Weather Conditions

This morning's chart indicates a decided eastward drift of the low pressure system which persisted for a long time over the western states. The center of the low barometer area now lies over North Dakota, and during the last 24 hours it was accompanied by light rains in parts of Montana, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The barometer is still low in the east, the center being over Pennsylvania; it caused light showers in the middle states and at Memphis, Tennessee. A light shower was reported at Phoenix, Arizona; elsewhere west of the continental divide the weather was fair. It is warmer this morning in California, along the Gulf coast and in the Missouri valley. It is cooler in the northwest, in the great basin and in Arizona. In other portions of the country the temperature changes were small. The temperatures this morning are below the seasonal average in the eastern half of the country, the extreme northwest, and the great basin.

The conditions are favorable for fair weather in this vicinity tonight and Wednesday with warmer Wednesday.

ALFRED H. THIESSEN, Meteorologist.

TOWN TOPICS

Picnic August 12.—August 12 is the date of the annual picnic of the Portland Transportation club at Bonneville. The O-W. R. & N., with its compliments, will furnish a special train to take the picnickers from Portland to the park. Admission to the park will free. A series of races and other features of entertainment are being arranged. N. C. Soule is in charge of the arrangements. Transportation men from Seattle, Spokane and other points are to be invited.

Child Runs Away on Car.—Betty, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Holt, 867 Lovejoy street, Monday afternoon sought the refreshing outdoor air. As a means to obtaining this she hailed a Twenty-third street car and climbed aboard. After riding back and forth across town for two hours Betty was turned over to a traffic policeman to find her home. At 6 o'clock Mr. Holt, cashier of the United States National bank, arrived at the station to take his nomadic daughter home.

Employes on Payroll.—Don C. Taylor and J. D. Lyman of the Canadian Pacific, who recently joined the American colors, are sharing the same privilege as Canadian employes of the road who are members of the Canadian army. They are being carried on the payroll the same as their Canadian brothers. They will receive full pay from the company at least six months and it is expected that provision for another six months' pay will be made.

Stationed at Ft. Scott.—Dr. J. A. Applewhite has received word that his brother-in-law, Henry K. Van Every, East Morrison and Sixty-ninth streets, and an employe of the Ladd & Tilton bank, has been commissioned second lieutenant. Lieutenant Van Every left in May for the Presidio. The letter said he is now stationed at Fort Winfield Scott as a second lieutenant in the field artillery.

Collision Damages Auto.—An automobile belonging to F. E. Chambers of Eugene Monday afternoon collided with another machine at the corner of East Eighteenth street and Bybee avenue, and resulted in serious damage to Mr. Chambers' machine. No one was injured. Mrs. Koontz, a passenger in the other machine with her two sons, was badly shocked. With Mr. Chambers at the time of the accident was Attorney A. F. Flegel.

Car Hits Deaf Mute.—Constantine Dowkupitz, 7-year-old mute, who lives with his grandmother at 1711 East Eighth street, was struck by a Gresham car yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Umatilla street, receiving severe bruises. He was treated at the Sellwood hospital and taken to his home. He was crossing the track and watching one of the cars, and did not see the other approaching from the opposite direction.

Boating Party Friday.—One of the coming events of the week is the Lincoln high alumni boating party for which a committee is busily engaged making plans. The party leaves Kellogg's boathouse, foot of Salmon street, on the launch Beaver at 8:15 Friday evening. Friends of the society are cordially invited to attend.

Howard White Arrested.—Charged with misappropriating $250 entrusted to his care while Frank Decker underwent an operation at the county hospital, Howard White was arrested last night by Detectives Leonard and Snow. Of the $250, White, it is alleged, spent all but $17.

Tonight!! Some Dance!!—Continuous. One sweet orchestra and the original Georgian colored Jazzbo band jinglers, introducing new and original plantation pastimes. Hear the "Livery Stable Blues." Positively a scream; also four entertainers. No advance in prices. Arbor garden, Second and Morrison. Admission, ladies 15c, gents 25c. —Adv.

Van Hise to Address Club.—"Save Food and Help Win the War," will be the subject of an address before the Ad club Wednesday noon, by Dr. C. R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin and personal representative of the food administrator, Herbert Hoover. Another program feature will be a piano duet by the Misses Amber and Sadie Arey.

Alleged Slacker in Court.—Marks Skomo, 25 years old, alleged draft dodger, was the defendant in federal court this morning in an order of removal to the Eastern District of Washington, where he is wanted to answer an indictment charging failure to register for the war census. He is said to have refused pursuant to the taunts of others.

Old Tin Cans Sought.—The supply of old tin cans on the Pacific Coast is the subject of inquiry from a large import and export firm in Japan, according to Postmaster Myers. Inference is made that metal is so scarce there that a firm market now exists for old tin cans which have not become too rusted.

Active Doings at Armory.—Monday night the armory was filled with members of the three engineer and the three cavalry organizations, and a large class of new recruits receiving instructions in a number of platoons. Several platoons drilled in the street.

Imperial Clerk Resigns.—Lou J. Reno, for five years room clerk at the Imperial, has had to resign on account of ill health. He will spend some time resting. His successor will be W. E. Metzger, formerly night manager.

Test of Educators' Citizenship Is Here

Josephine Corliss Preston, superintendent of the public instruction, Olympia, Wash., addressed the general session on "Woman and Preparedness." After describing the momentous task America has undertaken and the sinister results of defeat, spoke of the woman, who, holding back their tears, sends her son to war. Then taking up the teacher's duty, she said:

"We women, who are here today represent the great army of women educators of this nation who are counted as next to the home in influence and responsibility in the training of the youth of our land. We, many of us, cannot give sons to the war. They are not ours to give. But, we have an important part to pe rform in this great life-struggle nevertheless. Our country needs us. A great world of humanity needs us. The test of our citizenship has come."

ALLEGED MURDERER OF GIRL IS CAUGHT IN RANKS OF I. W. W.

Companion of Fugitive Arrested as Accomplice in Crime Committed in Fort Worth.

Rufus Coates

Charged with the murder of a young girl in Fort Worth Texas, Rufus Coates, 19 years old, was arrested at Third and Morrison streets at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon by Detective Captain Baty and Detectives Hellyer, Tackaberry, Hyde and Abbott. The crime was committed June 2. The victim, Miss Zella Faulck, was struck on the head and then, while she lay unconscious her head was almost severed from her body with a pocketknife.

Clyde Tucker, 22 years old, Coates' companion, who is charged with being his accomplice in the crime, was arrested at the same time. Their capture resulted largely from their affiliation with the I. W. W. A number of members of this organization drifted into town Monday and detectives, watching the movements of the men with red badges, recognized Coates and Tucker from descriptions and photographs sent out in circulars from Fort Worth.

The detectives say that within 10 minutes after being taken to police headquarters, Coates had made a complete confession of the murder without implicating Tucker. He is said to have killed the girl "because she was going out with other fellows," and he was jealous of her. He took her for a walk in the woods, according to the confession he is said to have made, and hit her on the head with an axe.

Later, according to this confession, he returned with his chum, Tucker, to the place where the girl was lying. Then, while Tucker covered against a fence, Coates opened his pocketknife and deliberately cut his victim's throat.

Coates and Tucker are being held in the city jail pending the arrival of an officer from Fort Worth.

OAKS AMUSEMENT PARK

CHAT 41

Plan your Summer holidays—there's lots of pleasure in dreaming about where to go and what to do. Don't spend too much time on trains nor too much on car fares—be outdoors all you can—out in the open. Staying at home is not fair to yourself nor your employers, who give you a vacation to get mentally and physically fit. Here at the Oaks everyone can find ideal rest and recreation, with plenty of clean fun to keep from getting lonesome. Bring your baskets and the good old coffee pot—go swimming or skating—dance in the pavilion. Be our guests without extra cost at the afternoon or evening performance of "In Old Seville," a jolly musical comedy, in which dainty girls sing and dance their way straight to your heart, while your sides shake laughing at the comedians. And after the show sit and listen to the patriotic and popular concert played by that famous bandmaster, W. E. McElroy, and his soloists, with Miss Hall as prima donna, every evening.

There is something worth while doing every minute of the day out here in Portland's Playgrounds—the finest amusement park on the Coast. JOHN F. CORDRAY.

The Chats contain an interesting suggestion every day.
