DISTRIBUTION OF CITY HALL SAFES. Mayor Frank, Auditor Treasurer Hacheney and Mr. Flecken-bieln, chairman of the committee on acits and current expenses, visited the new city hall yesterday, and inspected the offices of the various city officials, in order to decide where to place the safes now in use at the old hall. There are six of these safes, which have herelofore been used as depositories for the city records, etc., and, as in the new hall, there are vaults in several of the offices, the safes are to be divided around, it not being deemed advisable to dispose of them at present. It was settled that one of them shall be placed in the auditor's office, one in the office of the board of fire commissioners, one to the city attorney, one to the plumbing inspector, and the burglar-proof safe will be placed to-side the vault in Treasurer Hacheney's office. The other will be given to some official who has need of it. Mr. Flecken-stein will take bids from the various truck companies for the removal of the safes and placing them in their new positions They will have to be hoisted in at the windows and great care will have to be taken to prevent injury to the building. Moving will begin about January 21, and all will be settled in the new offices and ready for business by February 1.

Dunn Hunt in Albina.—The firemen at the house of chemical engine company No. 5, in Albina, have a young deer which is a great pet with the boys. Yesterday a starved-looking bound came along by the engine-bouse, and true to his nature, went for the deer. The deer had never met a hound before, but nature told it that the dog was to be avoided, and it started off at the top of its speed down toward the old Southern Pacific depot, where deer and hound went flying over the bluff, some 40 feet in height. The boys thought both animals were killed, sure, but a few minutes after the deer came racing up out of Sullivan's gulch, and made for the engine-house, with the hound close at its beels. In coming to the house the frightened deer run under a horse, which managed to give it a kick in the side, scraping off a patch of hair. Then it got among its friends, and was stowed in the back part of the house, in suftey. The hound had a rough time till he got out of reach of sticks and atones, and if he ever comes around there hunting deer again, he will suffer the fate of the man who went out hunting wool and came home shorn WANT FREE BRIDGES COVERED .- A gentleman who resides in Albina, and comes over to the West Side every morning to business, is very desirous that canvas covers be placed over the free bridges, in order that he, and, incidentally, the rest of the world, may be sheltered from the rain in crossing. He will endeavor to present a numerously signed petition of tuxpayers to the bridge comp questing this slight favor. When it is granted he will proceed to have the sidewalks carpeted, and have free-lunch counters, furnished with morocco upholstered couches, placed at convenient tervals on the bridges and free ferries.

THOUGHT TO BE INSANE.—Deputy Sheriff Emanuel Meyer yesterday took into cus-tour Albert Nichol, in the Defmonico hotel on East Clay street, as insane. Nichol came to the hotel about three weeks ago, and has been looking for work in luman, Poulsen & Co.'s mill. Of late he has become violent, and shows evidence of a mind diseased. He is about 30 years of age, and has no money. When Deputy Meyer met Nichol, he found him mending his pantaloons, and on promise of a new pair, if he would come after them, Nichel readily accompanied the deputy to the county jail. He will be ex-

INTO THE NEW CHURCH.-The old First Congregational church, corner of Second and Jefferson streets, which has stood for so many years as a land mark in the city, has been dismantled of everything of value and finally abandoned. The old bell, for so many weeks silent, has, for munity several evenings, been calling the congregation to the fine new edifice on Park street, which is now a veritable hive of industry. Carpenters, electricians, carpetlayers and organ-builder working early and e to get everything in perfect order for the public opening of the new church

EAST SIDE AFFAIRS. Death of S. H. Fields, a Mount Tabor

Pioneer Resident. S. H. Pields, a pioneer residen of Mount Tabor, and father of Superin-tendent L. R. Fields, of the Southern Pacific, died at his home at Mt. Tabor, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the age of 74. His death was not unexpected, as he had been in delicate health for more than a year, and the physicians despaired of saving his life. Last menth he went to California, with the hope that the change of cilmate might be beneficial to him, but he grew worse, and returned home. When death came he was sur-rounded by the members of his family, and passed away peacefully. Deceased was a native of Wisconsin, and first came to Oregon in 1875, settling at Mount Tabor, where he since resided, continusuoly. He was a Grand Army man. having served for three years with credit in the Eighth artillery, Wisconsin vol-unteers. While in the army he contracted a disease of the eyes, which eventually destroyed his eyesight, and was principally responsible for his death.

Mr. Fields stood very high in the comhis death is very much regretted. He leaves a widow and four grandchildren-L. R., C. E., and Frank S. Fields, all residents of this city, and Mrs. E. S. Brubaker, of Mount Tabor. The funeral will take place from the family residence tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be at

Stories of experiences of people residing east of the city might indicate they did not have a very comfortable time during not have a very comfortable time during the recent storm. Mr. J. C. Buckley, re-siding east of Mount Tabor, had one-half on the plains at Chattaneoga, on the heights at Missionary ridge and above the clouds at Lockout mountain. It will be a true campfire stary told in a manly, soldierly way by one who was an eye-witness and participant of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the incidents of which he will apply the property of the kindling wood. A large piece fell across the manger, at which a horse was standing, and came very close to the animal Piles of hay, farming implements and wagon were covered with broken shingles and great masses of snow. Mr. Buckley has put up some temporary sheds for the sheltering of his stock. The loss was considerable, as the entire building will have to be reconstructed.

During the heaviest part of the storm Mr. John Smith undertook to walk across "Staggerweed" mountain. The snow was "Staggerweed" mountain. The snow was reduced to ice, and very slippery. A heavy gust of wind caught Mr. Smith and propelled him over the icy surface towarn a precipice, and be was not able to help himself. He was carried a quarter of a mile right on the edge of the precipice, and would have been carried over, but he managed to get held of a bush and worked his way to a place of safety until the wind lessened.

Funeral of Mrs. Arthur Roper

The funeral of Mrs. Arthur Roper, who died at Eugene last week, took place at the latter place, and she was buried in the Odd Fellows' cemetery, Bishop J. S. Mills conducting the services. Mrs. Roper was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Mickley, of Troutdale, and she lived at Troutdale until a short time ago, when her husband moved to Eugene. For a time she remained with her parents at Troutdale, and then started to join her husband at Eugene. She sustained the fatigue of the Irip very well, but when she reached her destination a reaction set in and the physician informed Mr. Roper his wife could survive but a few days. Her friends did not expect a sudden collapse. She leaves several small children, sides her parents at Troutdale, where she restored. An Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway occurred yester-day on Union avenue, in which a horse and express wagon belonging to the Gen-eral Electric Company took a prominent part. The wagon was loaded with wire and other articles used in repairing the City, Cal.; Alexander Campbell, of River-diarupted electric lights. The outfit was side, Cal.; C. E. Maude, of Riverside, Cal.;

somewhere near East Burnside when the horse became frightened and started down Union avanue, increasing his speed con-stantly. The street was lined with vehicles, and there was a lively scurrying to get out of the way of the flying outfit, to collisions occurred, and the horse, when opposite Lyons' stable, turned sharply and entered. As he did so most of the load was thrown out, but no great amount of damage was done.

They Alleged Usury.

A case for the replevin of some furni-ture in the possession of J. D. Rockefel-ler, begun by D. Downing, was before Jus-tice Bullock yesterday forenoon. It ap-peared that Mr. Rockefeller bought some furniture from a dealer named Clemens, in 1890, giving a chattel mortgage on it. The original amount was about $50, and The original amount was about $80, an it was never paid in full, although the defendant alleged he had paid at the rate of $4 per month, and in all had paid on the furniture about $160 in Illegal Interest Mr. Downing took the note from the orig inal holder, in payment for debt, and now wants his money, which Rockefeller does not want to pay, and contests on the ground of usury and previous payments. Evidence of the case was all taken in the forencen, and it was continued until next week for final adjustment.

Judgment for Thirty Cents.

An interesting civil action was tried be ore Justice Bullock yesterday afternoon in which Tom Parnell Gieve sought to recover $18 from Howard V. Palmer, al-leged to be due for wages for cooking in the restaurant of the latter. The defend-ant claimed he had paid the plaintiff all that was due him except 20 cents, which had been paid in court by the defendant. After a good deal of contention, the case was submitted to Justice Bullock. He decided in favor of the plaintiff, giving him judgment for 30 cents. However, the attorneys were against when the justice emarked he had squandered the money and would have to rustle it up.

The objects of the American Pomological Society are to encourage and extend fruit culture and to promote the science of pomology, as well as popular education. The society has not neglected to give special attention to commercial fruitgrowing The importance of raising the standard of market fruits will be one of the prin-cipal topics discussed at this meeting.

This society judges the fruits from all parts of the United States, and passes upon them, giving them awards on points of flavor, texture, color, size, etc., and what they say of Oregon fruits will pass without contradiction. The publication containing a report of their work is issued every two years, and is sought after the world over. By this means, and from the pleasant memories they will always bear of the hospitable reception received from the citizens of Oregon, will the state become advertised. JUSTICE COURT CASES. The May Hastings Bawdy-House Case

Taken Under Advisement. Justice Geisler yesterday examined into the cases of H. E. Edwards, Henry Meyer and John Strohm, accused of maintaining and setting up a bawdy-house at Fifth and Washington streets. Meyer and Strohm, as lessees, rented the premises to May Hastings, and Edwards sold May Hastings furniture for the place and guar-anteed the rent. Miss Hastings did not ay, and Meyer and Strohm sued Edwards During the trial of this suit it was brought ut that the house was run for immora ourposes, and thereupon the present charge was brought against all of the parties as being interested in conducting

At the trial yesterday, counsel for Edvarda quoted authorities to show that his dient was not guilty under the statute. to the many houses rented by prominent itizens for the purposes of prostitution, nd said it was unfair to make example f one man while others went free.

Justice Geisler replied that he was only supposed to take cognizance of cases pre-sented to him in his judicial capacity, and he would make an examination of the authorities submitted in Edwards' case and decide it Monday next. The cases of Meyer and Strohm were also taken under advisement until Monday. Edwards and May Hastings testified against the latter. Eliza Harms, lessee of the Merchants hotel, and Tom Condon, were arraigned on a charge of lewd cohabitation, and their examination was set for today. A like charge against T. J. Coyne and Clara Lane was dismissed, on account of the marriage of the parties since their arrest.

CONSIDER

The following proposition and see if you can find any better investment for $600. A corner lot, three blocks from The Oregonian building, with a good dwelling iouse now on the property. It will be sac rificed for $15,000, and $10,000 of the pur-chase price can run until 1896, at 6 per cent. This property lies in the direct line of the retail business of the city, and they simply can't get away from it. It is a splendid site for a brick building, and man who will take it and put up such a building will soon put himself in the position of many of our old citizens whose property has made them rich in to years. Take into consideration the fact that property is away down—that this is the cheapest thing in the neighborhood—that prices are gradually rising, and you will on arrive at the conclusion that some body has wheels in his head, if such an opportunity is neglected. The own-er has been ordered away by his physician, and he simply must go. Come around and let us show you the property and if you don't like our price, give us yours. It is undoubtedly the best thing going, and more than one man will kick himself, in a year from now, because he had not foresight enough to buy when he saw a certain bargain DeLASHMUTT & SON.

Paine's Celery Compound Their Best Relief.

In prescribing Paine's celery compound for a patient the other day a Portland physician, who is a specialist in nervous dif ficulties, declared that there were thou sands of such women who were literally killing themselves by too rapid move ments.

"They are not satisfied," said he, "with going about doing things in a quiet, ordi-nary way, but rush through with their work and ruin their health as fast as they can. So firmly fixed is this habit that they run up and downstairs when there is no need for hurry.

"They not only rush but worry, and be tween these two, subject their nervous system to more wear and tear than anything short of wrought steel could endure."

roung girls and even husiness men are rapidly growing more and more nervous Professor Phelps, the great Dartmouth scientist, saw this alarming state of things and concentrated all his energy to remedying it. It was from the formula of this eminent student and thinker that Paine's celery compound was prepared.

Its success in restoring nerve-strength and building up the worn-out body repaid | Gloria Umbrellas, the years of study and investigation that Professor Phelps conscientiously devoted to the diseases of the stomach and the kidneys, the result of impure blood and impoverished nerves. The astonishing results that have come from its careful use have been the subject of discussion in all the prominent newspapers and magazine in this country, Canada and throughout Great Britain.

The record of this great blood cleanser from the time of its discovery up to the present day, has been a marvelous one, It has cured literally thousands of can of nervous debility, rheumatism, kidney and heart troubles, and has made sound sleep possible to countless men and women whose irritable and impoverished nerves were slowly draining them of vitality.
