MRS. JAMES M. KEENEY, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Otto Metschan, will be the motif for a charming affair of tomorrow when Mrs. Harry E. Coleman will entertain her Bridge club, of which Mrs. Keeney was formerly a member, and later will receive from 4 until 6 o'clock at an elaborate tea. Mr. and Mrs. Keeney have been the house guests of Mrs. Metschan during the holidays. Mr. Keeney returned to their home in Vale, Or., after New Years and Mrs. Keeney will follow after the middle of January. She has been the inspiration for many delightful informal affairs during her stay here.

Tri Delta Party.

Saturday one of the most interesting of the sorority functions was given by the Delta Delta Delta girls from college assisted by the Alumni members here. Twelve tables at "500" were enjoyed at the home of Miss Vera Redman, 499 East Seventeenth street north. The party was first announced to take place at the home of the Misses Ruth and Hazel Ralston. The home of Miss Redman was elaborately decked for the occasion and presented the spirit of the holiday season with a color scheme of red and green.

Mrs. McGowan to Visit Mother.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McGowan (Mamie Dunn) who have been residing in Albuquerque, New Mexico, are moving to Missoula, Mont., to make their future home in that city. Mrs. McGowan will arrive here Saturday to make an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. William Dunn.

* *

Visiting at Seaview.

Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs and Mrs. Roy Alexander of Pendleton, Or., are the house guests of Mrs. John Gates and Miss Gates at the latter's cottage at Seaview, Wash. They went down to pass the New Years with the Gates and will remain a fortnight in all. On their return, Mr. Burroughs will join his wife for a few weeks' visit here with Mrs. Nellie Williams at her home on Willamette boulevard. The Burroughs passed Christmas here with Mrs. Williams.

* *

Miss Kingsbury Hostess.

Miss Mary Kingsbury of Great Falls, Montana, a student of Portland Academy, was hostess at a party Saturday, after the Orpheum matinee, January 3rd. Her guests were the Misses Margaret Marvin, Elizabeth Ducey, Elsie Walker, Elizabeth Richardson, Jeane Stevens, Margaret Bronaugh, Ruth Connell, Polly Bronaugh and Dorothy Kearns. The chaperones were: Mrs. Frank Bowker, Mrs. Kingsbury.

* *

Children's Party.

There was not a gayer nor happier New Year's party in town than the one enjoyed by the children of the Rose City Park club last Friday evening. There were "sparklers" for the "moonlight dance," and "paper bag toys," besides other novelties. Mrs. H. T. Purse and Miss Harriet Thayer, assisted by Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, gave the witch's scene from Macbeth very cleverly and added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Master Percy Drake and Roger Shay helped with the dance music with their drumming.

The patronesses were Mrs. Dr. H. G. Parker, Mrs. S. C. White, Mrs. H. F. Blaesing and Mrs. F. H. Hork. The party was under the charge of Mrs. Carey C. Shay and given by the Rose City Park club for the children of the members and their friends.

Honoring Mr. Herzog.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 31, Mr. and Mrs. William Herzog, 245 Shaver street, gave a dinner in honor of their son Harry, who had attained his twenty-first birthday. Covers were laid for 50. The table was set under a beautiful canopy of greens extending from the chandelier to all parts of the room. The guests enjoyed a most bounteous repast. Toward the end of the dinner, toasts were made, the principal speakers of the evening being William Herzog, toastmaster; I. L. Martin, S. Bielwiss, Mr. Concoff, Mrs. William Herzog, Sol A. Herzog, and Harry A. Herzogg, who responded. Later in the evening the young people arrived and games, music and refreshments were enjoyed until the new year was right royally received. Dancing was a feature of the entertainment which everyone enjoyed. Harry A. Herzog received many beautiful and useful gifts from his friends, about 80 of whom were present.

Women's Clubs

Glencoe Association to Meet.

The Parent-Teacher Circle of Glencoe school at Mount Tabor will hold its next meeting on Friday, January 9. There will be a business meeting at 2:30. At 3 o'clock there will be a most interesting program arranged by the teachers to entertain the parents. Everyone interested in the parent-teacher work is cordially invited to be present.

Shakespeare Dramatics.

An artistic and scholarly dramatic presentation of Shakespeare's great passion drama, "Othello," was enjoyed by a large number of members and guests of the Portland Shakespeare Study club yesterday afternoon at the Grace Memorial parish house, East Seventeenth and Weidler streets, when members of the dramatic department gave a splendid condensation of this powerful tragedy.

Under the capable direction of Adeline Alvord, members of the cast sustained their various roles in a most commendable way, giving an interesting portrayal of the many difficult scenes that tell this story of love, jealousy and intrigue.

Mrs. P. L. Thompson's acting as Othello, the Moor of Venice, established her as a dramatic reader of unusual ability. Miss Aileen Brong, as the arch villain, Iago, brought out clearly the subtilty of this jealous nature that believed in nothing and that bent every effort to ruin those around him. Her acting and that of Mrs. Thompson in the great suggestion scenes in Act III, was particularly noteworthy and called forth a well deserved applause. Mrs. Emile Struplere, as Desdemona, was appealing in her portrayal of this gentle character whose very simplicity was forever betraying her. Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens, as wife to Iago and mistress to Desdemona, presented an excellent character contrast; Mrs. Anton Giebisch brought out the candor and frankness of the much wronged Cassio; Mrs. Allen Todd was impressive as the Duke of Venice and Lodovico, while Miss Imogene Seton and Georgina Chapman gave good support as Roderigo and the Herald.

Monday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock, the program will be repeated at the Grace Memorial parish house.

Announcements of the Week.

The Portsmouth Parent-Teacher association will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the school house. L. R. Alderman will address the meeting and later there will be a social hour with refreshments.

The emergency committee of the Portland Parent-Teacher association is meeting today in the library. The principal address is by Judge W. N. Gatens and Mrs. A. Bonham is speaking on "Friendly Visiting."

The Florence Meade Mission circle of the First Universalist church will hold its annual meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:15. Officers will be elected, reports will be heard and other matters of business will be attended to.

Grade Teachers to Meet.

At the regular meeting of the Portland Grade Teachers' association Wednesday, January 7, at 4:30 at the Portland library the president, Miss Grace De Graff, will give a report of her work among the associations in California.

The Vancouver Grade Teachers' association will be present. The usual dinner at the Portland hotel will follow the business meeting.
