TERRIFIC CLOUTS SET BEAVERS BACK

Sixteen Hits Off Girot and Higginbotham Shove Portland Into Fifth Place.

Even Manager McCredie sneaked off the bench and beat it to the clubhouse in humiliation long before the final inning of the 13 to 1 rout of his pets yesterday afternoon by the Sacramento Harps, with Arrellanes on the firing line.

Winning three in a row was too much for the unaccustomed Beavers and they faltered on the fourth. Sixteen bingles were made off the two hurlers sent against the visitors. Girot, the youthful left hander, got long very well till the fourth, when he was relieved by Higginbotham with two out, three on the bases and three runs in. Higginbotham carried only his petrifiable moniker to the mound with him and what the Senators did to him should be for the fair name of the sport, omitted from this chronicle.

Two Hits in One Inning.

Tommy Madden and Patsy O'Rourke did one of the unusual things of baseball fame, securing two safe hits each in one inning, one of the fighting Irishman's being a double. One each was made off Girot. Lewis gathered a triple, double and single in five trips, O'Rourke two doubles and a single and Cheek a double and two singles. Bill Rappe, who has been bingling at a phenomenal clip of late, was the only Beaver able to solve the Mexican's slants, getting a double and two corking singles in four times up.

Madden opened the way on Girot in the fourth with a single and then kidded Umpire Finney into believing that he was entitled to a balk after being caught attempting to steal on Girot. O'Rourke's ripping double scored him. Swain walked and the pair moved up on Miller's first sacrifice. Lindsay erred on Lewis' hard grounder and O'Rourke scored. Sheehan fouled to Burch. Cheek scratched a single to short and Swain scored. Arrellanes walked and Girot was canned. Higginbotham relieved him and immediately walked Irelan, forcing Lewis in. Madden singled through short and Cheek scored. The O'Rourke singled to left and Arrellanes and Irelan registered. Swain struck out and ended it for a time.

Swain's single, to center, Krueger's error, Miller's sacrifice and a wild pitch gave the visitors their eighth run in the seventh. Doubles by Cheek and Irelan gave them another in the eighth.

In the ninth doubles by O'Rourke, Miller and Lewis and singles by Sheehan, Cheek, Arrellanes, followed by a sacrifice fly by Irelan added four more to the total.

Portland made its only score in the first, when Chadbourne walked, took second on Bancroft's sacrifice, third on Lindsay's out and scored on Krueger's double to right center.

With one out in the ninth, Rapps, Burch and Stene, batting for His, singled, but Chadbourne and Bancroft could not bring one over.

DAY WILL FIGHT KID FARRELL ON JUNE 15

Marshfield, Or., June 1.—Jess Day, who fought a draw with Jack Duarte at Bandon last Saturday night, has arranged for another fight at Bandon, June 15, when he will meet Kid Farrell for 20 rounds. This will be the twenty-second fight that Day has had in the ring and the day upon which it is to take place will be his twenty-second birthday. After the fight with Farrell, Day expects to leave on a tour of Idaho, Utah and California, where he will fight. There has been some effort here to stop boxing and the matter has been taken to the Marshfield city council. VICTORIA WHALES PORTLAND, 9 TO 3

Ed Kennedy Runs Into Harris and Knocks Colt Catcher Out.

Seattle, Wash., June 1.—The Colts were outhucked by the Bees and lost the game by the score of 9 to 3. The Colts annexed more hits than the Bees and played as well in the field but the breaks were with the Canadians.

Catcher Harris was knocked out when Kennedy collided with him at the plate. Kennedy tripled and Fries' fine throw from centerfield reached the plate in plenty of time to retire the runner, but when he collided with Harris, the Colt catcher dropped the ball.

Tonneson started again for the Colts and was taken out in the early part of the game and Lamline substituted. Concannon pitched for the Bees and tightened up when in danger. A couple of double plays helped him out of several bad holes.

SMITHSON IN BAD AND MAY LOSE TRIP

Former Portland Boy Competes Unattached When Los Pays Expenses.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, June 1.—Forest Smithson, world's champion hurdler and a candidate for the American team to the Olympic games in Sweden, declared today that he has given up all hope of representing the United States at the games on account of the attitude of the Los Angeles Athletic club in repudiating the athlete because he competed unattached in the Olympic tryouts at Stanford two weeks ago, while a member of the Los Angeles club.

Smithson was suspended by the registration committee of the South Pacific association of the Amateur Athletic union.

A telegram from James E. Sullivan, chairman of the American Olympic committee in New York states that the New York officials will not interfere with the ruling of the Los Angeles committee.

Smithson has received word that his suspension is still in effect and will be until further investigation.

The Los Angeles club also refuses to pay Smithson's expenses to New York to join the team under any circumstances.

Meantime the time for the team's departure is but a few days away, so it seems certain Smithson will be among the absent.

Horine Reaches Gotham.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, June 1.—George Horine of Stanford university, California, world's champion high jumper, is here today from California. Horine started training today at Travers Island, the summer home of the New York Athletic club, and will practice daily until the Olympic tryouts in the Harvard Stadium June 8, in which he is entered. Officials of the A. A. U. were on hand today to watch Horine's work.

Alderman Home Discus Man.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Stanford University, Cal., June 1.—There is a suspicion prevalent here today that one likely candidate for the American Olympic team has been overlooked in Merle Alderman, Stanford weight thrower. In practice here Alderman hurled the discus 142 feet, just one foot over the world's record.

HEAVYWEIGHT FIGHT RESULTS IN DRAW

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, June 1.—The question of the heavyweight "hope" supremacy of the coast is still undecided today following a 10 round draw between Soldier Elder and Charley Miller. The men previously had fought a four round draw and were matched over the longer distance in an effort to settle their differences.

Elder had the better of the early rounds, but Miller came back strong and evened up matters. Miller used his superior weight and size to wear down the Soldier, and fought covered up. He punished Elder with clumsy body blows, while Elder, easily outboxing him, peeked at his gigantic opponent's face and tried repeatedly but vainly to get him to open up.

The best bout of the evening was a scheduled 10 round affair between "Red" Watson and Abe Label, in which Watson put Label away in eight rounds.

Jimmy Carroll and Spider Roche fought a draw.

ANDERSON WILL MEET F. EDWARDS TONIGHT

Vancouver, Wash., June 1.—In a letter received from Bud Anderson this morning, written at his training camp at Klamath Falls, he predicts his success in about the tenth round tonight in his match with Frankie Edwards. Bud put Edwards down for the count in the seventeenth round in a former engagement and says that he is now in much better shape and expects to shave at least seven rounds from the time. The seats are all sold, he says.

Oaks Win in Twelfth.

Leaps From Horse and Throws Wild Steer

Pickett, cowboy steer-wrestler, and chief high chief of the Cheyennes with the 101 Ranch, which opens at Portland, June 8.

One of the most remarkable exhibitions in the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which exhibits in Portland for four days, beginning Saturday, June 8, is a wrestling contest between "Census" Pickett, a cowboy, and a big long horned Texas steer.

Pickett, it is said, disdains to have the animal held by lariats until he can get a good grip on the animal's neck or head. His method is to pursue the steer on a cow pony, watch for a favorable opportunity, vault from the back of the pony to the neck of the steer, and then wrestle with the animal until it admits itself beaten and drops to the ground. It is an exhibition that never fails to create a sensation.

Pickett is only one of a big congress of cowboys, cowgirls, Mexican Vaqueros, Indians and Cossacks who contribute exhilarating stunts to the wild west performance.

YOUNG O'BRIEN HAS WOLGAST GUESSING

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Philadelphia, June 1.—Young Jack O'Brien has jumped into the first-rater class of the lightweight division today as a result of his showing against Champion Ad Wolgast in a six round bout here. At the end, the advantage, if any, was with the champion, but for the most part the bout was very even.

O'Brien was far the cleverer, but his blows lacked sting, while Wolgast made his opponent wince when he landed on the body. O'Brien showed speed, which at times had the champion at sea. In the second round Wolgast dropped the Philadelphian for the count of nine, but O'Brien was up and fighting at his usual clip again before the gong.

HERE'S CASE OF OFFICE SEEKING OUT THE MAN

New York, June 1.—Who wants a $4000 job? Not all at once, please.

Newark wants an expert to help beautify that suburb. Whether or not it is regarded as a hopeless task, candidates are not flocking to get on the pay roll.

The state civil service commission has asked for applicants and has gone so far as to specify the exact duties, but not a single man has offered to take the job even at $4000 a year.

Only Jerseyites will be considered for the place until it is known that none is competent, if any should apply; but the commission threatens to cross the state line shortly. But Newark really has a case of "the office seeking the man."

STRIKE AT ABERDEEN COST TAXPAYERS $4400

(Special to The Journal.)

Aberdeen, Wash., June 1.—The recent I. W. W. strike in this city cost the taxpayers of Aberdeen for special police, $4400, that amount being allowed by the city council. When the trouble broke out, Chief of Police Templeman and Mayor Parks, finding it impossible to get officers, imported from Seattle, Portland and Tacoma, 90 special men, who worked during the entire strike.

GRAYS HARBOR MILLS DO ACTIVE BUSINESS

(Special to The Journal.)

Hoquiam, Wash., June 1.—More than 1000 carloads of lumber were shipped from Grays Harbor during the month of May. The shipments were better than any previous month this year. The mills find it hard to get sufficient vessels to carry lumber and the raise in freight rates is due to the scarcity of sailing ships.

Many Attend Memorial Services.

(Special to The Journal.)

Albany, Or., June 1.—More people attended Memorial services here Thursday than at any time in the history of Albany. The Spanish war veterans provided autos for the members of the G. A. R. and the Ladies of the Grand Army during the procession to the city cemetery where the services were held. Flowers were strewn on the surface of the Willamette river in commemoration of the nation's dead who gave up their lives at sea.

GOSSIP OF THE MOTOR BOATS

Motor Boat Notes.

Scores of delightful treats are in store for the members of the Portland Motor Boat club this summer. The members of the regatta committee are very active in preparing a series of events that will keep the season alive with something new and different all the time.

After the meeting of the regatta committee Tuesday evening, at the office of Lewis M. Hirsch, the following announcement was made:

The following tentative program has been decided upon for the summer:

June 16. Racing events opposite the Oaks, for which John F. Cordray has donated several cups.

June 22-23. A club cruise to McMinnville. Negotiations are now in progress between the committee and the Commercial club at McMinnville, looking toward a genuine treat for the members of the club and a delightful visit with the people of the Yamhill county town.

June 30—Basket picnic to Cedar Island.

July 3—Championship races at St. Johns, toward which the Elks and the people of St. Johns have donated over $1000 for prizes, cups and entertainment.

July 20-21—Club cruise, probably to Canby. The Commercial club at that place is in correspondence with the committee, and an unusually interesting entertainment is expected.

August 4—Acceptance of an invitation to spend the day at Patterson's ranch on Sauvie island, where great preparations will be made for a first class outing.

August 31, September 1 and 2—Probably the most interesting club cruise of the year to Kalama, Wash., as guests of the people of that city. Boats will leave Portland Saturday morning, returning Monday evening, Labor day.

September 14-15—It is planned to have a stag cruise. The committee is not at liberty to give out any information as to destination, attractions or any other features. It promises to be a succession of surprises, one after the other, for two days. September 28-29, October 12-13 and October 26-27 will also be cruising days, but complete details have not been made.

The policy of the regatta committee to interest the various commercial clubs along the rivers of the northwest in the club cruises is a new one and gives every promise of popularizing cruising, as it has never been before. The invitations are cordial and it is a certainty that many people will prefer these monthly cruises on the rivers to a regular summer vacation.

"Bay Ocean" in Port Again.

The gasoline yacht Bay Ocean arrived across the bar late Saturday evening and tied up to the Calendar dock in Astoria. At 8:10 Sunday morning the vessel was on the way to Portland. Captain Fritz Hirsch is in charge, with Ernest Wendt as mate. Chief Engineer Frank P. Coulter and Frank E. Sommerfeld, assistant, had the engines in fine condition, as the boat had been tied up for the winter at Bay Ocean. Although the freshet in the Columbia was very heavy with considerable drift, the trip was made in splendid time. The engines were only developing two thirds of their power on account of the fact that they had not been run since last season. The center engine is a 75 horsepower six cylinder unit, and the starboard and port engines are each 150 horsepower six cylinder units of the Speedway manufacture. They developed their power with the least vibration, and all the officers were highly pleased by the speed made. The vessel has not yet been hauled out of the water, but this will be done in a few days and the bottom scraped and repainted. On the way captain Hirsch answered the steamer Breakwater as she wished to pass, and the captain allowed the Breakwater to get a full length ahead, when the Bay Ocean let out her engines and went past the Breakwater without any difficulty, considering that the Breakwater is a 14 knot vessel. The success of this trial for speed proves what the Bay Ocean can do. The stability of the vessel was remarkable, and the designer, F. A. Bailin, has been highly commended for his excellent work in bringing out this vessel and for the results she has attained since her launching from the Joseph Supple ship yards in East Portland. The vessel arrived late in the afternoon and tied up to Supple's dock at the foot of East Belmont street.

Other Gossip.

William J. Patterson has purchased a six cylinder Grimm engine from the Rober Machinery company. Von der Werths are doing the installing.

F. B. Sexton, manager of the Gas Power & Supply Co., is on a trip down the coast in the interest of his company.

The motor boat men of the Willamette are wondering if Mr. Wise will send the Wigwam to the races at St. Johns to race against Johnny Wolff's new boat. Nothing has been heard yet, and the time is growing short.

James R. Welch, secretary of the Motor Boat club, is installing a three cylinder Fairbanks-Morse engine in his boat, The Pacer Hull. There is considerable guessing as to the speed that will be made.

The club has received a new supply of pins. Anyone wanting one may call on the caretaker at the club.

NORTH BEND PLANS TO BAR "WORKERS"

Ordinance Gives Mayor Right to Deny Streets to Public Meetings.

(Special to The Journal.)

North Bend, Or., June 1.—Speaking on the streets of North Bend by members of the I. W. W. or others cannot take place unless the city officials know about it before hand. This is the result of an ordinance passed by the city council which is similar to the plan adopted in some other cities. The ordinance provides that anyone desiring to make a public speech on the streets must first receive a written permit from the mayor of the city and the applicant must specify exactly the hour and place of his intended speech and must also state the text of the address he intends to give. It is stated that this measure was passed by the city to guard against I. W. W. troubles should speakers of that order come here from other places.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY FOR COAST SECTION

(Special to The Journal.)

Marshfield, Or., June 1.—Rev. C. E. Short of Oakland, has been sent to this locality to do missionary work for the Baptist church. He will remain here for one year and will act as general missionary aid in Coos and Curry counties, filling the pulpits of different churches. Another missionary movement which is to be carried on here by the Baptist denomination is that of maintaining a colporteur boat which will be in charge of Rev. J. Leroy Hall, formerly pastor of the Marshfield Baptist church. The boat will be operated in the same manner as the colporteur cars and wagons, but it was decided that a boat would be more effective locally as it would better reach the rural districts and the logging camps. The boat will be a novelty as it will be the only one of the kind in the United States. The local church furnished the money for building the boat and specifications are now being drawn.

Blind Woman Burned.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Redding, Cal., June 1.—Unable to make her way from the building because of blindness, Mrs. Kate Fernando was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her cabin home near here.
