California-Oregon Line Re-Marked

Superintendent Rudolph of the United States Geological Survey Completes Four Years' Job on Boundary Work.

Medford, Or., Aug. 9.—Superintendent Rudolph of the United States geological survey has completed the work of re-surveying and marking the boundary line between Oregon and California. It was a four years' job. A path 50 feet wide extends from the coast to the eastern boundary of California. New monuments mark the new line. The completion of this work will definitely settle many disputes as to lines and boundaries of mining and homestead claims along the state line.

Appraising Grant Lands.

Medford, Or., Aug. 9.—Classification of the lands of the Oregon-California railroad grant has begun in this county with a large force of men under the direction of E. F. Rice, representing the government. The first camp has been established at Pinehurst, the full force numbering between 60 and 70 men. Nearly half a million acres of land will be appraised in Jackson county.

Deer Are Plentiful.

Medford, Or., Aug. 9.—Sunrise on August 15 will mark the open season for killing deer. It will close October 31. Game wardens throughout southern Oregon report deer have been seen more frequently in the foothills, near fields and orchards, and in greater number than for years.

Lightning Causes Darkness.

Carson, Wash., Aug. 9.—When lightning struck electric wires here during a storm Tuesday, two large transformers were blown out and the town was thrown into darkness. A terrific bombardment of thunder accompanied the storm.

WIFE OF FORMER PUBLISHER DIES

Mrs. Mary Pieri Romano.

Mrs. Mary Pieri Romano, who died yesterday morning at her home, 532 Elizabeth street, was the wife of Raphael E. Romano, a civil engineer, formerly publisher and editor of "L' Italico." In this city, and now manager of the Coast Contracting company. Mrs. Romano was 33 years of age and was born in Lucca, Italy, coming to this country in 1900. In Denver, Colo, on April 2, 1908, she was married to Mr. Romano, and in 1911 moved to Portland. Mrs. Romano is survived by her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Pieri, of New York City; four children, Giulietta, Paolino, Luisa and Adele Romano; two sisters and one brother.

Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at the Catholic cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis streets.

Recruiting at Medford.

Medford, Or., Aug. 9.—Third Oregon Infantry is 600 men short of full enlistment. Captain Curtis B. Winn, who has devoted two days to the work of recruiting in this city, reports fair results. The Third Oregon is now stationed at Palm Beach, near San Diego. Captain Winn declares that hard work will be required to recruit the number desired in this state at this time, ordinary labor being in demand in most sections of Oregon at this season of the year.

Flood Sufferers in Need of Outside Aid

No Appeal Made From Stricken North Carolina District But Official Says Contributions Would Be Appreciated.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 5.—To the Editor of The Journal—The people in the recently flooded districts in North Carolina are in great distress, and, while they are making heroic efforts to help themselves and are not asking outside aid, I am in position to know they would appreciate very much any donations given by their more fortunate brethren in other states.

Funds should be sent to the governor of North Carolina with the request that they be used for the relief of the stricken people in the flooded districts.

W. A. GRAHAM,
Commissioner of Agriculture for North Carolina.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends and acquaintances for their kind expressions of sympathy shown us during the illness and passing of our beloved husband and father; also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. Louise Prosser, Mrs. L. F. Schestler, Miss Jessie Prosser, Miss Ruby Prosser.

Promises of Double Wedding Made Good

Frank G. Marcus of Redwood City and Henry Marcus of San Francisco Are on Way to Alaska With Brides.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 9.—(U. P.)—Frank G. Marcus of Redwood City and his brother, Henry Marcus, of this city, are on their way today to Alaska, each with a bride, as a result of a promise the brothers made each other years ago that, in case one desired to marry, the other would do likewise and there would be a double wedding.

Henry's announcement of his engagement to Miss Hetty Matthew of Santa Rosa was followed by Frank's engagement to Miss Helen Walker of this city. The double knot was tied yesterday.

Former Policeman Is Sued.

Daisy Lydia Hazen has brought suit for divorce from her husband Mart Sheridan Hazen, for a short time a member of the Portland police force. Separation is asked on the ground of cruelty, it being alleged that Hazen abused his wife and four children.
