FOR SALE—FARMS 17

A Farm Bargain

WE MEAN IT.

Hargrove & Sons

Can describe this tract in very few words. There are 145 acres, one-half in cultivation, balance easy to clear. All level and is a splendid sandy loam bottom. Good 6 room house, good barn. Price $65 per acre, $3000 cash, balance 6 per cent interest. That's it in a nut shell. That would be a cheap farm anywhere in the world, wouldn't it? Let us tell you just where this farm is located, and then you will know just what a bargain it is. This farm is located about 65 miles south of Portland, on level graveled road and just 1½ miles from good town on main line of Southern Pacific. We told you the land was all sandy loam bottom, and we failed to tell you that it was Santiam river bottom (none better), said river forms one boundary of the place. And the land doesn't overflow, either. This land belongs to nonresident widow, who can't run the place and doesn't want to rent it. There are 145 acres, and the price is only $65 per acre, $3000 down.
