GREATEST CHRISTIAN HOLIDAY WILL BE OBSERVED TOMORROW

Elaborate Ceremonies Will Take Place in All Churches Tomorrow.

MUSIC TO BE FEATURE

Sacred Concerts, Cantatas and Special Programs to Be Given. Gifts to Be Made.

Yuletide will be ushered in tomorrow with pomp and ceremony in the churches throughout Portland.

In several instances special sermons and elaborate programs, appropriate to the occasion, have been prepared by the pastors. Choirs and large choruses have been busy for weeks past rehearsing special music programs, which will be rendered either at the morning service or evening entertainments, whichever the case may be.

In some churches regular Sunday evening services will be omitted because Christmas eve falls on Sunday.

Regular Christmas day services will be conducted in all Roman and Angelican Catholic churches Monday, and some churches of other denominations will also hold services.

Trinity Episcopal.

Old Trinity, Nineteenth and Everett, has made elaborate preparations for celebrating the Christmas festival.

Christmas eve at 11 o'clock there will be the midnight service, following a long-standing custom, which has become a feature of Portland's religious observance. Irrespective of creed, large numbers of people attend. The full choir will render the music.

Because Christmas eve falls on Sunday, the 8 o'clock evening service will be omitted. The morning of Christmas day the regular service will be at 11.

White Temple.

In the evening at the First Baptist church, the music will be special Christmas numbers: Anthem, "The Birthday of the King," by Neidlinger; duet, "O Holy Night," by Adam; anthem, "The Choir Angelic," by Hanscom, and for the evening offertory, Shelley's "Christmas."

The B. Y. P. U. is arranging to carry Christmas cheer to some of the institutions of the city. At 9 o'clock they will hold a song and praise service at the jail; at 10 o'clock they will hold a similar service at the Patton home. Miss Fern Anna Horn and Miss Grace Mascher will give readings. Wednesday evening at 7:30 they will give a program at the Boys' and Girls' Aid society. A Christmas tree and gifts will be part of the program.

St. Mary's Cathedral.

The following will be the musical program at St. Mary's Cathedral tomorrow:

6 A. M. Solemn High Mass.

Before Mass, "Adeste Fideles" ..... John Reading
Proper of the Mass ..... Vatican Plain Chant

St. Stephens Pro-Cathedral.

At St. Stephen's Episcopal Pro-Cathedral, Thirteenth and Clay streets, the Christmas day celebrations will be at 6:30 a. m., 7:30 a. m., and a choral service at 10:30 a. m. Dean E. H. McCollister will be the celebrant, Bishop W. T. Sumner will preach the sermon and the full vested choir under the direction of Carl Denton, organist, will render the musical portions of the service as follows:

Processional, "O Come All Ye Faithful" ..... Adeste Fidelis
Kyrie Eleison ..... Ascutter
Gloria Tibi, Gratias Tibi, Credo in E Flat ..... Eyre
Hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

First Congregational.

Christmas observance at the First Congregational church tomorrow promises to be better than ever. The previous services have been gradually leading up to the special observance which will take place tomorrow.

Dr. Dyott has taken for his theme "The World's New Day." At the evening services the choir will give a Christmas cantata which comprises the following numbers:

Pastorale—Organ.
Tenor solo and quartet—"There Were Shepherds."
Bass recitative—"And, Lo, the Angel of the Lord."
Soprano solo—"Fear Not."
Tenor recitative—"And Suddenly."
Quartet—"Glory to God."
Bass recitative — "And It Came to Pass."
Quartet — "Let Us Now Go Even Unto Bethlehem."
Alto recitative — "And They Came With Haste."
Alto solo and quartet—"Sleep, Holy Babe."
Bass recitative—"And Thou, Bethlehem."
Quartet—"He Shall Be Great."
Bass recitative—"Now, When Jesus Was Born."
Quartet—"Where Is He?"
Tenor solo — "Earth Has Many a Noble City."
Quartet—"Adeste Fideles."
Organ—"Song of Joy" (Stebbins).

Mrs. Jane Burnes Albert, soprano; Mrs. Mitylene Fraker Stites, contralto; Joseph P. Mulder, tenor; William Montgomery, basso; Mrs. Leonora Fisher Whipp, organist and director.

First Methodist.

One of the most famous of the latter day oratorios, "The Coming of the King," but Dudley Buck, is to be given by the quartet and vested chorus of the First Methodist Episcopal church at the service tomorrow evening. The chorus, numbering 50 voices, has been drilling for weeks, under the direction of Hartridge G. Whipp, and a finished production is promised. The solo parts will be sung by Miss Goldie Peterson, soprano; Miss Anne Mattilsen, contralto; Norman A. Hoose, tenor, and Mr. Whipp, baritone. It will require nearly one hour for the presentation of this work, and at its conclusion the pastor, Dr. Joshua Stansfield, will give the last in his series of sermons on "Man," taking as his topic "The God Man—Jesus." This series has been one of exceptional interest.

The service in the morning is to be of value. Dr. Stansfield will deliver a Christmas sermon, and for his subject will have "The Christian Meaning of Christmas." There is also to be special music by the quartet and chorus.

The poor of the city are not to be forgotten. Under the direction of Miss Sadie Smith, deaconness, several deserving families will be remembered with baskets of food, clothing and such necessities as will do the most good.

First Presbyterian.

Special services will be held at the First Presbyterian church, Twelfth and Alder streets, for morning and evening, and in the Sunday school auditorium at 12:10 p. m.

Dr. John H. Boyd will preach Sunday morning on "Christmas, the Day That Changed the World."

There will be special music by the choir, assisted by Mrs. Robert J. Power, harpist.

The topic for Dr. Boyd's sermon in the evening will be, "The World as Christ Would 'Have It."

The Sunday school orchestra of 15 pieces will render Rubenstein's "Reve Angelique" at the evening service, and special music will be given by the choir.

In the Sunday school this season has been made a "giving Christmas." Members of the Sunday school will not receive any gifts, but all will bring money in red stockings to go to the relief of Belgian children. A special program has been prepared for the Sunday school beginning at 12:10 p. m.

The program for the morning services at 10:30 a. m. and for the evening services at 7:30 o'clock, follows:

Morning—Prelude.

First Unitarian.

Special music will be rendered at the Christmas service to be held tomorrow at 11 o'clock at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian), William G. Eliot, Jr., minister. The sermon theme will be, "What Did Jesus Say About God?" The open forum in the evening will be omitted. Following is the musical program:

Children's processional, "Silent Night;" voluntary, "The Cadinette Shepherd Song," by Zores; anthem, "Sing, O Heavens," by Tours; hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem;" response, "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," by Reed; "Christmas," by Shelley; offertory, "Song of Adoration," by Stoughton; postlude, "Christmas March," by Clark.

Organist, Ralph W. Hoyt; chorister, Otto Wedemeyer; soprano, Mrs. Herman Politz; alto, Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed; tenor, Ross Fargo.

St. Jame's Lutheran.

Rev. W. E. Brinkman, new pastor of the St. James Lutheran church will preach tomorrow morning on "Making Straight the Highway." "Lessons From the Manger" will be the theme of his sermon at the evening service.

On Monday morning an early matin Christmas service will be held at 7 o'clock, sermon, "The Unspeakable Gift." At 6:30 Monday evening, the Sunday school of the church will render a fine miscellaneous Christmas program. Special music will be heard. The children will be remembered with a treat. Two handsomely decorated Christmas trees will grace the chancel of the church.

St. David's Parish.

The service tomorrow morning at the Saint David's church will be used as a preparation for the Christmas festivities. At 6:30 Christmas evening the festival will begin with the children's carol service and tree. The children's offering will be for the Newsboys' cot at the Good Samaritan hospital. At 11:30 there will be a midnight Eucharist. The music will be Custance full service in A flat. The offertory anthem will be Gaul's "Sing, O Heavens and Rejoice, etc." On Christmas day at 8 o'clock holy communion and at 10 o'clock Eucharist communion and service. The music will be Custance's in A flat with Psalm 110 as Introit and "Christians, Awake" for the Procession. Offering for General Clergy Relief.

Central Free Methodist.

The revival services have closed at the Central Free Methodist church and the pastor, W. N. Coffee, will occupy the pulpit in the morning, preaching upon the subject, "Decision Essential to Christian Life." In the evening there will be appropriate Christmas services. A program will be rendered by the Sunday school and a Christmas talk as a prelude will be given by the pastor.

Central Presbyterian.

Special music has been arranged for the Christmas services at Central Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and evening. The program as arranged by Director E. Maldwyn Evans follows:

Morning,—Prelude, "Christmas Fantastia" ..... Ashmall
1—"Angels' Song."
2—Pastorals.
3—Adoration.

WILL USHER IN THE NEW YEAR WITH SERIES OF REVIVAL MEETINGH

Young People of the Baptist Churches Purpose Starting Evangelistic Gatherings.

The young people of the Baptist churches of Portland will start the new year with a series of revival meetings in the East Side Baptist church, East Twentieth and East Ankeny streets. The meetings will begin on New Year's night and will last for one week, Monday night being the first night. It is planned to hold a rally so as to get the people acquainted.

Young Men's Gospel Team Active.

One of the interesting features of the program of the young people's week will be the work of the gospel team from the young men's class of the Highland Baptist church. This work is patterned after some of the teams in other sections which has proven successful in evangelistic endeavors. The teacher of the class is Krist Gudnason.

The class team will have charge on Tuesday evening. It is planned to have this meeting useful to class workers who are not acquainted with this branch of church work.

On Thursday evening an excellent talk is expected from Dr. E. B. Borden of the Johns union. The program will be conducted by all the unions divided into groups and their officers will plan for the service to which they are assigned. The officers of the Willamette association will also assist.

Following is a list showing the different unions which have charge each evening: Tuesday—Highland, University Park and St. Johns; Wednesday—Glenco, Calvary, Arleta and Lents; Thursday—East Side, White temple and Third; Friday—Swedish, Sellwood and Tabernacle.
