional and social features, as well as occasional entertainments similar to the one recently given by them in this church, the "Congress of Nations," with costumes appropriate thereto. This new society to be formed will be open to all young people between the ages of 14 and 20 years, or those in academy or high school.

Special evangelistic meetings are being held each night except Monday at the Unity Library Mission, 479 Williams avenue. On Sunday afternoon the meeting is at 3 o'clock. Mrs. A. V. Dumond is in charge.

Pastors Change Churches

Two ministers of other denominations applied for admission to the Willamette Presbytery at the meeting in McMinnville which opened last Tuesday. They are Rev. Paul S. Sandy, a former Unitarian minister, and Rev. E. E. McVicker, formerly pastor of the United Evangelical church of McMinnville. Both were placed under the care of the Presbytery and further action will be taken at the meeting of that body in October.

Four delegates to the General Assembly at Louisville were elected, Rev. A. M. Williams, of Portland; Rev. W. Y. McGee, of Creswell; Elder J. H. Scott, of Crawfordsville, and Elder C. C. Bryant, of Albany. Newberg was selected as the place of meeting of the October Presbytery. Rev. C. F. Koehler, of Brownsville, was elected moderator to success Rev. J. F. Lyons, of Newberg. Rev. F. M. Sharp, of Albany, was elected vice-moderator and C. C. Bryant, of Albany, temporary clerk.

Rev. J. F. Lyons, the retiring moderator, preached the opening sermon and on Wednesday evening Professor J. H. Horner, of Oregon Agricultural college, lectured on "Seeing Jerusalem Through an Oregon Camera." The attendance numbered about 100.

Rev. J. W. Hill to Preach

Dr. John Wesley Hill, of New York, president of the International Peace Forum and former pastor of the Metropolitan temple, one of the largest Methodist churches in New York city, will preach at Taylor Street Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening. Dr. Hill is in Oregon in furtherence of President Taft's campaign and in the interests of the great world peace movement.

"I intend to spend my whole time in the future in spreading the influence of international peace," said Dr. Hill, "not only as a means of ending strife between nations but also as a preventative of the awful labor disturbances which are shocking the world. I feel that I can do a great work along this line.

"Many years ago men fought duels to settle their differences of opinion or to satisfy their honor. Public opinion and law have changed conditions until now private affairs are settled by court or arbitration. Why should not the affairs of a group of men be settled in the same way rather than by the old fashioned methods of force and bloodshed?"

Dr. Hill will take as his subject tomorrow night, "The Kingship of Patience."

Stereopticon Song Service

A novel feature is to be introduced Sunday evening at Centenary Methodist church, East Ninth and Pine streets. The illustrated song, "The Very Same Jesus," with 16 beautiful colored views from the life of Christ, will be thrown on the screen in the full view of the audience, while the solo is being sung by Walter Holt. Four other song slides will be used by the choir and congregation. This will fittingly open a service which Dr. Trimble entitles "An Evening with the Master." His sermon subject will be "The Sympathizing Jesus."

At 11 o'clock in the morning Dr. Trimble is to give one of the last of his series on "The New Theology," "The New Sanctification." It has been charged that the Methodist church is departing from her first commission to "spread scriptural holiness thro'out the land." Those who have their questions as to this will be interested in the pastor's treatment of the theme.

The official board of the Taylor Street Methodist church will hold its regular meeting Monday evening at the church.

PASTOR OF TAYLOR ST. METHODIST CHURCH IS INDORSED FOR BISHOP

Congregation Confers Honor Upon Dr. Benjamin Young; Pastor Has Splendid Record

Dr. Benjamin Young.

At the last quarterly meeting of the Taylor Street Methodist church resolutions were unanimously passed commending the pastor, Dr. Benjamin Young, to the church at large as a candidate for the office of bishop who would reflect credit on the Bishopric equal to the honor thereby conferred on him. In the resolutions the highest regard is expressed for Dr. Young. All members of the church feel that it would be a great sacrifice for the church to give him up but recognize the fact that the elevation of their pastor would be an honor to him, to the church and to the northwest.

Dr. Young has been in Portland for the past five years and has made many friends both in and out of the church. He has had wonderful success, nearly doubling the membership of the Taylor Street church and adding almost 1200 names to the membership roll. Dr. J. W. McDougall, superintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist church, in reviewing the work which has been done in the church stated at the conference that the report was extremely good.

In company with A. M. Smith, lay delegate, and Mrs. Young, Dr. Young will leave for the general conference of the Methodist church at Minneapolis about April 25, remaining in the east for a month.

Dr. Young has had splendid training for the duties of bishop, as his work has carried him through experiences which few ministers as a rule have. During his early career he was a misionary on the frontier in Wyoming and held services in every conceivable kind of hall from saloons up. He met and worked among cowboys, miners and other rough, but true citizens of the wild west and his experiences among men of this type gave him an insight into the true worth of men which he has never lost.

Within a short time the delegates of the Portland Methodist churches will leave for Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the Methodist conference, which will begin in that city on Wednesday, May 1.
