Today's Forecasts.

Portland and vicinity: Fair tonight and Tuesday; northerly winds.
Oregon and Washington: Fair tonight and Tuesday; north to west winds.
Idaho: Fair tonight and Tuesday.

Weather Conditions.

A small high pressure area is central over Vancouver island and another high pressure area of similar character is central over Wyoming. A moderate low pressure area overlies the Red river valley of the north and the barometer is relatively low over California and Arizona. Showers have occurred in Colorado, the plains states, east gulf states, the District of Columbia and the Canadian northwest. The temperatures over the greater portion of the United States are slightly above normal.

The conditions are favorable for fair weather in this district tonight and Tuesday.

Rotarians to Furnish House.—Some weeks ago Rotarians, who are builders, gave demonstration at a club meeting of how they would build a house. Other Rotarians at the noon meeting in the Benson hotel tomorrow will show how they would furnish the house.

Kansas Prohibitionist to Speak.—Mrs. Lillian M. Mitchner, state president of the W. C. T. U. in Kansas, will tour Oregon in the interests of statewide prohibition, according to announcement made today by the Multnomah county organization of the union. A luncheon in her honor will be given at the Commercial club Wednesday noon and this affair will be open to the public. Following the luncheon, she will leave for Ashland, where she is to speak at the Chautauqua. Mrs. Mitchner is editor in chief of the Kansas Messenger.

Stableman Accused. — Two horses bought by Alfred Rossback, 291½ Grand avenue, of the East Side Exchange & Sales stables, were high steppers when he purchased them, but the second day afterward the animals were scarcely able to get one foot ahead of the other. Rossback says the animals were purposely doped in order to make the sale. Deputy District Attorney Deich this morning issued a complaint against M. H. Bryans, manager of the stable, charging him with gross fraud by selling horses. Rossback has a small ranch outside the city. The first trip he made to it with the horses they acted all right, but the second trip proved too much, as they were unable to get home.

Parents in Jail.—With his parents in jail on a charge of disorderly conduct, 5-year-old Gordon Burns is held at the Frazer home until the juvenile court can investigate home conditions. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burns, parents of the child, are in custody at the police station and will be heard this afternoon in the morals branch of the municipal court. They were arrested last evening by Patrolman Welch at Eleventh and Mill streets. The lad was taken to jail with the parents, but facilities there would not allow his detention, so he was removed to the home. The boy protested vigorously to being separated from his parents.

Body Not Yet Recovered.—After searching all yesterday, the body of I. Vernon Morris, 417 East Seventy-fourth street, was not recovered from Columbia slough, where the young man was drowned late Saturday evening while swimming. The current is about four miles an hour at this point and dragging was difficult. W. H. Hamilton, undertaker at East Eighty-second and Glisan streets, was in charge of the grapplers yesterday, as Hugh Brady was unable to work on account of falling out of a wagon Saturday evening.

Residence Damaged By Fire.—The home of H. C. Phillips, 201 Twenty-third street north, was damaged to the extent of $500 last evening by fire, which is thought to have been caused by a lighted cigarette thrown upon the roof. Water caused most of the damage. As the hook and ladder wagon arrived at the scene of the fire, an automobile driven by Myer Simon struck the rear of the ladders, breaking two and spilling others on the street. Simon claimed he was unable to dodge the fire equipment.

Margaret Has An Admirer.—Dunbar, the reformed gentleman burglar, has determined to win Margaret, "Our Mutual Girl," for his wife. Before pressing his suit he asks the girl's aunt for her consent. Little does Margaret realize the danger which is threatening her, but a friend comes to her assistance. See this popular attraction today and tomorrow at the Columbia. Irvin S. Cobb, the great story-writer, is writing scenarios for this serial. (Adv.)

Safe-Crackers Are Novices.—When safe-crackers failed to open the safe in the department store of Kennard & Adams at 539 Williams avenue Saturday night, they turned their attention to wrecking the place. Articles were overturned, broken, misplaced and the store was in great confusion yesterday when the proprietors opened it. Captain of Detectives Baty and Detective Goltz investigated the case. From their observations they conclude the perpetrators were novices.

Arrested on Gambling Charge.—On a charge of conducting a gambling game in a pool room at 273 Third street, R. Brandt was arrested, while Nathan Stone and A. Johnson were arrested for gambling. John Joseph, Charles Otten and H. Duncan were arrested for watching the game. Brandt is clerk in the pool hall. The cases will be heard Wednesday in the municipal court.

Young Man Hit By Auto.—While crossing the street last evening at Williams avenue and Russell street, Talcott Ward was hit by an auto driven by Dr. L. M. Davis. The physician took the young man to a drug store, later sending him home. Injuries are slight. Ward lives at 336 Morris street.

Fighters Are Punished.—A fine of $10 was imposed this morning in the municipal court against H. H. Chack and John Schmitzer for causing a disturbance Saturday night in the Lincoln rooming house on Front street, where they called the proprietor out of bed and started a fight. Schmitzer was unable to pay his fine and went to jail.

Injured By a Fall.—Henry Crane, 575 Milwaukie street was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital this morning suffering from injuries received when he fell while at work on the steamer Virginia. The man's back is injured.

Store and House Robbed.—The store of J. B. Hoffman, 969 Williams avenue, was entered early yesterday morning and several cans of prepared meat stolen. Entrance was gained by climbing over the transom. Mrs. Emma Everhart, 314 Sixth street, reported to the police the loss of a quantity of old silk stored in a trunk.

Speeders Are Fined.—A fine of $35 was given C. Tracy this morning in the municipal court for motorcycle speeding. W. T. James was fined $20 for a similar offense. E. J. Burkhardt was fined $10 for reckless driving, while George Johnson failed to appear for trial on a charge of speeding.

The July examinations held by the Oregon State Board of Medical Examiners will begin at 8 a. m. Tuesday, July 7, at the Central Library, Tenth and Yamhill streets. Special admittance ticket may be secured from secretary.

HOOD RIVER COUNTY TO VOTE UPON BONDS FOR COLUMBIA ROUTE

Election Will Be Held July 15 on Proposed 20 Year Fives Amounting to $75,000.

GUARANTEE EXCESS COST

S. Benson Agrees to Meet Deficiency If Road Costs Over Sum Named in the Bond Issue.

A special election will be held in Hood River county July 15, for the purpose of voting on a proposed bond issue of $75,000 with which to construct the Columbia highway from the Multnomah county line to Hood River. The bonds are to run for a period of 20 years, and are to bear 5 per cent interest. Beginning with the eleventh year the bonds are to be retired at the rate of 10 per cent each year.

Under the state law a county may issue bonds for permanent road improvement up to 2 per cent of its assessed valuation. The total valuation of Hood River county is $11,000,000, and bonds could have been called for to the sum of $220,000. It was decided, however, that $75,000 would be sufficient to construct a grade that would meet the requirements of the state highway commission. Having elected to call for this amount, the county court cannot issue an additional amount without submitting the matter to the voters.

If the cost of the road should exceed $75,000, S. Benson of Portland, who is greatly interested in the highway, has guaranteed to make up the deficiency. The Shellrock grade built by Mr. Benson will be made a part of the road.

It is estimated that the cost of the road to taxpayers will be about 35 cents for every $1000 of assessment.

The opposition to the bond issue comes principally from the voters in Hood River valley, who argue that the valley roads should be improved before the river road. The proponents assert that the main highway, giving an outlet to the outside world, should, as a matter of economy, come first.

It is further contended that a connection with the Columbia highway and Portland will bring an increase in the valuation of the county that will soon pay for the road.

For the purpose of giving the people of the county an opportunity to see the work being done by Multnomah county on the Columbia highway there will be an excursion from Hood River to Multnomah falls next Thursday. At this point the excursionists will be met by a party from Portland, headed by Mr. Benson, who will show the work.

Was Lonely Old Man.

Los Angeles, July 6.—An unidentified elderly man knelt in the path of a Southern Pacific engine and was killed. He left a note saying that he was only a lonely old man, and to bury him in the potter's field.

POSITION ASSIGNED TO PORTLAND AS EXPORT CITY CAUSES CHAGRIN

City Not Included in Statistical Summary by Government of Coast Ports.

If to be ignored is to be concerned, Portland should be interested in the statistical story of this nation's foreign commerce which has just come from Washington.

With tonnage reduced to dollars, the total for the fiscal year of 1913 is $4,230,000,000. New York did half of this foreign commerce or approximately $2,000,000,000.

But this was expected. The surprise of the report is in the gain reported by southern ports, and of Puget sound in comparison with San Francisco.

Little Galveston, on a sand bar, practically destroyed by a tidal wave 12 years ago, presented a heroic story of recuperation in the terms of foreign commerce amounting to $300,000,000. It made the Texas city second in foreign commerce in the United States, passing New Orleans, which is allowed third place, with Boston, fourth.

Increase Is Significant.

After the opening of the Panama canal it is promised that southern ports will furnish half of the nation's foreign commerce, that is, within a period of 15 to 20 years, for it is not contended that the Panama canal will immediately revolutionize commerce.

The official information from Washington reports the immense increase of commerce on the Pacific coast as having the greatest significance, particularly on Puget sound. For Puget sound ports, unknown to the world of commerce 30 years ago and ignored by Portland as a competitive element have progressed exceptionally and reported last year an approximate of $116,000,000 in foreign commerce, a rapid approach toward San Francisco's foreign commerce of $129,000,000.

Thirty years ago Portland's foreign commerce was more than three times that of Puget sound. Last year it was about one seventh as much as Puget sound, and, what jars most, is not mentioned in the statistical summary from Washington, nor indicated as a principal port by the federal bureau of commerce and labor in its report on "Principal Pacific Coast Ports."

Portland Is Complacent.

A few days ago Portland was content to sit by complacently and hear introduced as evidence before an interstate commerce commission examiner the assertion of a railroad man who has a line to Puget sound and none to the mouth of the Columbia, that "it would injure Puget sound interests" if a railroad rate were granted to the mouth of the river on a parity with Puget sound ports.

There was also credulous listening, even after the submission of incontrovertible facts to the contrary, that Portland "would be less of a seaport" were the rate to the mouth of the river to be granted.

How much less? This port is not mentioned now! A Portland miller grinds 6000 barrels of flour a day on Puget sound; none here, and with tidewater rates on a parity this condition would be changed. Other Portland businesses have Seattle export and import headquarters, paying tribute to Seattle on everything they bring in or send from this community. With equitable rates to companion a rapidly deepening channel at the mouth of the Columbia river, they could do business at home. Would that make Portland less of a seaport?

The development of the country is in proportion to the facility and cheapness of transportation. Portland's importance as distributing center of nearly 300,000 square miles could scarcely be measured, were that country developed and populated as it may be. The arguments that try to make the commercial interests of this city believe they will profit best by subsistence on self, without regard to the welfare of the tributary neighbors, and with railroad rates based not on the water grade haul to the mouth of the river but on the over-mountain haul to Puget sound, are the arguments of casuistry and plausibility by those who are not our friends.

Other Texas Fires.

Dallas, Tex., July 4.—Three fires in different parts of Northwest Dallas tonight gave the fire department the hardest fight in years. The $10,000 residence of Perry Baird was destroyed before the firemen could arrive on the scene from the others. Damages estimated at $30,000 was done at Ross and Pearl streets, and San Jacinto and Fitzhugh in the destruction of three houses and damages to six others.

Bay City Architect Dead.

San Francisco, July 6. — Albert Pissis, widely known San Francisco architect, is dead of pneumonia.

will some day have gathered their toll. In the evening of their life keen, clear vision will be gone and reading will be limited, if not impossible. GUARDSMEN WILL BE SHOWN HOW JAPS DEFEATED RUSSIANS

Instructions In Military Affairs Will Cover Wide Field at Encampment.

PLAN JOINT MANEUVERS

Course of Instruction Will Begin July 14—Men Will Be Paid While Actually on Duty.

The tactics the Japs used to defeat the Russians will be demonstrated to the little army of regulars and national guardsmen that will camp at Gearhart Park, north of the golf links, for 10 days commencing Sunday, July 12. The Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., is now marching to the scene, and will arrive on the morning of July 12. Battery A and troop A, both of the Oregon National Guard, will arrive on the afternoon of the same day. The First Idaho regiment of infantry, and the Third regiment, O. N. G., consisting of companies from Portland, Corvallis, Dallas, Salem, Oregon City and McMinnville, together with an ambulance company, will arrive in special trains July 13. Sundown will find 3500 men comfortably encamped, the enlisted men in the picturesque big brown conical tents, and the officers in white wall tents.

Many Horses Used.

A hundred and more cavalry horses, artillery horses, officers' mounts and lowly mules, all tethered at the long picket lines, will add life to the scene.

This is to be a very businesslike camp of instruction. The troops will engage in joint maneuvers in "battle exercise." This is known as the applicatory system of instruction in tactics. Operations will be under the direction of Colonel John F. Morrison, of the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., commandant of the school of the line of the staff college for eight years, who is considered one of the best tacticians in the army.

There will be 10 or more regular army officers in camp, including those attached to the Twenty-first Infantry, and others detailed as instructors to the various organizations of the national guard.

Entertainment Permitted.

The course of instruction will commence in earnest July 14. Three hours' work in the field will be done every morning, and in the afternoon one hour's work will be exacted of both commissioned and non-commissioned officers. One day only will be devoted to close order drills. Every evening there will be a parade by one or other of the several organizations.

To the young citizen soldiers, especially, this camp promises valuable experience and wholesome entertainment. They will get an inkling of what field movements are like, they will learn to appreciate, in making and breaking the great camp, the value of organization.

And not least of all, they will get lessons in personal hygiene and camp sanitation. There will be plenty of hard work, it is true, but plenty of play, as well.

Afternoons will be practically free, and bathing and other amusements of the beaches may be enjoyed.

Enlisted men will be paid $1.25 or $1.50 a day, and officers at the same rate as the regular officers.

Encampment will close with a general inspection.

Hobo King Arrives.
