BEAVERS FOR THIRD TIME HANG UP SEAL VICTORY IN REGULAR SERIES

M'CREDIE BUNCH TOO MUCH FOR SEALS AND GARNER BOTH GAMES

Afternoon Game Is Hummer and Portland Finally Wins Out in Ninth Inning Rally.

(Special to The Journal.)

San Francisco, Cal., June 23.—McCredie's men took both games yesterday and the Portland boss will send Hi West against the Seals this afternoon in a postponed game in an effort to make it five out of eight games. Higginbotham hung it on Doc Thomas in the morning game, 3 to 2, while the exciting afternoon contest, which was twice tied up by the locals, went to the northerners by a 5 to 3 ration. McCredie was forced to use three twirlers to pull the game out of the fire, Hagerman, Carson and West.

A ninth inning rally gave Portland the edge in the afternoon. The Beavers scored the first tally in the third inning, Berry scoring on an infield hit, a sacrifice and Cartwright's overthrow of first. Four hits and an error by Hagerman in the fifth gave the Seals a one run lead. In the eighth, however, the Beavers took a momentary lead. After Kores forced Lindsay, he took second on a wild pitch and Speas was hit by a pitched ball. Lober's grounder rolled through Charles and Kores scored, Speas going to third and scoring on Berry's squeeze play.

Charles' force out of Mundorff at second, the former's steal and Hogan's single tied up the score in the locals' half of the eighth.

The northerners put the game on ice in the ninth. Derrick started with a single and Lindsay doubled, which put the skids under Baker. Douglas relieved the southpaw and a low pitch which got away from Schmidt let Derrick score. Kores squeezed Lindsay across the plate.

BANCROFT AND COLTRIN FURNISH A CONTRAST

Ground-Covering Ability of the Colt Infielders Plaster Spot on Statistics.

An interesting study is revealed in the fielding of Dave Bancroft and Bobby Coltrin, Nick Williams' saw-off infielders, who, by the way, cover more ground than any pair in the Northwestern league.

Figures prepared by Statistician Colver at the request of Manager Williams, show that from a fielding standpoint Bancroft at third and Coltrin at short, the first selection, performed over 60 points better than Bancroft at short and Coltrin at third, the way they are playing now. However, Manager Nick is perfectly satisfied with the present line-up of the pair of midgets. Here are the figures and the games played are almost equally divided:

	G.	P.O.	A.	E.	Ave.
Bancroft, 3b....	21	42	58	1	.990
Coltrin, ss.....	22	50	71	7	.948
Totals	..	92	129	8	.965
Bancroft, ss....	22	71	70	12	.921
Coltrin, 3b.....	24	37	36	10	.880
Totals	..	108	106	22	.902

Bancroft can cover more ground than Coltrin, but there is nobody in the world who can get a ball away faster than Bobby, and for that reason Williams relies on him to kill off bunts down the third baseline. Both boys are quick thinkers and despite the revelation of the figures it is apparent to the fans that Manager Nick is playing them in the positions in which they will prove the greatest aid in the defensive play of the club.

MOISTURE PUTS COLT AND INDIAN TOSSERS OUT OF SUNDAY BOUT

Brown's Vancouver Club Arrives for First Week's Series With Nick's Equines.

Joe Cohn's Spokane Indians departed and Bob Brown's Canucks arrived last night in a volley of moisture. Twenty-fourth and Vaughan streets, resembled a duck lake yesterday and this morning. a duck lake yesterda and this morning. Cohn was hit pretty hard financially by the loss of the Sunday game, although the crowds earlier in the week were considerably in excess of previous series in the Northwestern league. The fact that Spokane is a tail end club seemed to make no difference. The Colts have proved the drawing card and the nifty aggregation assembled by Nick Williams is making more money at home now than at any time in its career. The fans like winning ball, a fact that has been demonstrated by the attendance at the Colt games.

Nig Peters may be replaced this week by Frank Guigni as the regular first baseman of the Colt team. Peters has been unable to get started with the stick, while Guigni is a pretty fair hitter. Jess Garrett and Matt Hynes will be given another chance this week to show whether they have the necessary class to stick with the club. Williams is over the limit and must cut down.

Fitzsimmons, the young St. Marys' college shortstop, has signed a contract with the Spokane club and may edge the veteran Harbison out of a job. Harbison is the fellow that Walter McCredie was ready to draft from a Southern league, when the New York Americans beat him to it. He is fast in getting a ground ball to the left but is an erratic thrower. Fitzsimmons played at St. Mary's with Guigni and Pappa.

Emil Frisk, the veteran Vancouver outfielder, in all liklihood established a new baseball record the other day in the Vancouver-Victoria series. Frisk is a left handed batter and he got five hits off Southpaw Kantlehner of the Bees. It is a surprise when a left handed hitter gets three hits off a left handed pitcher, but when he gets five in five trips to the plate it is worthy a place in the baseball hall of fame.

Vancouver is springing a young pitcher named Crawford on the local fans. Outside of Crawford and Walsh, who has been with the club since the opening of the season, the lineup is well known to Portland fans.

LEADER BROTHERS JUST LEARN OF DROWNING

Arthur Leader Lost Life While Swimming; Lister's Telegram Enthused Crew.

Seattle, June 23.—Ed Leader and Elmer Leader, two Portland boys, who rowed No. 2 and No. 3 on the Washington varsity eight in the big race at Poughkeepsie Saturday, were not told of their brother Arthur's death, which occurred three weeks ago, until after the big race. Young leader was drowned while swimming at Ross, Wash., June 3. It was feared that if the Leader twins heard of their brother's death it would unnerve them for the race, in which Washington finished third.

Governor Wires Encouragement.

(Special to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., June 23.—Just before the Saturday race Governor Lister of Washington sent the following telegram to the captain of the Washington crew:

"Accept my best wishes for the success of the University of Washington crew. I hope and believe you will win, but do everything in your power, and the state of Washington is behind you win or lose."

The governor today is in receipt of a message from J. D. Farrell at New York, who was one of the most enthusiastic witnesses of the race. He wires:

"Great credit is due the coach, manager and men of the University of Washington crew because of the showing made at Poughkeepsie yesterday. They have all made a splendid impression in the east, and complimentary references are heard on every hand. Your telegram encouraged them very much."

LEDOUX HAMMERS LEACH CROSS AROUND ARENA

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Cal., June 23.—His training finished, Eddie Campi, the San Francisco bantamweight, took things easy today, and will do no more work until the bell starts the Campi and Ledoux 20 round go tomorrow night. The San Francisco lad announces his condition the best of his career.

Ledoux has shown something in training at last. In a friendly bout with Leach Cross yesterday he forgot that Cross is his friend and put up one of the prettiest fights one could wish to see. Tearing after the New York dentist, he swung a wild right to the mouth, bringing the blood. Then followed two rounds of mixing, with the Frenchman holding his own against his big and clever opponent. Fans who saw the go proclaim Ledoux a pocket edition of Wolgast.

SILVER LAKE ANGLERS HIT BY NEW GAME LAW

Centralia, Wash., June 23.—Disappointment has been created among the fishermen of southwest Washington by an opinion just received by Prosecuting Attorney Kirby of Cowlitz county from Attorney General Tanner, in which the latter holds that the game law passed by the last legislature closing the bass and perch season from May 1 to July 15 includes Silver lake. In 1911 the legislature passed a bill creating a special game law to cover Silver lake, but according to the attorney general, this law became invalid when the new law went into effect early this month.

San Francisco, Cal., June 23.—Fight fans here who were full of prophecies a few days ago that Willie Ritchie, king of the lightweights, was really a welter, are digesting a big surprise today. In his first real workout at San Rafael Ritchie weighed in publicly at 138½, and there is not a doubt in the world that he could go under the 134 required when he meets Rivers on the Fourth if he felt so inclined.

Ritchie showed up well in his practice bout, hitting Henry Hickey of Oakland at will with the left and making Joe Azevedo of Sacramento receiver for a couple of right crosses that made the Sacramentan dizzy.

"They tell me Rivers sticks out his jaw as an invitation," said Ritchie. "I hope he does. I waited 16 rounds for Wolgast to uncover his jaw. When he did, he went down."

Rivers drew a big crowd to his training camp at the beach. He worked well, dropping young Dempsey for the count in the first round of their training bout.

The referee for the Independence day go will probably be chosen tomorrow evening.

Even Money on O'Leary.

San Francisco, Cal., June 23.—Even money is being laid here today by admirers of Johnny O'Leary, featherweight champion of the northwest, and Lee Johnson of Oakland, who meet tomorrow night for the coast featherweight title. Johnson recently got a shade decision in four rounds and the 10 rounds they are carded for is expected to settle the question.

Young Abe Attell of Denver and Walter Scott of San Francisco are carded for 10 rounds as the special feature of the bill.

Coulon and Burns Tonight.

Kenosha, Wis., June 23.—Johnny Coulon, bantam champion, and Jersey Frankie Burns, his hated rival, meet here tonight for the title. Both boys are in excellent shape. Coulon is favored in the betting, but the odds are narrow.

RACES POSTPONED TO SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

The Portland Automobile club has prevailed upon Bob Burman to cancel The fans like winning ball, a fact main over for the Portland speed carnival which will be held next Saturday and Sunday afternoon, made necessary by the rain of yesterday. This is the limit of time which Burman can remain here, as it is essential that he spend some time becoming familiar with the road at Tacoma. "I usually spend three weeks on a course," said Burman this morning, "but as the local club has sustained a great loss, I feel that it is up to me to help out. I will remain over until next Sunday night, and hope that sunny skies will smile on us before then."

The Automobile Polo players, will also be compelled to cancel a date at Seattle. While the big cars were to be working out at Tacoma, the Polo players were to have gone to Seattle, Walla Walla and Spokane.

ASTORIANS INVITE LOCAL YACHT CLUB

Two representatives of the annual Astoria regatta will be present at the special meeting of the Portland Motor Boat club to be held in the club house tomorrow evening. Commodore Boost received a letter this morning stating that delegates would be here to extend an invitation to the local club.

The local club is planning to have a cruise to Astoria. It is quite likely that the admiral's staff will be transported to Astoria by boat instead of traveling on a train, thereby following out the custom of the old Astoria regatta days.

AUSTRALIAN RUGGERS SCARE CALIFORNIA

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Cal., June 23.—Rugby enthusiasts of San Francisco today are digesting a rude jolt received from Secretary Avery of the New Zealand Rugby union, which was to have sent a team over seas, arriving here October 2. Avery cabled that the New Zealand Ruggers would not arrive until October 30. Edward Pomeroy, of the California Rugby union, cabled back: "You must arrive October 2," for the reason that a complete schedule had been arranged. Now Pomeroy and his friends are on the anxious seat for a New Zealand reply.
