WHAT LABOR IS DOING

Meeting of Garment Workers' Union will Be Important Event.

Electrical Worker to Speak.

The Garment Workers meet Thursday evening next at Carpenters' Hall, East Pine and Grand avenue. It will be a very important meeting. One of the representatives of the Electrical Workers will speak a few minutes, and the women members are assured that he will be worth listening to.

* * *

Union Is Reunited.

The Electrical Workers of this city have about buried their difficulties between themselves and are once more the aggressive and energetic body that they used to be. They have 600 members in local No. 125, which comprises the outside, or linemen, and have elected Fred L. Bourne business agent. They have reunited with the American Federation of Labor, the Central Labor Council and the State Federation of Labor.

* * *

Has Large Membership.

The Brewery Workers, consisting of the brewers, drivers and bottlers, were organized in this city in 1897. At the present time they have a membership of over two hundred, divided into two locals. Since they were first organized, something over seventeen years ago, several working agreements have been negotiated with the different brewery proprietors. At the present time they have one of the best contracts covering hours, wages, sanitary and working conditions of any labor organization. The International Union of Brewery Workmen has a membership of over seventy thousand men and women distributed in most of the United States and Canada. Ninety-five per cent of the brewing industry at the present time comes under the jurisdiction of the international so far as working agreements are concerned. The Brewery Workers have men in the employ of breweries in the city who have been in active service for over twenty-five years. They have fair working conditions and the employers are satisfied.

Eastern Oregon Pleases.

C. O. Young, district representative and general organizer for the American Federation of Labor, has returned to Portland after a visit to Eastern Oregon of some three months. In Pendleton the cooks and waiters, carpenters, printers, painters, barbers and several other crafts are organized, and a local Central Labor Council is the next thing. In La Grande only the printers, barbers and plumbers are organized. Of Pendleton, "Dad" Young, for such is his title among labor men, says: "It is surrounded by the most fertile and productive country I have ever been in. I was amazed at the wealth in the country and the possibilities of Umatilla county." Asked what was the most important thing before organized labor in Oregon, he replied: "The Claton bill amending the anti-trust law. That measure passed the house almost unanimously. It takes the labor union out of the criminal classes as now defined by law. It means that labor can organize unmolested. I hope every Oregon workingman and woman will urge on our senators the necessity of passing that measure."

* * *

Will Go Anyhow.

Mrs. L. Gee, commonly known among the forces of organized labor in this city as "Mother Gee," has received a nomination for the legislature as a Progressive. "Somebody will have make my political speeches for me," she said. "I will just talk to mothers, and tell what I know about the need of legislation for the protection of women and girls in Oregon. That is, I will talk where I can get an audience. I always have. I would like to go to the legislature, and the Garment Workers say they will elect me. There are a lot of people going to that legislature who will need some straight talk, and I think I'll go up there and give it to them whether I am elected or not."

* * *

All Urged to Be Present.

Electrical Workers No. 125 will hold an open meeting on the evening of Monday, July 6th, at the Labor Temple. All electrical workers, regardless of factions, former or present affiliations and past unpleasantness, are urged to be present. A good time will be had and the glad hand out for every body.

Samuel Gompers is 64 years old, and has been president of the American Federation of Labor for half that period, or for 32 years.
