Programme For Sunday Sermons and Record of Church Events in and Around Portland

MISSIONARIES ACQUIRE NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE AND INDUSTRIAL HOME

Guild Hall Bought by Woman's Society; To Work Among Italian Residents.

The Guild hall and chapel formerly occupied by St. Matthew's Episcopal church at First and Caruthers streets has been purchased by the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church for $12,000 and is to be repaired at once and furnished for a Neighborhood House and Industrial Home. It will be known as the Portland Industrial Home and will be under the supervision of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference, though a national home.

The home will be especially for the work of the society in South Portland among the Italian residents of that section. It is to be made the meeting place for the men and women, where lectures and socials will be given for their benefit. It will be a recreation home for the children, where they will be taught useful trades and made into better citizens than is possible with them running wild on the streets. Classes in all of the simpler sciences and trades will be opened and the girls will receive training in cooking, sewing and the other domestic duties.

Physical Development.

For the physical development of the children there will be a gymnasium. All of the work will have a modest beginning, but every effort will be put forth by those behind the movement to increase the efficiency of the work as rapidly as funds will permit.

Mrs. Fletcher Homan, wife of the president of Wiliamette university and president of the society in the Oregon conference, is taking an active interest in the work, and as head of the society will do her utmost to make it a splendid success. The home is to be under the charge of the committee of the Portland Industrial home, of which Margaret Lake Garton is to be chairman. Mrs. Garton before her marriage spent 15 years in active work in San Francisco as head of the homes there. As Miss Lake she was known and loved throughout the foreign sections of the Bay City. Two other members have also been trained in the active field work of the society, Mrs. W. H. Bachmeyer and Miss Priscilla Foster. Both were in the deaconess in the east.

Experience of Worker.

The work is to be started next fall by Miss Bertha Fowler, now superintendent of the Philadelphia Industrial home and assistant to the bureau secretary of the national society. Miss Fowler has had a great deal of experience in starting homes of this character, as she has placed a number of them on solid foundations, including the Elizabeth G. Marcy home in Chicago.

With Miss Fowler will come Miss Myrtle F. Gutterson as assistant. Miss Gutterson has spent years in fitting herself for this work and is thoroughly competent to take charge of any department of the work. She has studied the gymnasium, kindergarten, music, parents' meetings, all domestic sciences and other phases of the work.

The vested and adult choirs of the Sunnyside M. E. church will give a closing sacred concert tomorrow evening. The concerts will be resumed after the summer season.

Outlook for Twenty-Sixth Annual Meeting of Woman's Home Missionary Society Said to Be Most Promising in Its Entire History

Mrs. W. H. Bachmeyer. Mrs. Fletcher Homan. Mrs. Margaret Lake Garton.

Three of the women who will be prominent at the coming twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Oregon conference, which will be held in Salem June 27 and 28, will be Mrs. Fletcher Homan of Salem, president of the Oregon society; Mrs. W. M. Bachmeyer, corresponding secretary of the society, and Mrs. Margaret Lake Garton, chairman of the committee in charge of the new Portland Industrial home which the society is to establish next fall. Enthusiasm in the meeting is gaining and it promises to be one of the best ever held.

One of the features of the meeting will be a stereoptican lecture on the general work of the society throughout the country by Miss Minna Frickey, a teacher in one of the national training schools of the society, located in Washington, D. C., who is now visiting in Salem. Miss Frickey's views will show the homes in various cities and phases of the work in the homes.

Church Campmeeting

The camp meeting of the United Evangelical church will be held this year in a beautiful grove at Quinsby Park, seven miles north of Salem, on the Oregon Electric railway. The campmeeting will open July 18 and will continue until July 28.

On July 22 and 23, the sessions during the day will be devoted to discussions of various Bible topics. The convention of the Christian Endeavor and of the Sunday school will be in session on July 24. July 25 will be devoted to sessions of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies. Evenings will be devoted to evangelistic services.

Several new cottages are being built for some of the tenters. As a large attendance is expected many are already making reservations and it is expected that all tents will be taken within a short time. Rev. C. C. Poling, president, and C. P. Gates, secretary, are in charge of the arrangements and tents can be secured from them.

Pontifical High Mass

St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene of a "Silver Jubilee" service last Thursday evening celebrating the twenty-fifth year of its dedication. Archbishop Christie presided over the meeting and spoke a few words of congratulation.

Circuit Judge Kavanaugh delivered an address on "Oregon Pioneers," in which he paid a glowing tribute to the men and women who risked their lives and suffered the hardships of early life in the great northwest. Father Thompson spoke on "Our Forefathers in the Faith" and told of the splendid work done by the pioneer missionaries in the Oregon country.

But two of the original members were present, John Glazik and Edward Hynes. Mr. Glazik spoke shortly on the early work of St. Mary's. The remainder of the program was musical under the direction of Daniel H. Wilson.

The religious observance of the jubilee will be held tomorrow morning when Bishop O'Reilly of Baker will celebrate pontifical high mass at 10:30 o'clock. He will be assisted by prominent members of the Portland clergy.

St. Mary's was organized in 1886 and was dedicated June 7, 1887. Father Van Lin, the first pastor, remained in charge until his death in 1893. Bishop O'Reilly was in charge for the next 10 years until he was elevated to the bishopric. In 1903 Father W. A. Daly, the present pastor, took charge. The church membership now numbers about 500 families.

Surprise Pastor

J. Richard Olson, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church, Nineteenth and Irving streets, was given a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening of this week by members of his congregation. An interesting literary and musical program was given in the church after which refreshments were served in the church hall. Rev. Mr. Olson was made the recipient of a valuable present. Among those who spoke were David Lofgren, F. W. Lonegren, Rev. E. H. Sandstedt and Rev. C. J. Renhard. Mrs. O. C. Young favored with a very interesting recitation.

One week ago last night the young people of Anabel Presbyterian church held a very interesting "travel" party. Different homes were visited, each of which represented a different section of the globe. At each stopping place games and other amusements were enjoyed and refreshments were servd at the close.

Children's Day

Children are to have their day tomorrow in many of the churches and will have at least one of the services devoted to their exercises. Children's day is an annual event in June though not celebrated on the same day in all of the churches.

Morning services by the children will be held in the First United Brethren, Centenary M. E., Atkinson Memorial Congregational, Piedmont Presbyterian, East Side Baptist, East Forty-fifth Street Baptist, Highland Baptist, First Congregational, Church of the Good Tidings, Universalist and St. James English Lutheran churches. In the evening the exercises will be held at the Central Christian, University Park Congregational, First United Presbyterian, First German M. E., and Hope Presbyterian churches.

Rev. J. H. Cudlipp will preach at the Grace M. E. church on "This Child of Ours" tomorrow morning. Rev. J. Bowersox, of the Ockley Green Congregational church, will speak in the morning on "The Child, What Then?" At the Calvary Presbyterian church Rev. T. H. Walker will speak in the morning on "Bringing in the Children."

Rev. Delmar H. Trimble, pastor of Centenary M. E. church, was called to his old home in Essex, Ontario, Canada, a few days ago by the death of his youngest sister. He will be absent about three weeks. Rev. J. W. McDougall, superintendent of the Portland district of the church, will fill the pulpit at Centenary tomorrow and the week following Miss Maude Kenworthy will tell of her experiences in the missionary work in India in the morning and Evangelist Van Marter will speak in the evening.

Rose Festival Sunday

At the First United Evangelical church in the Ladd tract, Rev. C. C. Poling has announced that tomorrow will be Rose Festival Sunday and has asked each person attending to wear roses.

Rev. William H. Fry will preach tomorrow morning on "The Rose Garden of the Soul" at the Sunnyside M. E. church. As the people enter the church each will be given a rose by one of eight little girls dressed in white with baskets of roses on their arms.

Rev. J. Hardy Bennett, pastor of the First M. E. church, South, is also planning to remember the day and will preach in the morning on "The Rose."

Goodfellowship Sought

A service of unusual interest will be held at the Piedmont Presbyterian church, Jarrett street and Cleveland avenue, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Westminster Guild of the church. Its membership is confined to the young women of the congregation. There is a friendly rivalry among the different societies of the church in a series of Sunday evening meetings to be conducted by one of the church organizations. The society securing the largest congregation for its evening will be deemed the victor and the one securing the smallest attendance will pay the penalty by entertaining all the other societies at an entertainment and supper. The object is to promote goodfellowship in the congregation.

The young women of the Guild have prepared a fine musical program including vocal solos by Kenneth Gibson, Ruby Scott, Margaret Gibson and Mr. Palmer. Margaret Faber, the accompanist, will also render instrumental selections.

The pastor, Rev. J. E. Snyder, will at special request, deliver his sermon on, "The Feast of Belschazzar." This sermon is a powerful appeal to young men. The public, and especially young men, are cordially invited to attend.

Bible Translation

The story of Bible translation in the Philippines is a most fascinating one to all who love development encouraged by a liberal policy and permitted by a free government. Bible translation is at most slow, but the Philippines and their opening to Protestant settlement and education have afforded to Bible translators opportunity for all of the devotion that translation has brought forth in any land. Since 1898 and Admiral Dewey's victory all of the translation work has had to be done. It is difficult on its mechanical side for there have not been printing offices in Manila capable of handling the work. Copy has had to be sent all the way to mission presses in Japan, 1800 miles away, proofs returned to be read, corrections made and revised proofs submitted. A slow process indeed. Recently the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, with headquarters in Boston, has established a mission press at its headquarters at Iloilo, and the Bible society will make use of it in its Bible work.

Speaking the Tagalog are 2,000,000 people, the Visayan 3,000,000, and the other languages like the Ilacano, and the Ibanag are 1,000,000. In the Visayan no fewer than three dialects had to be recognized, and translations of the Bible made for all. These are the Cebu, the Panay and the Samar. The Panay version of the Visayan has just been completed.

Largest Protestant Church

Trinity parish, New York, the largest Protestant church in the world in property holdings and membership, had a financial income of almost exactly $2,000,000 last year. Of this, however, $1,000,000 was borrowed money or sales of real estate, Trinity being engaged in building business lofts upon land formerly leased to others and covered with tenements. Of the other $1,000,000 there came from real estate rentals $414,000, from the people who worship in churches or nine chapels $102,000, and the balance from miscellaneous sources.

About half went last year to the upkeep of the interest producing properties and their improvement. The city of New York got $109,300 in taxes, and builders $725,000 in repairs. There were other thousands to purchase buildings on the church's lands but which it was desired to own and tear down so as to improve, and still others to salary and legal expenses.

Of $500,000 expended for religious work $314,000 went to the maintenance of public worship and of schools. World missions got a generous sum, and so did other churches in New York, not a part of Trinity, hospitals, colleges, the poor, the sailors, and many charities.

Calls for 1,000,000 Men

The Men and Religion Forward League over the name of its general secretary, J. Campbell White, issues a call for 1,000,000 men who shall enter upon an adequate missionary campaign in the churches of North America. It declares such number to be not too many to compose the 200,000 missionary committees.

Reversing its position in the past, the movement says these 1,000,000 men can lead the churches to evangelize America and the world in this generation. Before the men and religion movement came in the laymen's missionary movement had not included the evangelization of America in its program. It now announces that fully 50 conventions are to be held in the United States within the next few months under its auspices. It urges that the summer be not allowed to put off organization, but rather that it be utilized. It thinks Christian men of North America never so ripe for effort, and states that within five years $25,000,000 have been added to contributions to home and foreign missions. It calls upon laymen now to increase this growth by twice the amount during the coming five years.
