DEMAND TO BE MADE BY WOMEN OF G. O. P. FOR SUFFRAGE PLANK

Leaders of Two Parties Are Seeking to Gain Support of Women.

Chicago, June 7.—(U. P.)—Backed by pledges of 4,500,000 votes and $500,000 cash to overthrow enemies of woman's suffrage, the National Woman's party will this afternoon demand of the G. O. P. resolutions committee that a suffrage plank be included in the Republican platform.

The suffragettes planned also to demonstrate their strength before delegates this afternoon in a parade with 30,000 in line.

Old party gallants are already paying serious court to the new woman suffrage party, which made its national debut only yesterday. Miss Suffrage Party has a dowry of 4,500,000 votes to bestow upon the suitor who wins her affections.

Wants Pre-Nuptial Pledge.

She has already demonstrated that she is not easily to be beguiled by the flattering phrases of those who love her for her votes alone, but will insist upon a pre-nuptial contract pledging, in return, equal political opportunity for all Americans, through a national suffrage amendment.

Governor Osborn of Michigan and John Hays Hammond of New York were the first to plead publicly for her consideration of the cause of the Republicans.

Osborn, overardent after declaring that "if the Republican party has any political sense left, it will adopt the Susan B. Anthony amendment as a plank of its platform and nominate Theodore Roosevelt," admitted that he did not expect it to do the former.

Democrat Seizes Opportunity.

Miss Suffrage Party immediately lost interest in his suit.

Hammond boasted that Republicans would protect the bride, "by force of arms, and not by mere words," if she would but yield her hand—and votes. He painted in glowing words the manliness of the Republican party, but dodged a pre-nuptial contract. But all in vain.

Cheered by the chilly reception given the proposals of his hated rivals, Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port of New York, sought to rush the young lady to a hasty pledge to Democracy and Woodrow Wilson.

Suffrage Is Losing In Election in Iowa

River Towns Bring Favorable Vote Down; Majority 5000 Against With Returns From 94 of 99 Counties.

Des Moines Iowa., June 7.—(U. P.)—Returns from 94 of 99 of the counties in this state overthrew the estimates of yesterday that suffrage had won votes for women and the measure appears in the discard today by about 5000. The river towns rolled up majorities against suffrage which carried the day. The vote now shows for suffrage 139,253; against suffrage 144,995. For governor, Harding polled more votes than all the dry candidates combined, having in 85 counties 96,930, with Cosson following with 46,477; Allen 36,491 and Kuehnle 13,811.

Moore with 46,006 apparently is nominated for lieutenant governor against Hall of Des Moines with 38,792 and Brady 18,264.

CHICAGO CROWDS ARE GREATEST ON RECORD FOR THE WINDY CITY

Over 100,000 Visitors Present for Four Conventions—Women to Parade.

Chicago, June 7.—(U. P.)—Chicago blew all its records straight up through a gloomy atmosphere to the last spot on the far side of the sky today, as the greatest crowd that ever packed, jammed and smashed its way down old Boul Mich, shoved along to four big conventions. Whiskers and silken gowns swished alternately on the lake breezes and the throngs moved to the Republican, Progressive or either of the two suffrage meetings that brought more than 100,000 visitors to town.

From 9:30 in the morning, when the doors to the Coliseum opened, until 4 o'clock in the afternoon when a suffrage parade was scheduled, the streets along the lake front were packed from curb to curb. A gloomy drizzling rain eliminated most of the brilliance of the scene. Overcoats and slickers were in order. But despite the rain, suffrage leaders said 30,000 would be in line for the cause this afternoon if they had to swim.

All hotel corridors were filled with shouting presidential boomers and campaign directors. The bars did a rushing business, thirsty ones lining up four deep.

Society colonies from all parts of the country moved to Chicago for the spectacle. Grand dames and tea sipping "flappers" wearing the latest gowns, breezed the boulevards to occupy boxes at the convention.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mrs. Stanley McCormick of Boston, Mrs. Marshall Field and the Brazilian ambassador and his wife, the beautiful Mme. Da Gama, were a few of the arrivals from the east.

ITALIANS IN REPORT CLAIM SUCCESSES IN NUMEROUS SECTIONS

Austrian Assaults Stopped With Heavy Casualties and Some Ground Gained.

Rome, June 7.—(I. N. S.)—Official: In the Adigo valley during a snow storm on the night of the 5th, the Austrians attempted a surprise attack against all our positions from the Arsa valley to Pasubio. They were repulsed everywhere.

Yesterday, after intense artillery preparation, the Austrian columns advanced against Count Zugna. Our unerring fire threw them back in disorder. Along the Posina-Astico line during a heavy storm on the night of the 5th, the Austrians again launched numerous infantry masses, supported by artillery fire of all calibers against our Monte Glove and Monte Brazione positions. The rapid intervention of our artillery and the firmness of our infantry succeeded in completely repelling the attack with the heaviest enemy losses.

On the same night a successful counter attack enabled us to gain some ground on the western slopes of Monte Cencio.

On the Asiago plateau on the night of the 5th and the following morning the Austrians kept our Campomulo positions under a heavy artillery and machine gun fire. In the afternoon they renewed the attack, but were vigorously repulsed.

On the upper Cordevole plateau an Austrian column marching from Pralongia toward Sief was dispersed by the well adjusted fire of our batteries.

In the Pusteria valley our heavy artillery shelled the railway stations at Toblach and Innichen.

On the Isonzo front our bold infantry incursions continue.

Austrian aeroplanes shelled Aisa and Verona. Three prisoners were wounded.
