FOR SALE—FARMS 17

Attractive Farms

I make a specialty of high class farms close to Portland. A wide experience, coupled with a corps of competent men who are constantly on the watch for the best, enables me to offer the choicest and most productive farms at the lowest prices possible.

160 acres, located just out of the city limits of Portland, and every inch is positively the best soil to be found in the state. It is nearly all in high state of cultivation, the buildings are all good and large, the fences are all well kept up; there is a good orchard; on a fine road and just a short drive into the heart of the city. The price of this farm is only $250 an acre. I challenge anybody to show me as good a farm so close to Portland for less than $300 per acre.

101 acres; high class buildings, very best of land; water piped into house and barn; good windmill; excellent crop now growing on the place; on a fine road and just out of the city limits. This is a farm on which a good farmer can clear $4000 or $5000 per year. I would accept some good property as part payment. Might consider a good store.

25 acres, just out of the city limits; highly improved in every respect; $500 per acre; easy terms.

If you are interested in buying something good, something you can make money on while you keep it, and something that is bound to rapidly increase in value, you are invited to call or write J. E. Smith, 413-414 Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Or.

Near Monroe, Benton Co.

320 acre farm near railroad and along an electric line now building; 150 acres now under cultivation; 100 acres in oats, all good land, fine for a dairy. Good buildings; near school and church; all fenced; 25 acres of it good timber; 3 acres in orchard. Fenced to best advantage, and located where lands are selling at $250 per acre in 10 acre tracts. An exceptional bargain at $50 per acre.

Another farm of 160 acres, 6 miles from Albany, close to station on branch line, improved, fenced, and 150 acres under plow; finest of soil; best location for a home. The cheapest farm for the money in that locality, and only $60 per acre, half cash, balance terms to suit.

E. T. Price
Main 7677. 204 Rothchild bldg.
